THANKSGIVING

As we slowly emerge from the turmoil and discord that naturally result from a 4-year World War—a sober view of conditions will convince us that the clouds are breaking and that conditions are improving!

Surely this is sufficient cause to be THANKFUL. Let us rejoice together.

In the safety and security which we enjoy;

In the measure of prosperity that is ours,

And TOGETHER—let us highly resolve to stand firm for the principles of our country and determine to face with patience—and finally SOLVE every problem that arises.
