INSURANCE FOR FARMERS.

The Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Assn., of Portland, is upon its 21st year, and is the largest Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Assn. west of the Rocky mountains. The yearly report filed with the Insurance Commissioner shows a total membership of more than 13,000, with $20,500,000 in force, an increase of $2,500,000 over that of 1923. The fire losses for 1924 aggregated $55,000, all of which have been adjusted and promptly paid. No lower rate on farm insurance can be obtained from any other company in Oregon. If you believe in co-operative movement among the farmers and need insurance, call on President H. W. Snashall, at the Fair Grounds, Gresham. Phone 2101.—Adv.

The Bank of Gresham pays 5 per cent interest on time deposits.—Adv

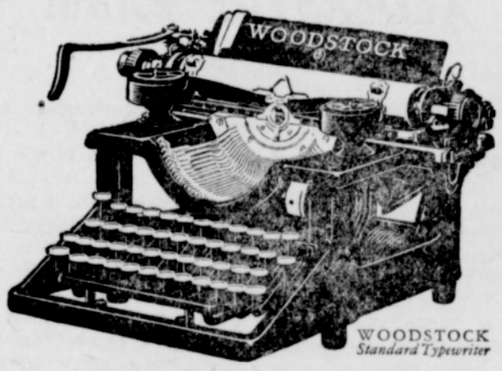
and merit alone!



LITTLE has been said in print about the Woodstock—but much has been said by thousands of enthusiastic operators.

It's mainly this background of good will—earned by good performance—that is responsible for its success.

Users will tell you the Woodstock is a most exceptional typewriter—a composite of all improvements conducive to effortless writing—plus a rare beauty of type and sturdiness of construction that stamps this machine as a thing apart.

PLEASANT HOME

The Orient Bear Cats were defeated in a basket ball game at Sandy high by the Sandy team. Score, 11 to 2. However, the Babtist Cubs carried off the honors at the Orient hall on Saturday night in a game with the Boring grade school. Score, 20 to 13. The Bear Cats play the team of the Highland Baptist church of Portland Tuesday night at the Orient hall.

I. W. Anderson is spending a few weeks at the home of his father, R. I. Anderson. Mr. Anderson is an employe of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company and has been stationed at Pendleton for several years. He is expecting to take up work in Portland soon and will move his family to that city.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church will meet at the church on Thursday, February 19, at 2 o'clock. All are invited.

Little Robert Fairweather was quite ill the first of the week but is better at the present time.

Miss Ida Miller was a Portland visitor on Wednesday, also Mrs. J. R. Duncan and son.

Mrs. Frank McKinney entertained Portland relatives on Sunday.

A program is announced for next Friday night at the Orient school.

The usual services will be observed next Sunday at the Baptist church. Sunday school at 10, followed by preaching at 11 by the pastor, the Rev. Wm. Fairweather, B. Y. P. U. at 7:00 and preaching at 8:00. The evening service is preceded by a song service which is always much enjoyed. On Thursday night of each week the regular prayer service begins at 7:30 and is followed by the choir practice. Any one who desires may join either service as all are welcome.

VICTORY

The Parent-Teacher association of Victory district will meet Friday night, February 20, at 8 o'clock. The committee has a good program prepared. The meeting will be in the form of a club rally and some demonstration work by clubs will be given. W. D. Kinder will be present with his violin, also Geo. K. Jenner of Gresham high is expected. Another feature of the program will be a community sing led by the Rev. Wm. Fairweather, pastor of Pleasant Home Baptist church.

Mrs. Lucy Petree of Lake View, Oregon, who has been spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. G. W. Allder, returned to Sheridan, Oregon, where she had been the guest of another sister for a month before coming to Gresham.

While hauling lumber with a sled Wednesday G. W. Allder met with an accident which resulted in the fracture of two ribs when the sled upset. The sled turned completely over, hitting him in the right side and in the back. A physician was called who ordered him to remain quiet for a few weeks. He is resting easily at his home and is on the way to recovery.

BORING

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will give a Washington's birthday party at the church on Saturday evening, February 21, at 8 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited. The ladies of the church are planning on fixing the interior of the church in the near future.

SANDY BLUFF

The regular movie night of the Cottrell Parent-Teacher association will be Friday, February 20, at the schoolhouse. There will be seven reels in all, two reels of "The Old Oregon Trail," and five reels of a comedy drama, entitled "Marylee Mixes In."

Chester Cassell conducted the services at the Cottrell community church on Sunday, which were well attended. Mr. Cassell is also a fine song leader. He intends coming out every Sunday from now on. Every one is invited to attend.

CORBETT

Mrs. C. B. Settlemeier entertained her Sunday school class Friday night at a valentine party at her home. About 20 were present and a very enjoyable time is reported.

Miss Joy Crockett, assistant principal of the Columbian high school, took her senior class to a theater party at the Rivoli Wednesday evening. After the play they enjoyed supper at the Hazelwood.

POWELL VALLEY

Clarence Alm was taken to Good Samaritan hospital Monday said to be suffering with a peculiar form of internal poisoning. He has been ill for a week or more and so far has failed to respond to medical treatment.

The Rev. O. J. Wilner began the circulating Sunday of a counter petition to the one which has recently been placed before the public in regard to the establishing of dances in Gresham Union high school. The Rev. Mr. Wilner is unsparing of his time and energy to combat this latest move on the part of some who would introduce dancing into the high school.

The Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Lutheran church will hold an extra sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Nelson Friday evening, February 20.

Miss Sigrid Alm has enrolled as a student of the Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland for a business course.

The dress form making class will meet at the schoolhouse on Thursday morning as near 9:30 as possible. All interested are invited to be present and bring lunch.

ORIENT

The Orient school is planning for an excellent entertainment to be given at the schoolhouse on Friday evening, February 20, which promises to be the best ever attempted by the Orient students. One of the leading features will be a little one-act playlet of about 45 minutes in duration, called "The Dolls' Symposium." In this the children of the first three grades take the part of dolls and it is said to be a very clever thing.

The five upper grades will render a cantata of scenes taken from Robin Hood. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to furnish a teachers' room at the schoolhouse.

CORBETT YOUNG PEOPLE TAKE MARRIAGE VOWS

Fred Hicks and Miss Maude Mae Henkle were united in the bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Henkle, Sunday afternoon by the Rev. W. Wright, pastor of the Christian church at Corbett. Only immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present at the ceremony, which was followed by a fine wedding dinner. The bride was a stenographer in Portland prior to her marriage and is well thought of in the vicinity of Corbett and also in Portland where she has numerous friends. After a short trip the couple will reside for the present with the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary Hicks. Mr. Hicks owns and operates a truck for general hauling.
