

High School Notes.

Mid-term examinations are now a matter of history and students have buckled down for some good solid work preparatory to the closing months of the year's work. Hortense Soward, a senior, heads the honor student list with the enviable percentage of 97. Helen Althaus, a sophomore, is a close second with her rank of 96 per cent. The roll of honor students follows: freshmen, Irene Johnson, 94%; Frederick Bechill, 93%; Ida Soward, 92%; Earl Weiss, 90%; Leona Long, 90%.

The sophomore class is headed by Helen Althaus, 96; Evelyn Ledine, 94%; Helen House, 94; Harold Dye, (3 subjects) 93 1-3; Amy Noreen, 92 4-5; Kenneth Horberg, 92%.

Dora Hoffmeister takes the lead in the junior class with a marking of 94%; Helen Laudan, 93%; Eldore Johnson, 92%; Myrtle Soderquist, 91; Hazel Cooley, 91.

Hortense Soward, the banner student of the school, has 97; Agnes Lundquist, 94%; Geneva Simonson, 93%; Frances Welling, 91 4-5; Louise Emerson, 91%.

Miss Marjorie Machen has been absent from her classroom for several days on account of her uncle's illness and death. He died in California and the remains were brought to Portland for burial. Miss Machen is confined to her room at present by an attack of grip.

Miss Gertrude Sharkey, a senior and the editor of the Argus, is at her home, suffering with an attack of pleurisy.

As a part of the national thrift week program J. S. Cooper, of Portland, came out Tuesday and gave a very interesting talk to the students on the subject of insurance, illustrated by a blackboard chart.

Miss Wilma Chase has returned to her home after an extended stay in the hospital with an attack of pneumonia. On Wednesday the students of the English classes planned a letter shower for Miss Chase, each pupil contributing a letter with an interesting account of daily happenings, both in and out of school.

The Midget basket ball team of the Gresham Union high school lost to the Goosehollow squad in Portland last evening, being out-weighted and outplayed from the beginning. The local boys will try it again in the future on the Gresham floor, as soon as the Goosehollows can find an open date. The Union high school boys are John Anicker, Guy Russer, Vearl Howell, Melcher Duncan, George Wadsworth and Sven Nelson. They were taken to Portland by B. M. Howell in the new Powell Valley school bus.

Outlook want ads will bring buyer and seller together cheaply and quickly.

GRESHAM LOCALS

A meeting of Clover Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Metzger next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of initiating the officers recently elected. A full attendance of members is desired.

The regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid will be held at the church next Wednesday afternoon, January 28.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Huett were entertained at dinner Thursday at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons.

Mrs. Clara Mason Owre, of Westport, Oregon, is here for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason. Ivan Mason, a son, is also here from San Francisco, California, having completed an enlistment of nearly four years in the service of the navy.

Leslie St. Clair was one of the intended victims of the Troutdale pool hall robbery Thursday evening. He was in the room while his wife was in attendance at a lodge session nearby. The searcher overlooked a small amount of change which he carried in a vest pocket.

H. R. Kane was out from Portland for a farewell visit with his brother-in-law, A. W. Griffs, a day or so this week. Mr. Kane, who formerly lived near Gresham, is going to Echo, Oregon, soon where he spends much of his time in farming and stockraising.

Miss Floella Jacobs has been absent from her duties in the postoffice nearly a week on account of an attack of tonsillitis and a severe cold. She is being cared for at the home of Mrs. Melvin Sunday.

Mary D. Moss of Lake View, Oregon, the state president of the Rebekah assembly, will make an official visit to the local Rebekah lodge on Monday evening, January 26.

Mary Lois, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nash, is ill from an infected tooth. While at play a few days ago at school the little girl was struck in the face by a stray ball which broke off part of the tooth.

O. A. Eastman is confined to his room with an acute attack of indigestion coupled with the grip. He is also suffering with his eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Nash, who have lately moved to Gresham from Kelso, Washington, have rented Mrs. Lena Ailder-Gaskill's home on north Main street and moved in Wednesday. Mr. Nash is the son of D. H. Nash who recently purchased the T. E. Mercer residence near the Mt. Hood railway tracks. Mr. Nash has a truck and is engaged in the wood hauling business.

D. C. Peterson of Gresham is a member of one of the R. O. T. C. rifle teams of Oregon Agricultural College which will fire a match with Northwestern university riflemen this week. The O. A. C. marksmen met teams from Cornell university, Marion institute, and Washington State college in a match last week, scoring 3602 out of a possible 4000 points.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Horning, and daughter, Elizabeth, attended the funeral of Mrs. Horning's brother, Jason Rand, in Portland on Wednesday. Mr. Rand died very unexpectedly last Monday. Interment of the remains was made at Hood River today, and Mrs. Horning accompanied other members of the family to that place.

Mrs. Frank Gibbs attended the light opera production, "The Mikado," at the Portland auditorium Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. D. Raker has been under the care of a physician for some time past as a result of complications of grip and stomach trouble.

Free Methodist Church Services.

Sunday school will convene at the Free Methodist church at 10 o'clock, superintended by Miss Minnie Robertson. There will be preaching at 11 by the pastor and again in the evening at 7:30. Howard Hopper will have charge of the young people's meeting at 6:30, the topic of which will be, "The Christian's Separation." Prayer meeting is held every Thursday evening at 7:30.

Zion Evangelical Services.

The Sunday school of the Zion Evangelical church will convene at 10 o'clock Sunday, followed by divine worship in the English language at 11 and in the German language at 11:50. Special music will be rendered by the choir.

Appreciation Expressed.

I wish to thank the many friends of Gresham and vicinity for the help they have given me in establishing myself and children, and I am anxious to do everything possible to help myself. MRS. MYRTLE PEAKE.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the death of our daughter and mother, also for the beautiful flowers. Mrs. Laura Barnes, Mrs. Dora Mathews, Clarence Browning, Mrs. Elsie Andrews, Everett Browning.

In the face of much higher market prices, we are cutting without regard for the market. HOW DO WE DO IT?

This is the way—We are members of a HARDWARE ASSOCIATION of the States of Oregon and Washington consisting of nearly one hundred retail hardware stores, like ourselves, and instead of buying in small quantities, we are now buying in carload lots. CAN YOU IMAGINE THE VOLUME OF PURCHASES OF 100 STORES LIKE OURS—IT RUNS INTO THE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS PER YEAR.
