"Use want ads"—a good adage.

FORMER TROUTDALE WOMAN PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Ellen Wright, aged 84, an old resident of Troutdale, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Bannerman who lives at Berkeley station near Portland, Friday afternoon, April 10, from shock due to a broken hip which she sustained in a fall about six weeks ago. She is survived by four children, William Wright, an only son living east of Troutdale and three daughters, Mrs. Nellie Bannerman, and Mrs. Anna Reynolds, of Portland, and Mrs. Sadie Phillips of Minnesota. The funeral services were conducted at the Masonic hall in Troutdale Monday afternoon under the auspices of the chapter of the Eastern Star of which Mrs. Wright was a charter member. The Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted preached the funeral sermon and musical selections were rendered by C. E. Rusher of Gresham and Mrs. Clara Larsson. The remains were interred in the Masonic cemetery on Sandy boulevard.

TROUTDALE

Otis Kiltner, who has been making his home with his brother-in-law, Ernest Rohlf, for several months, while walking at the top of one of the high cliffs of the Columbia near Multnomah Falls Sunday, missed his footing and fell a considerable distance, fracturing two ribs and the collar bone. Under medical care he is doing as well as can be expected.

Ernest Peterson, aged 59 years, passed away at his home in Troutdale April 11 from heart failure. He is survived by two children, Ernest Peterson, Jr., and Mrs. Emma Jackson, also two grandchildren, Frank and Jack Jackson. Funeral services were held this afternoon at the community church, with interment in Douglas cemetery.

SANDY BLUFF

On account of the prevailing epidemic of grip the moving picture film, "The Man from Broadway," which was to have been presented at the schoolhouse on the evening of April 17, has been postponed until the following Friday evening. This is a 7-reel comedy drama and will be followed by a second comedy, the title of which is not known.

Mrs. W. H. Ereen will entertain the Willing Workers of the Cottrell community church at her home Wednesday, April 15, at a silver tea. All ladies of the neighborhood are invited to attend.

PLEASANT HOME

The Sunday school of the Pleasant Home Baptist church gave an excellent Easter program on Sunday morning to an appreciative congregation. The service was followed by a basket luncheon, served in the basement during which time those present enjoyed a social time together. In the afternoon the officers and teachers met at the home of the superintendent and held a workers' conference, making a few definite plans for improvement and growth of the Sunday school.

On Thursday, April 15, a silver tea will be given at the home of Mrs. Earl Jack, 3408, 62d street S. E., Portland. All members of the Aid are urged to attend. Cars will leave the Baptist church at 12:30, taking those who desire to go.

Sunday, April 19, Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock followed by preaching at 11. There will be no evening service at the church as the young people will go to Gresham to join the B. Y. P. U. in a rally at 3 o'clock, remaining through the afternoon and evening.

ROCKWOOD

The four teachers of the Rockwood school have been reelected for the coming year as follows: Mrs. Anna Studley, principal and teacher of 7th and 8th grades; Mrs. Marian Dagget, 5th and 6th; Mrs. Lyle Smith, 3d and 4th; Mrs. O. E. Hamlin, 1st and 2d. A reception was tendered the teachers at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon by the Parent-Teacher association. A delicious luncheon was enjoyed. One of the features of the afternoon was a game of baseball between the Russellville and Rockwood teams which was won by the latter.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Stanford Moore are much pleased over the arrival of a baby girl which was born to them Thursday, April 9. Mrs. W. Boyd Moore of Canby, Mrs. Moore's mother, is spending a few days assisting in the care of her daughter-in-law.

A large audience enjoyed the Easter services at the community church Sunday evening. Every number on the program was well rendered. The instrumental duets by Orrie Eckert on the saxophone and Elbert Boice, violin, were much appreciated.

GILLIS

Mrs. James McBain has installed a lunch counter, confectionery and fruit stand on her premises facing the Powell Valley and Welch roads. It will be opened for business by next Saturday and will be in charge of Helen Larson and Genevieve Manary.

A very exciting ball game took place at the Gillis ball diamond Sunday in which the Gillis boys were victorious.

William Elliott sang at the St. Johns church last Friday Elliott, who is known to be a very good singer, was formerly a member of the Gresham Union high school male quartet.

and merit alone!

LITTLE has been said in print about the Woodstock—but much has been said by thousands of enthusiastic operators.

It's mainly this background of good will—earned by good performance—that is responsible for its success.

Users will tell you the Woodstock is a most exceptional typewriter—a composite of all improvements conducive to effortless writing—plus a rare beauty of type and sturdiness of construction that stamps this machine as a thing apart.

VAULT ENTOMBMENT

IS WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL WHO DESIRE IT.

Have you ever thought about what shall be done with your body and the bodies of your loved ones when they pass away?

Why not, and why not now, while you have full possession of your faculties?

You have three options:

CREMATION
EARTH BURIAL
VAULT ENTOMBMENT

Most of us naturally shrink from the thought of cremation, and earth burial has many unpleasant features.

Vault Entombment in the new Mt. Scott Mausoleum, built of concrete in the eternal hills, and provided with perpetual care, with the comforts of home, light, heat, rugs, easy chairs, plants, etc., and where we can think without a shudder of our dead lying, and all this furnished at a price within the reach of all, from $175 up, and on very favorable terms.

For further information or an interview phone our representative for this district, Mr. A. M. Russell, Tabor 9001, or communicate with the address given below.
