

GRESHAM LOCALS

A fine record for promptness in meeting claims was made by the Northwestern Mutual Insurance company when a check for the full amount of insurance on the life of William Randolph Hammond, who died on February 4, was in the hands of the local agent, J. V. Cogswell, on February 21 and was turned over to the beneficiaries on February 23. The deceased had been insured but one year and five months and had paid two premiums.

Word has been received from Miss Pearl Ruegg by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ruegg, telling of a delightful trip in California. She has been for several months in Bakersfield, visiting with relatives and friends and has now gone to Los Angeles. She expects to visit points of interest in the southern part of the state and along the coast before returning home in the late spring.

Mrs. P. A. Gould went last week to The Dalles for a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Look.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbs were Robert Morgan and Miss Nell Barton, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kilinsky, near Orient.

Robert Welch, of Sellwood, spent the week-end with his brother, R. M. Welch and family, before leaving for Fresno, California, to reside.

Alfred Sanders, an old friend of Mrs. Hans Larsen and Clarence Hill in Kansas 20 years ago, has been visiting with them recently. He now resides in Nebraska and is visiting a son in Portland. Mr. Sanders is much pleased with the west and is thinking seriously of locating near Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rusher, of Albany, were week-end visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher.

George Vanderhoof of Antelope, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie McPherson, of Prineville, have been recent guests at the F. J. Bechill home.

Paul Ott, a laborer, was arrested by Marshal Kelly Saturday evening on complaint of Mrs. Ella Hornish for a deferred board bill for the month of May, 1924. He went to California at that time and but recently returned. He was given a couple of days in which to raise the necessary amount, with the alternative of having a lien placed on his automobile.

The Victory circle of the Zion Evangelical Women's Union has planned a bake sale to be given at the Cecil Metzger grocery on Saturday, March 14.

GOOD SHOES

The qualifications of a good shoe may be described in three words, namely,

STYLE — COMFORT DURABILITY

The lack of any one of these throws out the whole balance of the shoe; in other words, these features combine to make the
