

Not many humble citizens can have two funerals and the amount of publicity given Floyd Collins, the cave victim. His body has been recovered and the second funeral will be next Sunday.

A London scientist is trying to determine the amount of heat in a girl's blush. There are reasons enough nowadays to cause the blushes but if he can detect the genuine from the painted he may gain fame.

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Arme club will give a card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman on Monday evening, April 27, to which a general invitation is extended. The committee in charge of the necessary arrangements consists of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gorsage, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Page, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ruegg.

Miss Neva Jackson was called yesterday to Lents to help care for her sister, Mrs. Fred Chalker, who is ill with grip.

Mrs. Ava Edwards and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kirk Thompson, of Portland, spent the day yesterday with their respective mothers, Mrs. S. S. Thompson and Mrs. Benj. Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thompson enjoyed a trip last week to eastern Oregon with their son, Earl, who went on business in connection with his pumping system, with which he is supplying Culver and other near-by towns with water.

Carl Krebs Jr., who was brought to the Thomas sanitarium Saturday from Sandy suffering with an attack of pneumonia following the flu, was sufficiently recovered by Tuesday to be able to leave for his home. Edwin Anderson is slowly convalescing from the same disease there. Mrs. Henry TenEyck, whose home is at Bull Run, is at the sanitarium for treatment. In the last issue of the paper the patients were reported incorrectly as being at the Timmerman home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jones, who have been visiting for the past five months with relatives at Pendleton, have returned to their home on West Powell street.

Earl Shafer, athletic coach at the high school, is under a physician's care at the home of B. W. Emery where he has roomed during the school year, suffering from an infection in the left foot which appeared Wednesday and which spread throughout the foot causing him intense pain. The swelling in the member has been greatly reduced and it is thought he will be able to resume his school work in a short time.

Several persons from here are planning to attend the memorial services which will be held at the First Nazarene church in Portland, 12th and Main streets, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for the Rev. Frank Blackman, who died in Calcutta, India, a few weeks ago from smallpox. The Rev. Mr. Blackman, with his wife and daughter went to India as a missionary in 1920. He was ill but a few days from the disease which he contracted and suffered from in its severest form.

Elbert Welsenfuh has been absent from his studies at the grade school for the past week on account of an attack of the grip.

Mrs. C. W. Huett spent the greater part of last week at Seattle attending the mid-year meeting of the executive officers of the Columbia River Branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church. On her return Mrs. Huett was accompanied by Miss Mary Young, a missionary from Korea, who is spending her furlough in this country. Miss Young went to the foreign field from Ashland, Oregon, near six years ago.

Mrs. Josephine Keithley, sister of Mrs. Lewis Metzger, has been ill at the latter's home for several weeks and is now reported to be in a serious condition. Mrs. Keithley has spent the past two years at the homes of Mrs. Metzger and another sister at Hood River.

The Musical Arts club which was recently organized met at the library Thursday evening and decided to retain its present temporary officers until a better attended meeting is held. The matter of electing a delegate to the national convention was put off until about May 14, at which time the club expects to have a very interesting meeting with possibly a program in connection.

Samuel Boucher, a rancher from Alberta, Canada, who has been spending the winter in California and Mexico, is stopping for a few days in Gresham visiting with George Webster and other friends on his way to the north.

A meeting of the Gresham Commercial club has been called for next Monday night, April 27. There are many matters of importance to come up for consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Reed are here from Estacada and have taken a room for a week with Miss Elva Dolan. They are looking over this section of the country as the possible location for a home and also as to the site for the establishment of a small mill to be used in the manufacture of whole wheat cereal and flour. Mr. Reed is an experienced mill man and contemplates taking up the industry again when he secures a satisfactory location.

The ladies of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet with Mrs. John Metzger on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

It beats all how much space the daily newspapers give to the discovery of crime and how little to the punishment of the person or persons found guilty of the same. Yet the excuse given for parading the facts before the public is that it may act as a deterrent.

It has been suggested that what the world needs is an amplifier for the still small voice that speaks within the heart.

It is noticeable that the one who has faith in himself has faith in the other fellow.
