"Plain as if spoken, this engine asks for new oil in the crank case every time it passes the 750-mile mark," said a careful motorist in our garage this week.

We clean the case well before putting in new oil. These little details insure longer life to your car.

GRESHAM LOCALS

A delightful gathering was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Inglis on Monday evening, when the teachers of the grade school, the members of the school board and their wives were entertained by Mrs. C. M. Quicksall, Miss Helen Hoss and Miss Mabel Inglis. Games and music enlivened the occasion and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Fred Blonn is making frequent trips to Good Samaritan hospital in Portland to visit her father, Mr. Atwood of Oak Grove, who is seriously ill at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waller and three children moved yesterday from the rooms in the Sell building to Portland. Mr. Waller was employed as engineer on the steam shovel working on the pipe line until that work was completed.

Suit was heard on the 21st of January in the case of Hobart Beers against his wife, Oma Beers, suing for separation, and on the 19th of the present month an absolute decree of divorce was awarded to him, also the custody of the two minor children.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bailey entertained their cousin, Earl Bailey and family, of Forest Grove on Sunday. Guests at the Bailey home Thursday evening were Arthur Natches and Miss Marjorie Kendall, of Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Howell and ten children, of Yachats, arrived Thursday to make their home in this locality. They have leased ten acres of the old Cathey homestead near Cotton station, which they will farm. In moving from the coast Mr. Howell chose an unique and entirely up-to-date method of shipping a large portion of his household goods. Approximately half a ton of movables, including fruit, bedding, knocked-down furniture, etc., he placed into packages not exceeding 70 pounds in weight and shipped by parcel post, having 35 or more such packages that came within the requirements of the postal regulations. Mr. Howell considered this an economical way of shipping. The Misses Edith and Ethel Howell will enroll as students of the high school and five younger children will attend the Gresham grade school.

A sale is now in progress of the remaining stock of hats and furnishings at the Gresham hat shop, conducted by Miss Josephine Clow. It is necessary that the goods be closed out by the end of this week.

H. W. Cooley has been confined to his bed several days with an attack of mumps. This is the second case to show up within the past week. Miss Frances Welling has about recovered from her siege with the same disease and will soon be back in school if nothing unforeseen develops.

Claude Welch left this morning for Fresno, California, where he has a number of relatives. He expects to remain until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning entertained two of their great nieces on Monday of this week. They were Miss Mary Hendricks, a teacher in the public school in Portland and Mrs. Lillian Hoffer, and two children, also of Portland.

Wendall Miller and his brother, Roy and wife, of Portland, came out Thursday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miller. Wendall leaves today for New York, from which place he will sail on a four-months' cruise, passing south through the Panama canal. Roy has just returned from a trip to Japan on a large freighter, but is not sure of going back on a boat for further employment.

"My Kingdom for a Horse"

"A Horse, A Horse;
"My kingdom for a Horse,"

shouted King Richard III when he got into a tight place.

Now if that old king had saved 15 cents a day for five years he would have had $305.73—sufficient to have purchased a fine steed, and he would have saved his kingdom.

For want of a few dollars saved up many a man has lost a fine business opportunity---or has been forced to sell valuable property at a sacrifice when an emergency arose.

"For want of a nail the shoe was lost,
For want of a shoe the horse was lost,
For want of a horse the rider was lost."
