THE SURPASSING GIFT TO INDIVIDUALS.

Smith Memorial Presbyterian Church, Fairview, Oregon.

Again we celebrate the supreme world event, it overshadows and surpasses all others. It ushered the world into a new day. Many great souls have appeared on the world's stage during these nineteen hundred and twenty-four years, but none greater than Jesus.

It is, however, more than a historical event we commemorate, if we do not comprehend or respond to its personal urge. Let us in our celebration, with earnestness and reverence, ask ourselves what is that to us?

He was God's gift to the individual. Have we appropriated and accepted "The unspeakable gift?"
"For as many as received Him, to them gave He the right to become the sons of God." For to know Him as personal Saviour, was the only purpose of His coming.

REV. E. R. D. HOLLENSTED, Pastor.

CHRISTMAS VICTORY.

The quest of all life is for peace.
A few may seek it in indolence.
Many have found it in service for God and humanity. They are the true followers of the Star.

Crusaders for real joy have not found it in far lands, nor when seeking it, but when producing ideal environments, the day of joy has dawned in their lives.

Rugged mountains have become leveled highways for folk have sought companions. Companionship is not the seeking of ideal folks but the sharing of lives.

Companionship with Christ is the losing our lives in a life like His.
This is real joy.

Companionship with God is forgetting ourselves in His great fellowship. This is real peace.

"Thou our Father, Christ our Brother,
All who live in love are Thine:
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the Joy Divine."
THIS IS VICTORY.

Rockwood Communities.

CHRISTMAS CHIMES.

From Zion Evangelical Church.

"Sometimes men pause and listen to chimes playing. They may be high up in the air and concealed.
Yet are they sweet, clear, and golden. Their melody suggests more than words can say. And do not our hearts, also, have a set of invisible chimes?—They are the Christmas bells of the soul.—Too often silent and unheard, yet at Yule-tide, they are awakened to music. They are the Christmas chimes that keep playing on and on in the soul of man. One is named Peace; one is Good-will; one is Faith; one is Hope; and lo! sometimes they are mysteriously melted into one strain. Then do they sweetly play the antique, angel-old tune of love.

"May the Christmas chimes be set a-playing in your own heart, O friend! As their music is contagious, it may steal into the hearts of your loved ones and friends and brothers the world around."

With greetings and kind wishes to all.

H. R. GEBHARDT, Pastor.

Sails and Winds.

"One ship sails east,
And one sails west,
By the self-same wind that blows.
It's the set of the sail
And not the gale,
That determines the way it goes.
And like the winds of the sea
Are the ways of fate
As we journey on through life—
'Tis the set of the soul That determines the goal, And not the strags and strife."
—Selected.

CHRISTMAS CHEER.

Free Methodist Church, Gresham.

Christmas Greetings in the name of Christ!

There is something cheering in the thought that throughout the world at this season, a day is observed in honor of our Lord and Savior.

Christ's coming and birth was like the dawning of the day after a long dark night. He immediately began to make His presence in the world and the affairs of men to be felt. He came to establish a kingdom in the earth. He was to get up the kingdom among men.
Through Him we have the greatest blessings. Shall we endeavor to promote His spirit which is the true Christmas spirit, and has not changed since the first great Christmas gift was given to mankind?

It came from the Creator's own heart overflowing with love and tenderness.

We can bestow our gifts on our fellowmen and bring comfort and cheer to the needy and joy to the sorrowing and oppressed and in this way fill our own soul with the beautiful Christmas spirit.

It is fitting indeed that we celebrate the anniversary of the birth of our Christ, that we sing His praises and talk of His power and that we join in the chorus of the angelic throng who came to earth to announce His advent, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

REV. and MRS. E. N. LONG.

COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON.

Seventh Day Adventist Church, Gresham.

In replying to your request for the usual compliments of the season, I first wish to thank you for this courtesy, and consider it a very appropriate finale to our week of prayer, which is just closing, a reminder also to us of the less favorably situated ones, especially in those European countries ravished by war and pestilence, from whence come these cries of distress and want, also those who are in heathen darkness crying for the bread of life. Let us hasten to relieve ourselves of these responsibilities, by showing our appreciation of the blessings so freely bestowed on us of plenty to eat, drink and wear, a good place to sleep, the right use of our minds, and the divine right to worship God according to a conscience educated from the Word of God, and while partaking of the luxuries of life let us remember those who are deprived of even the necessities.

Wishing all a thoughtful Christmas and a useful New Year, we are yours for the finishing of the work, G. W. ANDREWS, Pastor.

ROBERT LAMBERT AND MARIAN CALKINS WED

Robert Lambert and Miss Marian Calkins were married in Vancouver, Washington, Thursday, December 11, at 1 o'clock, by the Rev. Mr. Skaggs, a Baptist minister, of that place. The ceremony was witnessed by Mrs. A. G.
Lambert, mother of the groom, and Mrs. Clara E. Hill. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Calkins and has resided in Gresham for a number of years. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lambert, prominent farmers who reside near Linnemann.

CHRISTMASTIME MAKES HEARTS TENDER.

Gresham Community Church
Bible Standard.

To all the readers of this paper, friends and neighbors in and around Gresham:

It is at this time of year that our hearts are touched and made tender toward one and all. The good Christmas cheer brings to each and every one of us the thought of giving something to that loved one, friend, neighbor or shut-in. It is that spirit that came down from the great Father heart of our God that gave to us all the greatest gift the world has ever known.

As I think I can see those lone shepherds out there on the plains looking after and guarding their sheep when all at once the angelic choir broke forth in the sweetest strains man ever heard, sounding out the love of heaven's hosts toward us creatures upon this terrestrial ball. I hear the words "Peace on earth and good will toward man." When the eyes of those dear shepherds beheld that beautiful morning star that shone out in a greater brightness than ever before, they were so fascinated with it that they followed it to the place where they found the infinite gift, God's Son.

I will say to one and all, this great "Gift" is to be yours just for the asking. My earnest prayer for this soon coming Christmas is that everyone who may read this little note of good will to all may accept of this loving friend and that all who are sad and broken-hearted, those who are sick in body, may find this great gift all sufficient and that the new year may usher in greater joy, happiness and success to all.

Yours for His service,
REV. F. E. CROOK, Pastor.

Aged Man Dies at Damascus.

John Anderson, aged 92 years, died at the home of John Johnson north of Damascus, on Friday, December 12, at the age of 92 years. He was born in Sweden and came to America 39 years ago. He has lived in the vicinity of Gresham for the past 16 years.
The funeral was held at the Swedish Mission church in Damascus Sunday, by a Swedish minister, with interment in the Damascus cemetery.

Let me help you solve your painting problems. Todd, The Paint Man,

CHRISTMAS REFLECTIONS.

OSCAR J. WILNER
Pastor Powell Valley Swedish Mission Church.

The Christmas season is approaching, and the Christmas message is again going to be proclaimed to the world, which is a peaceful and joyful message unto all people at all times. The shepherds received first that message of angels, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." It is surely a message of glad thanksgiving, a gospel of salvation. Jesus Christ entered into the world in order to be a blessing unto salvation for everybody. "The great child of Bethlehem! The crown of earth shall yet be his and we that crown shall share." Christ is the gift of God to the world, in whom all other gifts are included. "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son." The whole capacity of the Father's love is satisfied in his son, "who is the brightness of his glory and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he hath by himself purged our sins sat down on the right hand of the majesty on high."

That wonderful and mighty love of God in Christ Jesus is able to make hard hearts soft, selfish hearts generous.

And may the God, the Holy Trinity, send its richest blessings to you all more abundantly at this festal season.
