Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones and son, Hallie, moved Saturday back onto the country home, the "Highland Farm," just south of the D. M. Cathey place. Willard Bliss has installed a new Marswell pipe furnace in his residence through the agency of the Kidder Mrs. B. L. Walrad entertained Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Melvin Johnston, a recent bride, there being nearly 30 guests present. The rooms were beautiful in chrysanthemums and dahlias. Miss Gertrude Alexander sang, Miss Augusta Hahn rendered a number of whistling selections and Mrs. J. H. Sterling gave several pleasing piano solos. Mrs. Johnston received a great many handsome gifts. Cake and punch were served by the hostess.

The Woman's Home Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. K. A. Miller Wednesday afternoon, November 12, Mrs. A. S. Hisey, leader. Miss Mina Gilbert, Mrs. Carrie Powell and Mrs. John Brown will assist the hostess. It is requested that delinquent dues be paid at this meeting. Gordon Gibson, a student at Oregon Agricultural College, arrived home on Thursday afternoon for a stay until Armistice day.

Mrs. O. A. Eastman is in attendance at the Pacific International livestock show this week in the capacity of assistant clerk in the office of the agricultural products department, of which C. D. Minton is secretary.

The marriage license has been published of Frederick W. Johnson of Boring and Miss Myrtle Nasshahn of Gresham.

Mrs. Sam Owre, of Westport, Ore., formerly Miss Clara Mason, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. F. Mason and family.

The ladies of the Sew and Sew circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will meet for work at the church on Wednesday afternoon, November 19, at 2:30. The serving committee consists of Mrs. W. R. Gorsage, Mrs. Jackson Jones and Mrs. Russell Akin.

The Areme club will meet with Mrs. W. J. Ott Monday afternoon, November 10. All Eastern Star ladies are invited.

O. Adams has sold his acre tract on the Hogan road to Galen Fancher, Mr. and Mrs. Adams and family have moved to a new home which they have purchased at Lents and Mr. and Mrs. Fancher have taken possession of their new property.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Leming have taken a three-year lease on the Stone farm at Anderson station and have taken up their residence there. They will engage in dairying and general farming. They have been associated for the past year with W. F. Robinson on the S. C. Jones farm southwest of Gresham.

The Rebekah Welfare club met last Monday afternoon with Mrs. John Metzger with a good attendance. Two comforts were finished for the I. O. O. F. home. After work dainty refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed. The club will give a bake sale on Saturday afternoon, November 8, at the Cecil Metzger grocery.

Miss Beatrice Capen as a lady of Colonial days and Miss Alma Larson of Portland in a Chinese costume. The prize was awarded to the latter. Hobgoblins and ghosts were seen at almost every corner. The rooms were tastefully decorated in black and gold. Fortune telling and various games completed the evening's entertainment. A luncheon of sandwiches and pumpkin pie was served after midnight.

Arrangements have been made by the Gresham W. C. T. U. for two addresses to be given next Thursday, November 13, by Mrs. G. J. Frankel, head of the anti-narcotic of the Women's Federated clubs of Portland, who will speak at the high school before the student body at 3:45, and at the Methodist Episcopal church at 2:30 in the afternoon. This is the date of the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. and this address will take the place of the usual business session. A general invitation is extended to one or both of these meetings.

The first of a series of entertainments this year by professional artists under the auspices of the high school student body will be given next Friday evening, November 14, by the Knowles Quartet of Portland in the gymnasium. A fine program of music will be given.
