

CORBETT

The Easter program will be given at the Corbett community church Sunday evening. Special music is being prepared, also readings and recitations.

Columbia grange enjoyed a fine meeting Saturday, April 4. The lecturer, Mrs. Lydia Ostrand, presented a fine program. M. H. Wheeler, master and Mrs. Wheeler treasurer of Multnomah grange were visitors.

Columbian HI Notes.

Paul Ports, a junior and former student here, has been going to school in Hood River, but he has returned to this school.

"Nothing But the Truth" will be given by the senior class on April 25. Mention of the cast will be made later.

GILLIS

Mrs. R. H. Spence was pleasantly surprised at her home Wednesday afternoon by a party of ladies, most of whom were from the Boring Rebekah lodge. The Rebekahs were Mrs. Amy Morand, Mrs. Wallace Telford, Mrs. Ed. Brown, Mrs. Mary Potter, Mrs. C. B. Steinman, Mrs. Ralph Johanson, Mrs. Orval Manary and Mrs. James McBain. There were also present Mrs. Joe Albel of Sandy, Mrs. W. H. Spence, Mrs. James Spence and Mrs. Richard Knarr, of Troutdale. The afternoon was spent in visiting, followed by refreshments.

James McBain has been home for a few days from Eufaula, Washington, where he has work. He came down to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Will Robertson.

POWELL VALLEY

The pastor of the Mission church will speak Sunday morning from the words, "The Divine Love Must Manifest Itself," and in the evening the preaching service will give way for the Easter program to be rendered by the Sunday school. The confirmation class will meet on Saturday afternoon as usual.

The millinery class of the O. A. C. extension service will meet at the Powell Valley schoolhouse April 17, 18 and 21. The meeting will last from 1 to 4 p. m. on the first day and on the second and third days classes will begin at 10 o'clock and last until 4. A list of proper equipment may be obtained by telephoning to the chairman of the class, Mrs. Frank Gustafson.

The Rev. Axel Green of Portland will preach at 11 o'clock in the Lutheran church in Swedish, followed by a sermon in English. A choir will render selections between the two sermons. Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock. Services will be conducted in both languages every other Sunday. Sunday evening the young people will render an Easter program, with refreshments following.

The entertainment given by the girls' club Thursday evening at the schoolhouse was a success in every way, about $30 being netted which will help to defray the expenses of two delegates to the summer school club work session at Corvallis. Ronda Williams and Frances Ekstrom have been selected as the girls to represent the Powell Valley clubs at the summer session.

COTTRELL

The Ladies Aid of the Cottrell community church will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Breen. A silver tea will be in progress during the afternoon.

The Sunday school will convene at the usual hour of 10 at the community church, followed by a short Easter program at 11 o'clock and preaching by the Rev. Chester Passel of Portland. A basket lunch will be served at noon after which the members of the congregation are planning to come to Gresham to attend the afternoon service at the temple.

BORING

At the Boring church Sunday morning at 9:45 there will be an Easter church service. The pastor will preach on the subject, "The Message of Easter." There will be a short program during the Sunday school hour.

PLEASANT HOME

An Easter program will be given by the Pleasant Home Methodist church Sunday morning at 11:15, by the Sunday school and choir. The pastor will give a short address on "Easter Life." There will be a baptismal service and reception of members.

WOODSTOCK Standard Typewriter

LITTLE has been said in print about the Woodstock—but much has been said by thousands of enthusiastic operators.

It's mainly this background of good will—earned by good performance—that is responsible for its success.

Users will tell you the Woodstock is a most exceptional typewriter—a composite of all improvements conducive to effortless writing—plus a rare beauty of type and sturdiness of construction that stamps this machine as a thing apart.

FAIRVIEW

The Women's Society of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church will hold a tea Thursday afternoon, April 16, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bunn. Mrs. L. Tegart, Mrs. Earl Townsend and Mrs. E. R. D. Hollensted will assist the hostess. All ladies are invited.

Nearly 30 were present at the Parent-Teacher association program given at the schoolhouse last Friday. The pupils of the third and fourth grades gave a drill in physical education and the pupils of Mrs. Stone's room gave a two-part song. Roberta Brooks rendered a piano solo. Mrs. Whitesides spoke on the cooperation of home and school, illustrated by diagrams. Miss Bourgeois' room was awarded the bowl of goldfish for having present the largest number of parents and nine visitors. The bake sale of the "Keep a Kosy Kottage Klub" netted them the sum of $9.15.

A baseball game, which was umpired by W. D. Kinder, of Gresham, was played between Rockwood and Fairview schools on the grounds of the latter place Friday afternoon and resulted in a score of 16 to 9 in favor of Fairview.

TROUTDALE

The attendance for the special Ford display week at the C. C. Bush Ford agency which closed Saturday evening was very good. Paul F. Ports was given $50 credit on a new Ford. Bush has installed a fine new player piano in his salesroom for the entertainment of his visitors. He has received a carload of new Fords this week and workmen are now installing a set of new oil pumps in the garage.
