Wouldnt you spend 7% to save 50%?

Lumber, plaster, roofing and other building materials, plus the carpenters' wages needed to build—these make up 50% of the total cost of the average six room frame house.

Then the cost for protection against depreciation and decay—Paint and Varnish, in other words—only 7% of the total cost.

There is only one name to remember in spending that 7%—that is Rasmussen.

Rasmussen Pure Paints and Varnishes excel in covering capacity, lasting finish and protective qualities. They are the safest insurance of property values—and beauty.

Ask your dealer for color cards.
Ask your painter for an estimate.

For Exteriors
RASMUSSEN PURE PAINT
Also Creosote Shingle Stain; Porch Floor Paint; Barn and Roof Paint; Truck, Tractor and Implement Paint; Automobile Enamel; Spar Varnish; Roof Coating; Concrete and Cement Coating.

For Interiors
Wall-Dura Washable Wall Paints

FAIRVIEW SCHOOL WILL PRESENT PAGEANT

The 1925 eighth grade graduating class of Fairview has arranged for a pleasing program which will be rendered on Tuesday evening on the school grounds at Fairview, beginning promptly at 8:45. The exercise, which will be in the nature of a spring pageant, is called "The Fairies' Child." The part of the fairy queen will be taken by Lillian Rudie and the fairy princess by Marian Burlingame. Johnny Blair will pay homage to the queen as her page and Inez Keenan will be known as Trudie, the wood-cutter's daughter. The fairies' child, Thistlekin, will be played by Carl Rudie and Slump, a caterpillar, will be impersonated by Lawrence Mahaffey.

To complete the cast of "The Fairies' Child" there will be eight wood folks, six fairies and five children in the Maypole dance. The pink sweet pea has been chosen as the class flower and the motto of the class is "Onward over obstacles."

The eight students comprising the class are William Anderson, Edward Anderson, Lucille Backus, Clara Brooks, Benjie Briggs, Frank Keenan, Kathleen Lewis and Irene Ulrich.

TROUTDALE

As a result of eighth grade examinations tests given by County Superintendent Alderson, Marjorie Kuhnley, Mary Scott, Elizabeth Robinson and Ralph Miller are exempt from the final examinations and several others failed in only one subject. The class of nine all received passing grades and Marjorie Kuhnley and Mary Scott have an average of over 95. It is said the Troutdale eighth grade has the highest average in the county. They have been working under handicap for some time as so many of the pupils have been absent on account of the mumps.

Mrs. L. A. Harlow entertained the Half Hour Study club with 1 o'clock luncheon at her home on Tuesday. There were 20 of the members present, all from Portland who enjoyed an unusually interesting meeting. Mrs. Ralph Dunnaway reviewed the book for the afternoon and Mrs. Clara Oaks gave interesting descriptions of a trip to the Samoa Islands. The program for the year was adopted which will be current literature and Oregon writers.

Mrs. Thomas Low and Mrs. Isabella Rugg of Portland entertained on Friday the past matrons' club of 1922, with a luncheon at 12:30 at the former's home, which was beautifully decorated with flowers, the color scheme of yellow being carried out in all the rooms and on the table. They had election of officers and also decided to have a picnic at Eagle Creek camp in July. The following guests were present: Mesdames Jennie Smith, Daisy Miller, Maybell Boone, Lillian Dazell, Elizabeth Murphy, Etta Hall of Portland, Mrs. Maud Woodworth of Multnomah and Mrs. Lena Peters of Hillsboro, Oregon.

Sunday dinner guests at the Morris McGinnis home were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Spence and little daughter and Homer Jones of Portland.
