

FAIR GROUNDS WILL BE MADE LARGER

Acting in an emergency which arose this week in connection with the plans of J. J. McCall for an auto race track on the fair grounds, the executive committee of the directors secured options on about 10 acres of the Clananah tract, north of the present racetrack, and about two and a half acres of the Smith tract west of the track.

Careful surveys disclosed that the additional ground would be necessary if the auto race track is to be built outside of and around the present horse race track as planned.

It was found necessary to take out of the way of the track the west 20 feet of the old pavilion to give room for the new track.

It is planned to remove the club building from the grove and it has been agreed to use the poultry building for the club exhibits this year pending the erection of more suitable buildings next year. The poultry, rabbits and pigeons will be cared for in a large tent this year. The horse barns south and southeast of the track will be removed to a better location.

In the rearrangement of the grounds additional entrances and exits will be provided for.

The board has undertaken to fix up the auto camp grounds and much work has been done. Tourists are already arriving on the grounds. They have been put in charge of M. M. Squire who also has charge of the fair grounds and buildings.

The drain through the center of the race track field is being relaid and extended to the north line. If the Clananah tract is purchased it will drain that also. Dewey Gibbs has the contract for this work.

Work has not started yet on the new race track but it is expected to begin at once as the necessary details appear now to have been arranged.

ROSE CITY HUNDRED SHOOT OPENS TODAY

With several of America's foremost shots entered, the Rose City hundred shoot opened this morning under the auspices of the Portland Gun club at Everding park traps.

S. H. Shannon of Salt Lake, a member of the United States Olympic team in 1924, and G. L. Becker of Ogden, Utah, high average winner of his state in 1924, arrived early enough to practice yesterday, when 100 targets were trapped. D. W. Fleet, 75-year-old Montevideo, Washington, shooter, has entered. Mr. Fleet is considered one of the best shots on the Pacific coast.

A special cup will be awarded for shooters more than 60 years old, of which four are entered.

J. L. Stafford, last year's winner, is entered again this year.

The shoot will last over Sunday.

EASTER

Easter, which occurs next Sunday, is the festival of returning light and life in nature, and especially of the resurrection of Jesus by which he became the Lord of spiritual and eternal life in man.

Religiously the festival is a continuation of the passover, the Jewish feast at which the paschal lamb, a type of Christ, was sacrificed.

Our word Easter comes from the Anglo-Saxon. Eostre was a goddess of light and spring whose festival was celebrated in April. It is thus that the festival becomes a celebration of Christ's resurrection and of the returning life incident to our spring.

This fact may account for the persistence of certain queer customs of our Easter, namely, colored eggs, baby chickens, rabbits, etc.

Easter is called a movable festival, that is, it does not come regularly on any certain day of the month but is determined, as was the Jewish feast, by the phase of the moon. Hence it moves forward or back through about a month. The method of setting the day for Easter was determined at the council of Nice in 325 and has been so determined ever since. According to the rule thus established Easter is the first Sunday after the full moon (the "fourteenth day" of the moon) which occurs upon or next after the 21st of March. If the full moon happens on a Sunday the Sunday following is the day observed.

Occasionally criticism is heard of the tendency to "commercialize" so sacred a season as Easter. By this is probably meant the taking advantage of this season to exploit all manner of things of a purely secular nature.

In defense of the custom it may be said that the things exploited are seasonal and in the temperate zone especially we go by seasons in dress, activities, etc. Also it is an Anglo-Saxon and especially an American custom to commercialize everything under the sun.

It has its advantages and disadvantages. It undoubtedly tends to detract from the strictly religious significance of the day but it also gives the idea of resurrection a wider significance and increases our appreciation of all life in its reviving power and continuance under natural or spiritual conditions that thwart death.

It is a season of deep significance to many and should be to all. While some without Christian teaching have had "intimations" and hopes of immortality, the only assurance of it for the human race comes through the resurrection of the Christ. "He is not here for he is risen."

CREAMERY MAN JOINS PARTNER IN GRESHAM
Wm. J. Ovans of Calgary, Canada, arrived early this week to join his partner, W. B. Twitchell, in the Gresham Creamery company. They have leased the plant formerly used for ice and ice cream manufacture next to the city hall and have announced that they will devote their efforts exclusively to the making of ice cream for this season. It is expected that other lines will be taken up as the business expands. Samples of the delicious product of the plant were distributed one day to the members of the Outlook and were declared first-class.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
Brief Easter exercises will be held during the Sunday school hour at the Methodist Episcopal church, when each department will furnish a number for the program. This will be followed by a sermon by the pastor, Dr. Chas. W. Huett, on "The Easter Message." A solo, "The Resurrection Hymn," will be sung by Leslie Walrad. The Epworth League will meet at 6:30 in the evening and at 7:30 the cantata "Our Risen Lord" will be given by the choir.

Zion Evangelical Church.
Easter services will be held Sunday morning in the English language at 11 and in the German language at 12. The sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion will be observed, the latter in the German language. Special music will be rendered by the choir and Mrs. H. R. Gebhardt. An offering will be received for the building fund of the church.

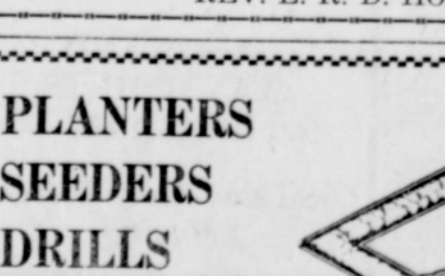

At 10 a. m. the Sunday school will convene. Part of the session will be devoted to a program by the elementary department. The mite boxes, which were distributed at the beginning of the Lenten season, will be received. Prizes will be presented to all who during the past quarter met the requirements of the school as to attendance, support and quality of work.

SPOKANE MAN ACCEPTS CALL TO LOCAL CHURCH

Rev. E. Horstmann of the First Evangelical church of Spokane, Washington, has accepted the call to the Zion Evangelical church, who recently resigned his position here to accept a pastorate in Los Angeles. The two men were classmates in school for six years. Mr. and Mrs. Horstmann are expected to take up the work here about the first of July.

A number of pleasant affairs have been held in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Gebhardt, who expect to leave next week for their new work in the south. On last Wednesday evening, when they went to the church in answer to the bell, they found the church well filled with members of the congregation and friends who had gathered for a surprise on their pastor. After a program and the presentation of a substantial purse to the pastor and his wife as a token of esteem and friendship, the evening was spent in games. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

A dinner was given on the evening of April 1 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Curran by friends of the neighborhood in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gebhardt and also in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Curran and Mrs. A. Ruegg. A beautiful casserole and a half dozen sherbet glasses were presented to the pastor and his wife.

GRESHAM BOY INJURED IN FALL FROM LOFT

A distressing accident befell Edward, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baumann who live on Cleveland avenue just off east Powell Valley road, Sunday evening about 7 o'clock, when he fell ten feet from a barn hayloft badly injuring both arms and sustaining a bad shock and a number of bruises. He had gone to the barn to pull down straw for bedding for the cattle and had ascended to the loft where the straw was kept. He had a large hook in his hand with which he was trying to get a hold on a bale of straw, when the hook slipped its hold and he lost his balance, falling to the main floor of the barn. An X-ray taken on Monday afternoon showed that, while his arms were not fractured, they are seriously injured and he has not regained the use of either of them. He was also hurt about the head and it was necessary to take two stitches in one of his ears. While he was only partially unconscious at the time of the accident, he was unable to speak for three hours. His physician predicts that it will be two months in all probability before the boy is able to work. He had been assisting on the McMillan place in addition to helping at his own home in the absence of his father in California, where the latter has gone for his health.

Free Methodist Church Services.
Quarterly meeting services of the Free Methodist church will continue this and Saturday evenings with two services on Sunday, 11 o'clock in the morning and 7:30 in the evening, in charge of the district elder, the Rev. W. T. Klotzbach. An Easter program will be given by the Sunday school at 10 o'clock. The young people's service at 6:30 will be in charge of Mrs. Ethel Klotzbach and the subject for discussion will be "Bible Revivals."

On Tuesday evening the Rev. B. H. Pearson, of Los Angeles, superintendent of the home mission work in California, will speak in the church on the Mexican mission work, his address to be illustrated by stereopticon views. The Rev. W. W. Vinson, of Chicago, assistant missionary secretary, will give an address along the foreign missionary line Wednesday evening. These missionary addresses will be well worth hearing and it is hoped there may be a large attendance.

DESPONDENT WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Despondency, induced by continued ill health, is held responsible for the untimely death of a much-beloved citizen of the Cottrell neighborhood, Mrs. Anna Maude Wagner, aged 56, who early Wednesday morning committed suicide at her home near the community church by taking poison. After the deed she summoned a neighbor, Mrs. Mike Steudler, who in turn called the husband of the unfortunate woman. She expired a few minutes after the arrival of the husband and neighbors. Mrs. Wagner, who would have been 56 years of age tomorrow, has been at St. Francis, Minnesota, and has resided near Cottrell since 1893.

Besides her husband Fred Wagner she is survived by a son, Fred Wagner, Jr., and a daughter, Mabel, who lives in California; four sisters, Mrs. Belle Stockton, Rockwood, Mrs. Grace Peterson, Mrs. Dora Peterson and Mrs. Hattie Moore, all of Fairview; and two brothers, Robert Robertson of Portland and Dan Robertson, of Gresham.

The funeral of Mrs. Wagner will be held at the Underdenominational temple Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of the Rev. S. F. Pitts. The Boring Rebekah lodge No. 213, of which the deceased was a member, will take charge of the services at the grave in Douglas cemetery.

Mrs. Wagner had been in poor health for a long time and had been taking treatments in Portland for ailments incident to a nervous breakdown, but apparently the trouble was too deep-seated to respond to medical treatment. She was a woman of many friends and loved by all who came in contact with her. Her splendid Christian activity in the community will long remain a tribute to her memory.

NEW SODA FOUNTAIN REPLACES OLD BAR

Exact figures may never be available as to the number of thirsts that have been slaked over the old bar in the Welling restaurant which was recently removed and replaced by a handsome five-seated semi-onyx soda fountain, but no doubt if the old fixture could talk, as startling tales would be revealed as those of Longfellow's "Tales of a Wayside Inn." Possibly some of the old timers heaved a sigh, whether of relief or otherwise, when their favorite elbow rest was carted away. At any rate, whatever the sentiment, the old thirst-quencher which served its day in the building formerly a saloon, is no more. It had been a constant eyecore to the proprietor of the popular restaurant and confectionery E. E. Welling since he purchased the place several months ago.

The new equipment is a Russ Biltrite of semi-onyx, marble trimmed and with mirror, side cupboards and silver compartments. It has all the latest devices for ice box and for keeping drinks ice cold. Five customers can be seated at a time in front of the fountain. Another added improvement in the Welling establishment is that of an electric milk shaker which replaced the one he purchased with the business.

The private eating booths are proving very acceptable to those who desire a quiet place to lunch. The tables are covered with a heavy glass covering which is considered much superior to those of wood. Mr. Welling contemplates glass-topped tables throughout the dining room as soon as he can make the change.

Logging Injury Proves Fatal.
A fatal accident occurred on the premises of the Mountain Lumber company east of Sandy on the Mt. Hood Loop road, Tuesday when Bert Nichols sustained injuries that resulted in his death in a Portland hospital the following day. The man was hit by the end of a large log which crushed the calf of his leg, tearing the muscles loose. He was rushed to the hospital where his leg was amputated in the hope of saving his life, but an extremely virulent infection of gangrene had developed and it was impossible to do anything for him. A local physician stated that this was the second case of this kind that had ever been treated in the Good Samaritan hospital as the complications are very rare. The deceased was 42 years of age and had been making his home with his father-in-law, Jim Hite, near Orient station. He is survived by a wife and child and other relatives. The funeral services will be conducted Monday at 10 a. m. in the underdenominational temple in charge of the Rev. S. F. Pitts.

BIBBLE STANDARD SERVICES.

The services for the Bible Standard Community church on the coming Sunday will begin with Sunday school and an Easter program at 10 o'clock, followed by preaching by the pastor at 11 from the theme, "The Resurrection of Christ." There will be preaching again in the evening at 7:30 on "The Christian's Glorious Hope." On Wednesday evenings occur the mid-week prayer meeting and Bible study.

BERRY GROWERS HOLD ANNUAL MEET

Enthusiasm marked the session of the sixth annual meeting of the Cooperative Berry Growers on Wednesday, when over a hundred members gathered at the cannery at 10 o'clock to transact the usual routine of business and exchange views on the raising and marketing of the product which has made the locality of Gresham famous. The most important item of business at the morning session was the ratification of the three directors which were elected at the meeting of the Berry Growers Packing company on Monday of this week, viz., C. M. LaFollette, D. E. Towle and Ernest Schedeen. The two members holding over are W. D. Fraley and C. T. Ryan.

The total membership of the berry growers' association is 385 and the total gross turnover of the company's holdings for the past year has been $407,331.95, as against an overhead operating expense of $19,369, which amount has been appreciably lessened by a number of important assets, reducing the overhead expense to something over $6500. The cost of operating against the total volume of business is 1.7-10 per cent. There has been paid to the growers over a quarter of a million dollars in net returns and the total tonnage for the year has amounted to 2,006 tons. These figures are conservative yet withal accurate, and bespeak a year of advance in the small fruit industry, although the lack of rain materially lessened the output in 1924.

The growers who were present at the meeting at the cannery were entertained at luncheon at Withrow's and also at Welling's restaurants at noon. The meeting in the afternoon was presided over by S. B. Hall, county agricultural agent, who introduced the speakers in his usual genial manner. Preceding the address of Mr. Kipp the audience was entertained with two vocal selections by Leslie Walrad and a couple of violin numbers by W. D. Kinder, Miss Frieda Bratzel accompanying both gentlemen on the piano.

As Mr. Hall in his opening remarks had stated that the day was too fine for an audience to be expected to remain long indoors, the speakers accordingly took their cue and the address of R. H. Kipp was brief and to the point. He made "Cooperation" the keynote of his talk, emphasizing the necessity of many small cooperative agencies rather than one large central distributing point. He said that cooperative marketing must be talked and explained carefully rather than to be preached at people without regard to veracity or detail. He cited the cooperative organization which exists in Lane county as an example of what cooperation can do. They have separate units for their fruit, vegetables and livestock. Mr. Kipp, who is connected with the Portland Chamber of Commerce, closed his remarks with the admonition to push the sales of Oregon-canned goods. He is decidedly opposed to consignment any considerable length of time in advance.

A committee consisting of S. Roberts, F. O. Ekstrom, E. E. Brink, H. H. Watkins and S. D. Harding, presented a number of timely resolutions which were favorably considered and adopted. A resolution of condolence was read out to the memories of the deceased members of the fruit growers, Mrs. Sam Benson, Thomas McKinney, David James, J. T. Lundbom and John Palmquist.

The outgoing director, W. D. Lindeman, was publicly thanked for his interest in the association. Resolutions of appreciation were extended to the management and office force of the Berry Growers Packing company, the members of the Cooperative Berry Growers, the Outlook Publishing company, K. A. Miller and the clerical force of the Bank of Gresham, the telephone girls of the local telephone exchange, the stockholders of the Gresham Fruit Growers association, the Portland Chamber of Commerce through their representative, R. H. Kipp, and last but not least, S. B. Hall, the county agricultural agent.
