GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. C. A. Collings and Mrs. Anna Pool recently moved from Gresham to Portland. They are residing at East 69th street North. Mrs. Pool was in Gresham on business.

Mrs. J. H. Metzger has leased a small piece of ground to Mrs. M. A. Patterson on which the latter is having erected a 3-room, modern cottage which she will occupy on completion. The house will be located on the north side of Third street between Main and Roberts.

Mrs. H. H. Ott entertained Friday afternoon in honor of a group of Portland ladies comprising a social club, of which she is a member. Yellow chrysanthemums and Oregon grape were used effectively in the decoration of the rooms and table. She served Welsh rabbit, coffee and bonbons before the departure of the guests. Those present were Mrs. Dr. Hunt, Mrs. A. Willoughby, Mrs. A. McGhean, Mrs. Hugh Marnock, Mrs. George Perret, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. S. L. Privvet, and Mrs. D. Aronson.

Clair Stockton was obliged to spend from Monday till Thursday of last week in the Portland sanitarium, where he underwent an operation on the clavicle for the purpose of uniting the bones with a delicate wire. His shoulder was injured several weeks ago, when his motorcycle ran away, throwing him to the paving on the Columbia river highway. The bones were set at that time but they failed to knit properly, with the result they had to be re-set last week and fastened together. He is still bedfast and it will be another week before he is expected to be out, but this method of treating a broken bone is said to be effective.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Cogswell and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ekstrom drove to McMinnville Sunday. They were in quest of mistletoe for Christmas decorations.

The agricultural boys and the domestic science class of the high school enjoyed a hard times party on Saturday evening, between 50 and 60 being in attendance. The boys and girls were dressed in various costumes suitable for the occasion, overalls and aprons being much in evidence. W. D. Kinder gave violin selections, Miss Augusta Hahn whistled and Milton Lake and William Elliott sang. Beside the students, Mr. and Mrs. Kinder and Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Jenner were present. Cider, sandwiches and doughnuts were served.

The Gresham grange will hold an all-day session at the grange hall on Saturday. All members are urged to be present at this meeting, which is the occasion of the annual election of officers for the organization. No program will be presented at this time, the entire time being devoted to the business session.

Oscar W. Thoren, the proprietor of the Gresham Woodworking shop, is busy these days. He recently completed an order of over 100 drop-leaf tables for the firm of Montgomery Ward & Co., to be sent to their establishment at Oakland, California.

The sophomores defeated the freshmen last Friday in a closely contested basket ball game, and on Monday a peppy little game was played between the juniors and seniors, lasting 20 minutes, in which the seniors lost at the hands of their subordinates.

Mrs. H. H. Ott has been improving the interior of her home by new papering, draperies, etc., and on Monday a new furnace was installed.

The high school students for the next two weeks will interest themselves and friends in the behalf of the Boys' and Girls' Aid society, by collecting fruit, vegetables and various eatables to be sent to the home by Christmas. Anyone wishing to assist in this worthy cause may communicate with the high school and leave their offerings there, where they will be sent to the society in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Grass entertained Sunday at dinner Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bronson, the Misses Katherine and Lois Bronson, and Gale Bronson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harmon and daughter, Barbara May, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ruegg and Mr. Shelton of Corbett motored to Astoria last week-end to dig clams.

Mrs. C. W. Guile was very pleasantly surprised Monday evening at her home by about 45 of her friends coming in for the evening, the occasion being her birthday. A short program of readings and singing was enjoyed and games were played, followed by refreshments. In appreciation of the services of Mrs. Guile who has served as secretary of the Guild for a number of years, she was presented with a beautiful wool scarf.

Mrs. L. S. Osborne, for a number of years a resident of Gresham, but more recently of Portland, has gone to Arlington, California, where she will spend a year with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Laver.

Among the many real estate transfers recently negotiated through the agency of J. F. Whetstone, are the sale of the W. J. Merica store on the Section Line and Barker road, the Lena Crumb house in Brentwood addition, Portland, the G. Fudicker farm in east Gresham, the Lena Crumb service station in east Gresham, and the exchange of the H. W. Estes property in Gresham to Ernest McCorkle, of Fairview, besides a number in Portland.

The ladies of the Baptist Guild will hold a bake sale next Saturday at the A. W. Metzger store.

Miss Alice Roberts has been selected to assist in the Portland postoffice during the rush incident to the holiday distribution of mail.

The boys of the American Legion will meet the Union high school boys in a game of basket ball on Friday evening here in the high school gymnasium.

Mrs. Roy Nicol and little boy of Waterloo, Iowa, are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews. Their arrival was a complete surprise to her parents.

POWELL VALLEY

Telford Johnson, who has been absent from home for the past two and a half years in the regular army in the Philippines, is here on a furlough for a visit with his father, Charles Johnson, and his brothers and sisters. He has been employed on guard duty in the 31st and also in the 4th infantry in the Philippine Islands, going there by way of Honolulu and returning to America by way of China and Japan. Upon arrival in the United States he was ordered to Fort Missoula, Montana, for two months, after which he was at liberty to visit with his home folks. He expects to return to the army about the first of March.

The Ladies Aid of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet at the church on Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. Mrs. Bert Olson will be the hostess for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams have returned from a month's visit with friends in San Diego, California. They drove down to southern California in company with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Christensen whom they left there for an indefinite stay.

UNION

The committee in charge of the Union Parent-Teacher bazaar which was held on November 22, reports it a complete success, about $72 being cleared. Following a short musical program, Mr. Vedder, the county school superintendent, gave an interesting address. Articles of fancy work were auctioneered by F. Peterson and a bounteous supper was served in the basement. The regular meeting of the association will be held next Friday evening at which time Mrs. Kelly will give a report of the convention at Corvallis. The committee has also planned for a social hour in connection with the meeting.
