Good Friday today.

Some avoid cleaning up by moving. They leave it to the landlord.

Time will tell, but it doesn't always tell us what we would like to know.

If cleanliness is next to godliness some people are a long ways from the kingdom.

Someone says that paying cash for what you buy is a good way to break the habit of buying too much.

To those who go to church only once or twice a year next Sunday is recommended as the best time.

To those who have purchased new spring togs we suggest there is no harm in wearing them to church on Easter Sunday.

CAMP HILL

The Garden club of the Lynch school has changed the date of its box social from April 24 to May 1, the senior class of the Union high having previously decided on that date for the concert by Willamette Girls' Glee club.

The Camp Hill Woman's club held the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Bay. A lunch was served at 1 o'clock. After the meeting a short program was given. The speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. F. W. Swanton, who spoke on "Humane Work" in the city and county. Mrs. E. E. Preble, chairman of this department, also attended the meeting. Lavender and white were decided on as the club colors. Mrs. W. C. Lawrence was asked to compose a song for the club. The Lynch Parent-Teacher association held its regular meeting April 6, which was well attended. The club members had charge of the program and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bay entertained at dinner April 5. Covers were placed for 15.

Otto Skaland and John Lynch are building a house for C. P. Edwards on the Powell Valley road.

Mrs. B. H. Bunn, on Barker road, has for her house guest Mrs. Moody of Astoria.
