GRESHAM LOCALS

Miss Elizabeth Hales, the librarian of the Gresham branch of the Portland public library, spent Thanksgiving with friends in Portland, the Misses Margaret and Helen Colwell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley and daughter, Miss Mabel Shipley, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Zimmerman, in Portland. The two ladies are sisters. Miss Shipley came to Gresham to spend the remainder of the week with her parents. She is attending the North Pacific Evangelistic institute in Portland.

Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Snyder were Dr. Cora V. Getty, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Getty, of Reedsport, Oregon, Mrs. Snyder's mother, Mrs. Getty, Mrs. Fogelson and daughter, of Centralia, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Eberlie of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Walton Haydon, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan were entertained Thursday at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. G. Fudicker, of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibbs entertained at Thanksgiving dinner Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hauck.

A Thanksgiving dinner party at the C. G. Schneider home consisted of Mrs. Ella Schneider and Miss Alberta Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wolff, relatives of Mr. Schneider.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Towle entertained at Thanksgiving dinner a family party consisting of Dr. and Mrs. Herman Bouchet of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Townsend and son Alan of Fairview, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Miller of Gresham.

A dinner was enjoyed Thursday at the H. L. St. Clair home, when covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Chase E. St. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair and two children, "Junior" and Betty Ruth, the Misses Winifred and Margaret St. Clair, Miss Emma B. Johnson, Miss Sara Dotson and Ray Rogers, besides the host and hostess.

Mrs. Edna Wolters, a teacher in the Gresham grade school, has moved to a housekeeping apartment in the Fred Shelley house on South Roberts Ave. avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Klum expect to leave on Wednesday for Wieser, Idaho, at which place they are making plans to establish a butcher shop. They have resided in Gresham for the past two years. Mrs. Klum has been engaged much of the time since coming to Gresham in work at the Withrow restaurant and confectionery.

Robert Gilpin of Portland will assist as pressman on the Outlook for a few weeks incident to the Christmas rush. He began work Tuesday morning.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. N. Long will entertain the young people of the missionary society at their home on the coming Friday evening.

John Boydston will be employed by the Gresham meat market as driver on the rural meat delivery route to take the place of Omar Klum who is moving away.

Mrs. L. T. Lusted and daughter, Miss Inez, were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Lusted's son, Harry Lusted, of Lents.

Mrs. Annie Hevel, assisted by her niece, Miss Mildred Zeek, entertained at Thanksgiving dinner for Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie of Gresham, Geo. Leslie, Jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Comstock and Mrs. Ida Williams, all of Portland.

George Leslie is in receipt of a message stating that his nephew, Donald Hancock, a civil engineer in South America, had recently passed away.

Floyd Mack has added a fine Dalton bookkeeping cash register to the equipment of his electrical store. This is a combined cash register and adding machine. He has decided to take the Gresham agency for the machine.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning spent last week in Portland shopping and visiting. They ate Thanksgiving dinner with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McRoy. They are planning to go into Portland this evening where Mrs. Manning will attend the meeting of the Scout Young Auxiliary No. 3 of the United States Spanish war veterans, of which she is a member. Their annual election of officers will take place at this meeting.

Mrs. Botkin of Cherryville, mother of Dr. A. W. Botkin of Gresham, suffered a broken femur bone as the result of a fall to the floor one day last week. The limb was set in sandbags, and the patient, who is past 90 years of age, is doing as well as could be expected.

Mayor K. A. Miller is confined to his bed with infection in the nasal passages. His condition is reported to be improving.

E. M. Camp is recovering from a severe attack of grip.

Mrs. Emma Gilmore was taken painfully ill with an attack of heart trouble yesterday, while she was on the street. She was taken to a neighbor's and a doctor summoned. Her daughter, Mrs. S. M. Davis of Springfield, is caring for her mother, who is improving today.

Miss Floella Jacobs is making her home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Sunday.

Miss Helen Laird of North Bend, a student of the Oregon Normal at Monmouth, who spent her Thanksgiving vacation here, was the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hisey and daughter Helen Saturday on a trip to Multnomah falls. Miss Mabel Winters was also a member of the party.

Miss Jean Adix was hostess at a delightful party on Friday evening to about a score of her young friends. Her mother, Mrs. H. V. Adix, and Mrs. J. A. Haley, assisted in the entertainment of the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thomas from Tillamook spent Thanksgiving day with the former's parents at the Thomas sanitarium near Gresham.

SCENIC

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Jack was the scene of a very pleasant family gathering Thanksgiving day. The occasion was not only to celebrate Thanksgiving but in honor of the 46th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jack and the birthday of Mrs. Jack's niece, Mrs. Pendleton. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens and red and white chrysanthemums, a handsome bouquet of the latter having been sent by friends from Washougal, Washington. Those present, beside the immediate family were, Ralph Jack, a grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Pendleton, late of Aberdeen, South Dakota, J. R. Hall and family of Kelso, Oregon, Mrs. San Timberlake and daughter Mona, Mrs. Earl Jack of Portland, Mrs. Fern Sleppy and daughter, Madeline of Newberg and Miss Bell Hall of Willamina. The occasion will long be remembered by all present.

NEW INTERNATIONAL APPEAL FOR REFUGEES

Geneva, Switzerland.—A joint appeal from twenty nations has been placed before the League of Nations, asking for the appointment of a commission to assist the American Near East Relief in its work for refugees in Greece and Bible Lands. The appeal says: "In view of the international character of the question involved and the necessity for an impartial, accurate and authoritative statement of the situation, we request the League of Nations to appoint a commission which shall make a prompt, thorough inquiry into the distressing conditions in the Near East and indicate what steps should be taken to ameliorate these conditions in accord with humanitarian views of our twentieth century life."

Some one says "Every time you have a birthday your chance of living to a fine old age gets better instead of worse."
