

ROCKWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cook have recently received interesting letters from their son, Harold, who is employed on the U. S. S. Frank M. Cox in the Panama Canal zone. He takes frequent trips into the country and enjoys new scenes and experiences but writes that he longs for Oregon. He has been there a year and has four months longer before his contract expires. Milk is a real luxury in that region, as it sells at 15 cents a glass, according to Cook.

The Southern Pacific company announces that it will build at its shops at Sacramento 18 mammoth locomotives, especially designed to haul heavy passenger trains over steep mountain grades. They will cost over $80,000 each and weigh over 300 tons each. They will be of the most modern type.

Lyndhurst Club Entertained.

The members of the Lyndhurst Sewing club and their husbands were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lynch recently at their home on the Section Line road. The evening was spent in cards and dancing and a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. E. Shaver and Mr. Lynch won the honors of the evening.

Bible Standard Church Services.

The services for the Bible Standard community church will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by preaching at 11 and again at 7:30 in the evening by the Rev. E. E. Lee of Falls City, in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Aaron Hansen, who is assisting in a revival service at Monitor, Oregon. Prayer meeting and Bible study are held each Wednesday evening at 7:30.

GRESHAM LOCALS

While Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Seffert were absent from home on Monday afternoon, someone made away with a fine Jersey calf born that morning, and which had been left in a pen in the barn with its mother. No trace has been found of the animal.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cleveland spent three days at Seaside last week improving their beach property.

Gresham people who attended the funeral in Salem last week of Dr. E. E. Gilbert were the Revs. C. W. Huett and A. S. Hisey and their wives, Miss Rena Stevenson, Miss Nel Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth and Miss E. E. Johnson.

Word has been received of the birth of a 9-pound daughter to Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Erickson of Cloverdale, Oregon, on April 29. Mrs. Erickson will be remembered as Miss Pearl Lindsey.

The young people of the Baptist church put over a complete surprise on their pastor, the Rev. E. G. Judd, Wednesday evening on the occasion of his birthday. At the conclusion of the prayermeeting he was hastily summoned to the parsonage to answer a prearranged telephone call. As he said "hello," about 30 folks suddenly appeared from behind doors and other hiding places and he had to acknowledge "it was on him." An interesting program of readings and music was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. As a birthday remembrance he was presented with a gold eversharp pencil and fountain pen with his initials engraved on each.

At the annual circuit and society business meeting of the Free Methodist church which was held Wednesday evening P. F. Black was elected a delegate to the annual conference of the church which will be held at Woodburn, Oregon, beginning June 10. Gust Larson was elected a reserve delegate to the conference.

Ruby Holloway is ill at her home on South Roberts street with pneumonia.

The Areme club is planning for a special dance to be given in the Masonic hall on Friday night, May 15. The Crescent orchestra, which plays for a dance hall at Buckley avenue, has been engaged for the occasion and it is understood if the patrons of the club are satisfied with its music at this time, the orchestra may be engaged for the dances to be held by the club during the coming season.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Clananah came up from Seaside to attend Judge Stapleton's funeral. The doctor went back to his work Tuesday, but his wife remained over for a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller.

Mrs. R. M. Welch is planning to leave tomorrow for Seattle to attend the funeral on Sunday of a young lady friend who died in that city Tuesday. The two families first became acquainted when living at St. Johns about 15 years ago.

Frank Moore is erecting a three-room cottage on the lot he bought in the Clananah addition recently. He first put up a small house in which he and his wife have been living, but within the past week he has begun building the larger house which will have bath, lights and other modern conveniences.

Clifford and Ross E. Read of Seattle former residents in Gresham, called on friends here one day last week. They were on their way to California where the latter was going to recuperate from a long illness. Ross Read and his wife have a growing business at Seattle where they carry on printing and publishing.

The W. C. T. U. bake sale which was announced to be held the coming Saturday at the Walrad Mercantile company has been postponed until Saturday, May 16.

The ladies of the Auxiliary to the American Legion are making extensive plans for their bake sale to be held at the A. W. Metzger store tomorrow afternoon. A work meeting had been planned by the ladies for Tuesday afternoon, but on account of the pageant which is to be given at the grade school, their meeting has been postponed until the following day. They will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. J. Pulfer, equipped with needles, thread and thimble. All wives of Legion members are welcome.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. S. Hisey Wednesday afternoon, May 13, at 2 o'clock. There will be a Mothers' Day program, also it will be a mite box opening day. The Mothers' Jewels are invited to be present and bring their mite boxes. The program is in charge of Mrs. George Honey and Mrs. James Sterling. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. James Sterling, Mrs. J. V. Cogswell, Mrs. Mary Patch and Mrs. Peter Michel.

The Areme club will meet Monday afternoon, May 11, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dowsett. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Benj. Cameron, Mrs. George D. Rank and Mrs. W. J. Cooper. All O. E. S. ladies are invited.

Miss Leona Bailey left this morning for Monmouth to spend the week-end with Miss Rose Potter, who is attending normal school, and witness the May Day exercises which will be held tomorrow.

A 7½-pound girl was born May 5 to Mr. and Mrs. M. Emhos, whose home is three miles east of Gresham. The mother is convalescing at the Nash sanitarium. S. M. Forman, of Antelope, Oregon, is also a patient at the residence of Mrs. Nash, recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Fred Mewhirter and wife are here from Newberg at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibbs. Mrs. Mewhirter has been taken to the Portland sanitarium for medical treatment. Mr. Mewhirter reports that his prunes and cherries on his farm near Newberg will be a total loss this year owing to the frost.
