GRESHAM LOCALS

The regular meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will be postponed until some time in the week of February 15, on account of the revival meetings in progress. Mrs. C. J. Lundquist will be the hostess.

The Baptist Ladies Guild will hold an all-day meeting at the new home of Mrs. H. W. Cooley on north Main street. Pot luck lunch will be enjoyed at noon and in the afternoon mission study will be taken up. Plans are under way by the Guild for an apron and pie social just before Easter.

O. A. Eastman is in Portland where he is taking some special treatments for a short time.

A Star car was delivered this week to Miss Brannan, living on the Andrews road east of Gresham, according to Henry Tilgner, local representative of the distributing company, who reports several sales made in this vicinity within the past few weeks.

Bill Ferris has disposed of his Arboleda store to a man living in that vicinity who will continue the business there.

Announcements have been received by friends of Mrs. C. J. Ellwood, formerly Lucile McCarter, of Burbank, California, of the arrival of Shirley Jo Ellwood on January 26.

The regular meeting of the Arene club will be held at the home of Mrs. H. V. Adix on Monday afternoon, February 9. The committee to assist the hostess is Mrs. O. A. Johnson, Mrs. C. M. Quicksall and Mrs. Benj. Cameron.

Of local interest is the report of a reception given recently at Clinton Kelly Methodist Episcopal church in Portland, on the occasion of the reception given for the retiring and incoming pastors, the latter being the Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop. D. Brooks Hogan, superintendent of the Sunday school, was toast master. Among those who took part on the program were J. B. Kelly, Milton O. Nelson, Dr. John Parsons and the Rev. E. G. Ranton.

It is rumored one of the large oil companies is negotiating for a location for a distributing station and storage plant in Gresham. This probably is in anticipation of the opening of the Mt. Hood loop highway which will mean heavy auto traffic through this section.

Todd, the Paint Man, is making arrangements to enlarge his stock of paints and wall paper by occupying the entire premises where he is located. He is adding to his paint store the room which was vacated last week by the Radio Electric company. The partition has been taken out and all needed improvements made to give room for the further display of his stock.

R. C. Frace of Sandy has purchased the S. C. Jones house on Second street and moved in a few days ago. Mr. Frace is a carpenter and will work at his trade in Gresham. J. C. Yandel and family, who formerly occupied the Jones residence, have moved into the William Caldo house in Lawrence addition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shultz moved into their new ten-room house on Wallula Heights last Saturday. This residence, which is among the finest in Gresham, faces south on Powell, between Wallula and Florence avenues. It is finished in stone tone stucco, with the inside finish in driftwood stain and with hardwood floors. The driftwood stain is something entirely new in the line of interior finishing and has a greenish tone effect. The kitchen has a vitrolite composition for the drainboard and the walls are enamel. There is a sun parlor, also a billiard room in the basement. The residence is heated with a Homer hot air furnace. B. F. Aldrich of Portland was the builder of the house.
