

REAL SILK
 GUARANTEED
HOSIERY
 46 shades - all sizes

Have you seen this spring's new shades in Hosiery? If not, call the Real Silk representative now.

You will want some of the new shades for graduation. Buy proven hosiery.

REAL SILK HOSIERY MILLS
 PERRY KITZMILLER, Representative
 Phone 32x1 for Appointment

GRESHAM LOCALS

Frank Moore, of Portland, a printer since 1858, was an interested caller at the Outlook office yesterday. He worked for over 50 years for the Pioneer Press of St. Paul, Minnesota. He has seen many changes in the methods of doing the work in his 82 years.

Glenn Mercer and Lyle and Glenn Winters of Gresham, students at Oregon Agricultural College, are three of the men of a group from which Coach R. H. "Bob" Hager will select a team to play a basketball game here campus week-end. These men will be among those turning out for spring basketball practice which starts next week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern spent a most enjoyable day in Portland Sunday as guests at the home of their great nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hansen. Others who were entertained at the same home were Mrs. Kern's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen, their son, Victor and a daughter, Mrs. Carl Norris, and her son. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. George Hansen.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular business meeting at the public library Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

The Misses Magdalene and Rose Huber, of Vancouver, Washington, were house guests Monday and Tuesday of Mrs. John Winterberger.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Judd who reside near Sandy are much elated over the arrival of a baby boy who was born to them at the Wilcox Memorial hospital in Portland Sunday. Mrs. Judd will be remembered as Miss Alice Trimble.

Miss Helen House has returned from a trip to Independence, Oregon, where she visited with her sister, Mrs. Joe Guild.

Mrs. H. M. Hayles has resigned her position as assistant librarian at the local library branch and this morning began her new duties as secretary of the veterans' bureau in Portland. Mrs. Hayles has been very popular with the children and young people patrons of the library and it is with regret they see her leave. Miss Josephine Clow has been appointed assistant to Miss Elizabeth Hales and will begin work immediately.

Miss Dorothy Herald of Oak Grove, spent the week-end with her cousin, Miss Willa Bushong. Mrs. C. B. Herald and two sons drove over Sunday evening and returned home with Dorothy.

The last quarterly meeting of the conference year for the Gresham circuit will begin on Thursday evening of this week and continue over Sunday at the Free Methodist church. District Elder W. T. Klotzbach will be in charge of the services.

The ladies of the southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid are planning a play, "Won By a Wager," which will be presented at the grade school auditorium on Monday evening, April 20.

Mrs. L. P. Manning accompanied her son, Lafe and his wife and daughter to Eugene Saturday afternoon where they attended a meeting of the Spanish War Veterans. Mr. Manning is department inspector of the state camps and vice commander of Scout Young camp in Portland. About 150 were present at the business and social meeting which was followed by a banquet. One of the objects of the meeting was to arrange the details of the bringing back to Portland harbor of the battleship "Oregon" from Bremerton, Washington, where she has been undergoing repairs. The boat will be returned to the Willamette during the coming June according to the plans of the committee, and will be kept here as an historical exhibit.

Mrs. R. M. Massie and three children have been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. E. N. Long. The Massie family is moving from Valselt, Oregon, to Newberg.

Mrs. Gladys Hoyt, a teacher in the Gresham grade school, is absent from her duties on account of illness. She is being cared for at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Michel. Her place in the school is being filled by Mrs. B. O. Boswell.

The Dorcas and So and So circles of the Methodist Ladies Aid will hold a bake sale at the Walrad Mercantile store on Saturday, April 11, from 11 o'clock on.

D. C. Ely of Oregon City was in Gresham on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson have returned to their home in Gresham after having spent the winter at Venice, California. They report a delightful sojourn in the south.

Passion Week services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening beginning promptly at 7:30. These will be popular services in which laymen will take part and the pastor, Dr. Chas. W. Huett, will give brief addresses on subjects suggested by the time. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mrs. Leslie Aman and two children of Albion, Idaho, have arrived for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Macaw. She will be joined later by her husband who is a teacher at Albion.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carver of Pratt, Kansas, are guests this week of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak. They spent Sunday at Newberg visiting with the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carver.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thorne had as guests last Friday H. J. Beem, general superintendent of the Western Pacific railroad, and Mrs. Beem, of Elks, Nevada. They were given a trip over the Columbia river highway while here.

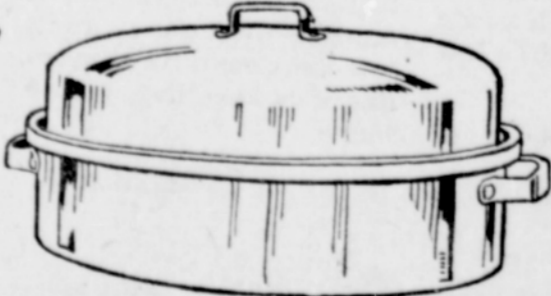

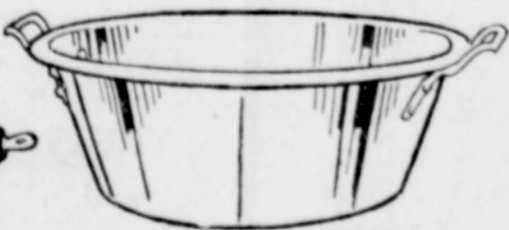

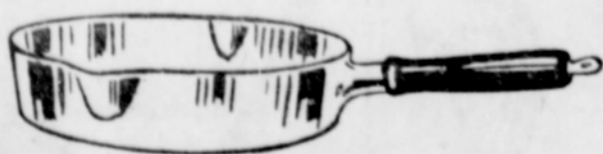

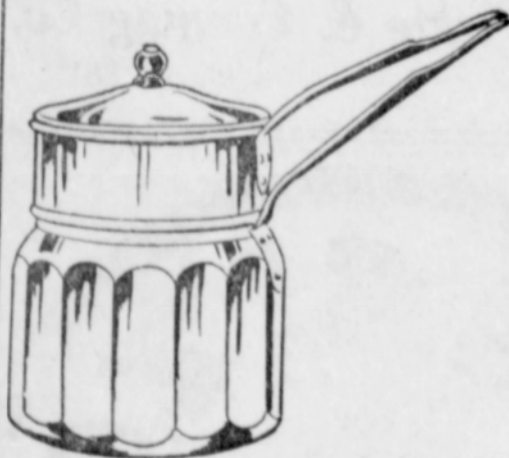

Mr. and Mrs. T. Lewis Green of Poughkeepsie, New York, are here for a few days visiting with the sisters of the former, Mrs. George Metzger and family and Miss Cora Green. They are making an extensive tour of the Pacific northwest and have just come from California here. They seem to be much pleased with Gresham and vicinity and report that it is no colder here than in California at the time they left there.

The Gresham Parent-Teacher association, which was to have been held on the 20th of this month, will meet several days earlier on account of the departure of the president of the association, the Rev. H. Gebhardt, to California. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 14, at 2:30 at the grade school and it is desired that all members be present.

Make your wants known through the Want Ads.

Down Go Prices!

$1.19
Each

Here Are the Greatest Bargains in Aluminum Ware Ever Offered in Gresham

Take No Chances--Be Here Early

Again we lead. Again we offer the women of Gresham unexpected bargaining in Aluminum Cooking Utensils. Every piece is "QUALITY BRAND"—The World's Best. Stamped from 99 per cent pure aluminum, seamless, highly polished and guaranteed for 20 years.

NEVER AGAIN VALUES LIKE THESE

7c
each

THESE VALUES CANNOT BE DUPLICATED

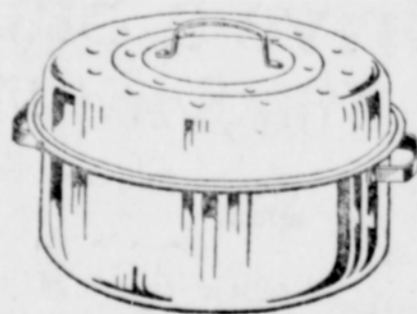

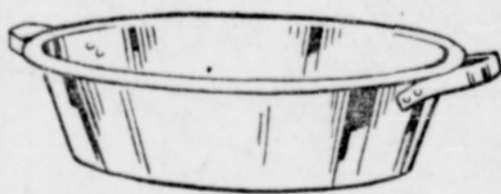

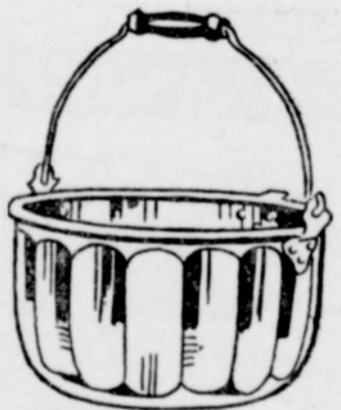

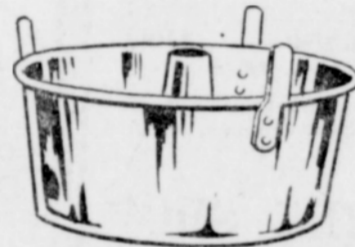

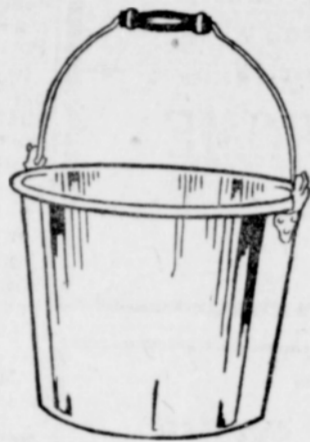

Sale Starts at Exactly 10

Friday Morning, April 10

Now is the time to replenish your supply of cooking utensils—replace old pieces and buy for future needs. Some of the quantities are limited. Better come as early as you can.

No C. O. D's--No Telephone Orders--No Deliveries. Select These Bargains Yourself

$1.19
Each

A. W. METZGER & CO.

GRESHAM, OREGON

Fresh Every Day

Tasty, flavory buns to appease eager appetites.

Have them for dinner today and see how joyfully they will be welcomed.

Meals are so much easier to prepare when you serve cookies, rolls or pastries from our bakery. They make every meal a holiday feast.

City Bakery

Phone 1221 Gresham