The Catholic church has been undergoing a number of important repairs during the past three weeks. The interior walls have been re-decorated, the woodwork finished in white enamel, the pews re-varnished, floor painted and new carpeting laid around altar and on the stairway. Additional plumbing has been placed in the church and parish house. Mr. and Mrs. Franz Olbrich donated to the church a beautiful $100 statue of the Savior mounted on a pedestal. A. E. Malo was in charge of the repair work.

Main, occupied by the 20th Century grocery, by placing two ventilators in the front at the base, which will provide a needed current of air to circulate under the entire structure, thus preventing the joists from rotting. About a year ago Osburn put in new timbers at the rear of that part of the building used by Walrad Mercantile company for a store room, on account of lack of a circulation of air under the flooring.

George Ellis, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Malo, visited with his relatives from Saturday until Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Huett, Miss Rena Stevenson and Miss Neil Johnson drove to Newberg to attend the annual meeting of the Portland Methodist Preachers' association on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. McBride entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beckley of Portland Sunday afternoon. The families were former neighbors at McMinnville.

Mrs. P. A. Gould has returned home after an absence of six weeks in the Dalles and La Grande visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Clarence Look and Mrs. Robert Leighton and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Leighton brought her home, by way of the Columbia river highway to Hood River, and the Evergreen highway. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Lilletta, who returned Sunday night to her studies at Willamette University.

Mrs. Alta Gentry, who is attending the Kimball School of Theology at Salem, visited relatives and friends in Gresham and vicinity several days last week. On her return to Salem Sunday she had the pleasure of visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad who were former residents of the Cedar district, but who now live near Hubbard. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Conrad Sunday morning and was reported to have been gladly welcomed by the parents, two small brothers and the proud grandparents.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Thompson enjoyed a visit last week from their son Dr. Fred Thompson of The Dalles hospital and his wife, who left last Friday for New York where they will sail on April 11 for Europe on board the greatest passenger ship, Leviathan, which is capable of carrying 13,000 persons. They will land at South Hampton. Dr. Thompson will take post graduate studies in the Dublin College of Obstetrics and will attend clinics in London, Edinburgh, Paris, Berlin, Vienna and other European cities and will be absent about six months. On their return Dr. and Mrs. Thompson will get a Packard sedan which has already been ordered and will drive home, visiting the principal American cities on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning were guests Saturday evening at the annual banquet given in Portland for the Scout Young United States Spanish war veterans. Over 700 were in attendance, many from points in Washington and all over the state of Oregon. The after-dinner speeches were participated in by a number of distinguished speakers. Mr. Manning's son, Lefe, is a vice commander of the Scout Young camp.

INSURANCE FOR FARMERS.
The Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Assn., of Portland, is upon its 21st year, and is the largest Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Assn. west of the Rocky mountains. The yearly report filed with the Insurance Commissioner shows a total membership of more than 13,000, with $2,500,000 in force, an increase of $2,500,000 over that of 1923. The fire losses for 1924 aggregated $55,000, all of which have been adjusted and promptly paid. No lower rate on farm insurance can be obtained from any other company in Oregon. If you believe in co-operative movement among the farmers and need insurance, call on President H. W. Snashall, at the Fair Grounds, Gresham. Phone 2101.—Adv.

Mrs. Chas. Miller has returned to her home at Sandy from the Thomas Sanitarium, where she has been under treatment for rheumatism. She reports her ailment practically cured. Mrs. Henry Ten Eyck of Bull Run has also returned to her home. Grandma Ohmit of Rockwood, who recently broke her leg, is doing well and hopes to have the cast taken off soon.

A game of volley ball will be played this evening at the grade school between the business men and the school boys.
