Mrs. Peroni, wife of Major Peroni of the Clackamas government military reservation, was in Gresham a few days ago. She brought with her the new national guard gold emblems which are to replace the bronze ones formerly in use by the guard members. While here she purchased a radio receiving set from the Radio Electric company.

H. W. Cooley and family are now comfortably located in their new home in Regner addition. This is one of the finest of the modern residences which have been erected in the north end of Gresham. A breakfast nook, French doors, numerous built-ins and an unusually attractive basement make up this charming home. Mr. Cooley is now engaged in putting in a cement walk from the street to the steps of the house.

Mrs. U. T. Stout and daughter, Martha, of Cottrell, visited a cousin, Mrs. George Curran of Gresham, Wednesday and Thursday.

The W. C. T. U. business meeting which was announced for Thursday afternoon was postponed on account of the revival meetings at the Methodist church until next Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 17, when the meeting will be held at the public library. ABRAHAM LINCOLN had accumulated $25,000 when he was elected president.

He had accomplished this:
In spite of the scarcity of money in those early days;

In spite of the hardships of pioneer life and the privations he had to endure;

In spite of a financial honor that led him on one occasion to walk several miles after supper to pay a few cents to a woman whom he had overcharged.

Lincoln was not a money-maker, but he possessed the SAVING INSTINCT.

When he died his estate amounted to $110,000
On February 12 we pay tribute to a man who saved more than any other American.

He Saved the Union!

He has also left us a marvelous example of financial saving.
