Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Free Methodist church Thanksgiving, November 27, at 10:30. Dr. C. W. Huett will deliver the address and several selections will be given by a male quartet. The various pastors of Gresham have been invited to take part in the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raney have arrived from Hood River and have taken possession of the home place near Ruby junction for the winter.

A. M. Wilkinson and R. E. Smith are enjoying a few days of wild goose hunting near Wasco, Oregon.

Mrs. Vivian Gordy is reported to be ill at her home with a form of intestinal disorder.

Mrs. C. G. Schneider gave a luncheon on Wednesday with cover plates for six in honor of Miss Pearl Ruegg who left Thursday morning for Bakersfield, California, to visit a cousin and other relatives. The rooms were prettily decorated in chrysanthemums. Mrs. Boyd Wolf, of Portland, a sister of Mr. Schneider, also Mrs. Maxwell Schneider were present.

The Rev. Earl Crook, of Aurora, pastor of the Bible Standard church, has resigned his work, at least temporarily. The pulpit of the community church will be filled by the Aaron Hansen of Aberdeen, Washington, who with his family will probably move to Gresham within a few weeks.

The Gresham New Laundry, under the management of Clarence J. Cleveland, is apparently a thing of the past. The house was suddenly vacated, leaving several hundred dollars worth of laundry equipment on the premises.

Mrs. Ethel Daniels of Oakland, California, is here for a month's visit with her aunt, Mrs. John Bliss, the latter's daughters, Mrs. Blaine Turner, Mrs. Frances Stone and Mrs. Albert Camp. She will also visit with Portland friends.

Miss Neva Jackson spent the past few days in Portland with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Tibbits.

Mrs. A. E. Kessler received from England last week a shipment of nine blue blooded, aristocratic St. Andreasberg canaries, five females and four singers. They made the trip from South Hampton in 13 days and arrived in perfect condition. The specially constructed shipping crate was so made as to prevent theft and was provided with enough feed to last for the entire journey.

C. P. Tallman has asked the Outlook to make a further statement concerning the judgment rendered against him recently for a feed bill to George Page. Tallman claimed that the bill was not his, but that of P. M. Parchin, then tenant on his farm, who was to buy half of the feed for the dairy herd belonging to Tallman and to retain half the proceeds from the sales on the milk route. Tallman had purchased his half, he said, and had paid for it, while Parchin left the country without paying for his share. The amount sued for was $321. Judgment was rendered against Tallman for $193.

Plans are being made for a concert to be given under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school Friday evening, December 12, by the Triple Chimes company, comprising P. Waldo Davis, chimes artist, Mrs. Lizzie DeMoss Davis, violin and mandolin; Arville D. Davis, violin and reading; and Herschel D. Davis, piano and organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase E. St. Clair entertained at dinner last night Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and daughter Margaret and Miss Sara Dotson.

The annual bazaar and supper of the Methodist Ladies Aid will be held at the church on Wednesday evening, December 3. Extensive plans are under way for the event.

P. H. "Pleas," Roorck, a resident of Gresham, is celebrating his 70th birthday today. He was born in East Portland and remembers when there were no bridges across the Willamette and only three stores in Portland. When he was less than a year old his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley Roorck, moved to what is now the Orient district, where they lived for many years.

Kathleen Gray Rolley, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rolley, died in a Portland hospital last night after never forms a partnership with a man who has not learned to save. Success always selects a Saver—not a spender.

Americans possess a great money-making power but they have little instinct or understanding of THRIFT.

It is easy to earn but so hard to save.

That is why over 80 per cent of us leave no estate at death.

There is HOPE for all however—for SUCCESS never refuses to form a lasting business partnership with those who refuse to spend it all.

The day you take your first step toward Prosperity is the day you start to Save.
