

HEAVY VOTE CAST IN LOCAL PRECINCTS

The heaviest vote ever polled in the precincts centering in Gresham was cast last Tuesday, when more than 75 per cent of the registered voters of the district went to the polls and cast their ballots for their favorite candidates. Precincts 308, 309 and 309½ cast 236, 220 and 257 votes respectively in the general election. This was nearly 79 per cent for precinct 308, 76 per cent for 309½ and nearly as much for the other precinct. Almost as many votes were cast on the bridge bond issue as on the general ticket. In addition to these a heavy vote was cast by residents of Gresham for the various offices.

In the Gresham precincts 686 votes were cast for the three leading candidates for president. Of these Coolidge got 428 votes, Davis 161 and La Follette 97.

In the senatorial vote McNary was an easy winner, receiving 439 votes as against the democratic candidates 176. An interesting incident in this connection was the fact that Milton A. Miller, the democratic candidate, received 59 votes in precinct 309, 58 in 309½ and 59 in 308.

Almost as spectacular was the victory of Crumpacker, over Congressman Elton Watkins, the former receiving 395 votes and the latter 251.

City Ticket Elected.

In the municipal election Treasurer John Metzger was high man, receiving 485 votes, Recorder Schneider 479 and Chas. Cleveland, who was elected mayor, 471. These candidates had no opposition on the ballot.

A lively contest was on for the office of marshal, with four candidates in the field, B. H. Johnson, E. H. Kelly, C. E. Pilante and C. E. Runyan. Kelly was the winner with 193 votes in the three precincts. Johnson received 160, Runyan 90 and Pilante 57.

Five candidates were up for the three councilmanic positions. The winners were Dr. A. W. Botkin, with 384 votes to his credit, B. W. Thorne with 343 and Russell Akin with 297. Botkin and Thorne were elected to succeed themselves. J. A. Bushong received 238 votes and H. C. Larsen 221.

The Outlook's advice to vote early seems to have been followed by the majority of voters and election boards were kept exceedingly busy from the time of the opening of the polls until about 5 o'clock, with a light vote after that hour. Counting boards organized early in the forenoon and did not finish until after midnight.

Zion Evangelical Church Day.

Sunday is to be observed as "Church Day" at the Zion Evangelical church.

The Sunday school will convene for its session promptly at 10 a. m. Reformation services will be conducted in the English language at 11 a. m. and in the German language at 11:50 a. m. The choir will render special music at these services and an offering for the educational institutions of the denomination will be received.

Following these services a luncheon and social hour will be held at which Chester A. Lyon of Portland, who has been very successful in his words with many boys, will address all present on "Safe-guarding the Child" or a similar topic. The public is most cordially invited to hear him at 2 p. m. All members and interested friends who attend the morning services are requested to bring a basket lunch.

On Wednesday, November 12, the ladies of the church will have their annual bazaar and chicken dinner at the grange hall. Fancy work articles, aprons, etc., will be on sale, beginning at 2:30 p. m. A chicken dinner will be served from 5:30 to 8 p. m. Tickets may be secured from the pastor or any member of the church. Fish ponds, a candy sale and a program will help to make the evening interesting.

The Ladies' Aid is to be found elsewhere in this issue.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HOLD CONVENTION

The Pleasant Home district Sunday school convention meets next Sunday, November 9, at the Haley Baptist church, one mile north of Boring. The morning session begins at 11:20, following the regular Sunday school hour of the various churches represented. Judge Kanzler of the court of domestic relations, of Portland, is the speaker. A basket lunch will be enjoyed between the morning and afternoon sessions. There will be a business meeting at 2 p. m., which will include the election of officers for the ensuing year. A nominating committee has already been appointed to bring in nominations. Prof. A. F. Bittner, a prominent educator of Portland, will be the afternoon speaker. There will be special music from the various Sunday schools, among which will be a solo by Miss Martha Hagerberg.

FUNERAL IS HELD OF FORMER FAIRVIEW GIRL

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Maude Appell, who passed away last Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Shaw at Wasco, Oregon, after a long illness. She is survived by her husband, John Appell, a daughter 9 months old, her parents, two brothers, Albert and Donald Shaw, three sisters, Mrs. Louise Royce, Mabel and Lois Shaw, all of Wasco, Oregon, besides many relatives in this vicinity. Grant Shaw of Portland and George Shaw of Fairview are uncles and Mrs. H. M. Donley of Spokane and Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair of Gresham are aunts. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cook of Clackamas and Mrs. H. M. Shaw of Gresham are grandparents. The services were conducted at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church by the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted. The church was appropriately decorated with fall flowers and greenery and the floral gifts of friends were profuse and beautiful. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery on the Sandy boulevard. Three Luscher brothers sang and Mrs. A. L. Stone played the piano.

A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance at the funeral, coming from Spokane, Wasco, Portland, Gresham and vicinity. Four auto loads came from Wasco and four of the pall bearers were from that place. Local pall bearers were Earl Townsend and Ed. Smith.

Mrs. Appell was born in Portland in 1901. She spent several years at Fairview and for a number of years her home had been at Wasco. She was a trained nurse. Her little daughter will be under the care of her parents.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the many friends in Fairview and vicinity for their sympathy expressed in words and deeds and for the many beautiful flowers which covered the last resting place of our dear one.

John Appell, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Shaw and Family.

Swatting The Bogey With Ballots

Every ballot for Coolidge and his sound, common sense principles of republicanism on Tuesday was not only a vote of confidence in the administration but was a swat at the bogey of hard times and mal-administration.

The election of substantial business men on the council shows that locally the voters recognize the importance in city affairs of business ability and have confidence in the men who have directed the city government.

The same thing in effect occurred in Portland where Mayor Baker was re-elected and two trusted and experienced city commissioners were re-elected. Also every one of the six city measures on the Portland city ballot was carried. They were the city zoning plan, the 2.2 mill tax, the assessment bonds, the street lighting districts, the six per cent engineering costs, and the Shrine hospital tract measures.

The county vote showed the same attitude of business hopefulness and confidence, in the voting of the additional bridge bonds, the election of County Commissioner Smith, Sheriff Hurlburt and others, and in the election of a republican congressman.

In the state vote there is to be seen the same forward-looking confidence of the voters: Governor Pierce's stage-playing administration, with its unfulfilled promises is given a rebuke in the repeal of the Pierce income tax, the re-election of Senator McNary by a large majority, and Congressmen Hawley and Sinnott by large margins, and the election of Thomas Kay as state treasurer.

The state vote on the seven measures before the people by initiation or referendum was a business, common-sense vote. In spite of all the appeals to make effective freak measures the results show a commendable intelligence regarding the issues involved and an independence of thought and decision.

Two measures were really hard to decide as they seemed to place the interests of the city over against the interests of the agricultural sections of the state. These were the state income tax repeal measure and the bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of butter substitutes containing milk or milk products or condensed milk containing any vegetable fat.

But the voters said No almost two to one on the oleomargarine bill and repealed the state income tax law by a decisive majority.

The voters said No two to one on the dictatorial workmen's compulsory compensation law. They refused to recognize the naturopaths as entitled to the same standing and state protection in their practice as the regular graduate physicians.

On the other hand the voters strongly approved the literacy test for voters, the public use and welfare amendment, and the bonus amendment.

By and large there was probably more real good judgment shown by the voters in their vote on men and measures at the recent election than is usual. We do not mean by that statement to set our own judgment up as a standard. We are basing the statement on the practical issues involved—the issues that should and did appeal to a majority of thoughtful men and women citizens.

NUTRITION SCHOOLS FOR COUNTY NOV. 11-14

A series of nutrition schools will be held this year in four different communities, Lynch, Bellrose, Gresham, and Pleasant Valley. This work is under the supervision of Miss Lucy A. Case, the extension specialist in nutrition from Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Case comes to the extension service from Wisconsin, where she has had several years of experience, and puts on some excellent work. She has an enviable reputation.

The following communities are scheduled for this work:

Tuesday, November 11—Lynch community at the home of Mrs. John Lynch on the Section Line road.

Wednesday, November 12—Bellrose at the Bennett chapel, Park Drive near Gilbert road.

Thursday, November 13—Gresham at the public library.

Friday, November 14—Pleasant Valley at Pleasant Valley church.

These meetings will be held from 10:30 to 3:30 with the exception of the Gresham meeting which will be from 1:30 to 4:30. It is the practice in most of the communities when all-day meetings are held for each lady to bring some dish of food and put it with the others and serve cafeteria style at noon luncheon. Every lady also brings her own plate, cup, napkin and silver.

This nutrition work is given on the basis of food for health, and the discussion will include among other subjects, cooking to preserve food value, planning the family meal, food for mothers and children, feeding the under-weight and over-weight, feeding the sick, and so forth. Food demonstrations will be given at all but the first meeting.

A large crowd is expected in each of these communities. Other schools, such as dressmaking, sewing and millinery are planned for early spring if these meetings are well attended.

POSTOFFICE UNDER- GOING REPAIRS

On the strength of a renewal of the lease to the present postoffice building which is owned by A. Meyers, a number of repairs have been taking place during the past week, not the least of which is the renovating of the ceiling and walls. Paint has been applied to the walls for a depth of perhaps six feet from the floor, then kalsomining to the top and also the ceiling. A new bulletin board has been hung which is large enough to accommodate all circulars and notices which heretofore have marred the appearance of the walls. A parcel post window has been cut in the rear door to provide a long-felt want especially in the rush season incident to Christmas and other holiday mailing.

Rural route No. 2 has been extended to include one-half mile additional service, about a dozen families on north Cleveland avenue being supplied with carrier postal service.

County Fair Board Meeting.

A meeting of the directors of the Multnomah county fair board was scheduled for Monday evening, but being on the eve of election the members evidently were too busy to attend and only seven were present. As this did not constitute a quorum, no business could be dispatched and the meeting was adjourned until the following Monday evening, November 10, at which time a meeting of the stockholders will be held at the city hall. It is hoped at this time that the 19 members of the board and as many of the stockholders as can will be present as there is important business to be transacted. The organization of the board itself has not as yet been perfected and it is probable at this meeting the officers of the board will be elected. A plan for increasing the capital stock of $50,000 will receive further discussion and possible action at this meeting Monday evening.

ARMISTICE DAY.

Armistice Day is the glad, sad day we observe in celebration of the ending of the World War and a memorial to the many brave boys who made the final and perfect sacrifice.

Six years have passed since that glad 11th day of November, 1918, when fathers and mothers, relatives and friends, wept and rejoiced together that the active fighting on the long battle front had ceased.

We are too near that great event to fully realize its significance. We do know, however, that the great conflict was not in vain. A more intelligent world learns anew the utter uselessness of war. We live in a safer, better world. The blood of our sons was the price paid.

We cannot fail to bow in reverence to the heroic living and dead who stemmed the tide of slaughter and ended the great war, and it is hoped all wars, that right might triumph throughout the earth.

CLUB CHARTERS HAVE BEEN SENT BY LEADER

Boys' and girls' club charters, issued after filing accepted programs of work, are being sent the following clubs of Multnomah county by H. C. Seymour, state club leader. These charters are personally signed by the late Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace, the superintendent of public instruction, the director of the extension, and the state club leader. The standard clubs are the Progressive Cookery club of Rockwood, the Russellville Corn club, the Gresham Garden club, the Willing Workers Sewing club of Gresham, the Powell Valley Gardeners club, Orient Pig club, Oregon Brown Swiss Calf club of Linnton, Springdale Campers Camp Cookery club of Troutdale, the Rose Bud Sewing club of Pleasant Valley, Gilbert Poultry Cacklers club, Calf club of Corbett, Bluebird Sewing club of Rockwood, Sewing club of Orient, Sunshine Workers Sewing club of Buckley, Cross Stitch Sewing club of Troutdale, and the Cook-a-While club of Wilkes school District 7.

Undenominational Church Services.

Sunday school will convene at 10 a. m. Sunday, and at 2 o'clock there will be preaching by the pastor, the Rev. S. F. Pitts. These afternoon meetings are well attended each Sunday and a cordial welcome is extended to all, also to the prayer meetings Tuesday evenings, and Bible study Friday evening. All are welcome.

MRS. LAURA HARLOW TROUTDALE MAYOR

In the recent election, Mrs. L. A. Harlow heads the municipal ticket as newly-elected mayor. H. E. Boyd was elected recorder, John McGinnis for treasurer and Jam's Cook, F. A. Edmundson, Richard Knarr and George Parrish are the councilmen. Roy Surber polled the most votes for marshal.

Mrs. Harlow succeeds H. E. Boyd as mayor of Troutdale. This is not the first time a woman has held the reins of government in the city which is known as "the home of the trout." Mrs. Clara Larson served several terms as mayor and could not doubt have been re-elected, but declined to serve. She also enjoys the distinction of having been one of the first woman mayors in the state of Oregon.

The Portland chamber of commerce gave a banquet on Monday night to club leaders and club members who were winners of first prizes at the state fair the last two seasons. Over 600 were present. Those who attended from Troutdale were Robert Harlow, Dale Parsons, Arnold Daum, John Robinson, Nicholas Lefor and A. J. Krueger, poultry club leader here. The boys report a good time.

The girls of the eighth grade and Mrs. Emiline Shaw, the principal, helped Mrs. J. S. Hudson tie a comfort one day recently. The girls did good work and enjoyed it very much. Ice cream and candy were served by the hostess. Those present were Viola Pye, Blanche Calkins, Grace Surber, Marjorie Kuhnley, Mary Scott, Elizabeth Robinson and Mrs. Emiline Shaw.

Mrs. Thomas Low entertained secretaries of the O. E. S. of Portland and vicinity at her home on Thursday. There were 16 present. It was also the fourth birthday anniversary of Gertrude Federspiel, granddaughter of Mrs. Low, who, with her mother, Mrs. Fred Federspiel, is here from California. Mrs. Isabella Thorbour of The Dalles, mother of Mrs. Low, is also a house guest, making four generations at the dinner table. The rooms and table were prettily decorated in Halloween colors. Mrs. W. C. Spence assisted the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hanks of Canyonville, Oregon, and Miss Minnie Campbell of Roseburg, Oregon, arrived Sunday evening to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McGinnis. Miss Campbell will also spend several days in Portland before returning to her home.

Mrs. H. E. Bradley and daughters Frances and Lois of Lents were Sunday visitors at the H. C. McGinnis home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parsons visited in Portland Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. August Lisi Friday, October 31st, a son, weight 4½ pounds.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Harlow were Mr. Strubbe of Portland and Miss Fay Parsons.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lumsden of Fairview were calling on Troutdale friends Sunday.

Harry McGinnis and family have moved into their new residence which has just been completed. Mr. McGinnis will plant most of his land to asparagus.

James Burns and family and David Burns from Newberg, Oregon, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Margaret Burns.

Milo Coons and family from Portland have moved into the Tiller residence on Harlow street.

Russel Wilson has been quite ill with rheumatism the past week.

Isaac Hatfield has returned from Underwood, Washington, where he has been working in the apple orchards for some time.

The Halloween party given by the Parent-Teacher association in the city hall Friday night was well attended in spite of the bad weather. All report a merry time. There were so many excellent costumes it was hard for the judges to decide on the prize winners. Adult, Mrs. A. D. Kendall; Mrs. Shaw's room, Lucile Howell and Dorothy Kendall; Mrs. Otto's room, Joe Scott and George Willing; Mrs. Scott's room, Lyda May Surber and Jack Evans; under school age, Edna Nysmith and Junior McGinnis. Sandwiches, doughnuts, coffee and punch were served.

Robert White passed away Thursday morning at the age of 84 years, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Edmundson, with whom he had lived for the past 30 years. He was born in England and but little is known of his relatives. The funeral will be held Saturday at 1 o'clock at Troutdale, with interment in Douglas cemetery.

Mrs. Clara Wallace of Garibaldi, Oregon, was visiting old friends in Troutdale recently.
