OUTLOOK COOKING SCHOOL BEGINS NEXT THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 28TH

Four Free Lectures and Demonstrations Will Be Given in Gresham by Mrs. Bartlett Sponsored by Outlook.

Attention, ladies! This is especially for housewives and all others wishing to get new ideas on what to cook and how to do it most efficiently and economically.

The Gresham Outlook has sponsored a plan to give in Gresham a special short course in home economics, consisting of four cooking lectures and demonstrations beginning next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church. The other dates are Monday, June 1, Thursday, June 4, and Monday, June 8.

In order to allow time for shopping and other appointments, the classes will convene at 2:30 and close at 4 p. m. each day. Mrs. Rose Bartlett, Home Economics Expert and Instructor in the Home Service department of the Portland Gas company will deliver the lectures and demonstrations.

Mrs. Bartlett has just completed a very successful cooking school at Forest Grove under the auspices of the Washington County News-Times. This is the fourth school to be held during the last few weeks, under the auspices of the various local newspapers including the Vancouver Columbian, Oregon City Morning Enterprise, Hillsboro Argus and the News-Times.

These schools have been held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and other halls, which have been packed to capacity by the large attendance. The class work is very practicable and highly appreciated by those registering.

The Gresham Outlook Cooking school will be free to all housewives and ladies and there will be no suggestion made of selling anything in the class work. The "Better Homes" movement, which is receiving so much consideration everywhere will be emphasized throughout this lecture and demonstration course in Gresham.

The Home Service department of the Gas company is already busy making preparations for the class room work. It is estimated that the auditorium will easily accommodate 150 housewives. Every convenience will be provided for the comfort and pleasure of those attending. A raised platform will be used for the speakers and demonstration work. A special invitation will be extended to the members of the domestic science classes of the high school to attend the cooking school in the interest of practical home service work. The members of the various Ladies' Aid societies of this part of the county are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Bartlett will not attempt to lecture on ordinary cooking methods but will demonstrate basic recipes, which will enable every housewife to secure better cooking results. A full announcement of the class programs will appear in the Gresham Outlook preceding each class. Recipe sheets will be furnished all ladies attending as they enter the class room. Also note paper and pencils will be available for those who wish to take notes. Foods used in the class work will be as far as possible the preparation of foods used in the class work will be made in the presence of the class as a part of the demonstrations. Samples of the menus prepared will be served to those in attendance. It is suggested that the recipe sheets be preserved for future use as a complete set will have been delivered to each registered class member upon the completion of the course.

At each class demonstration, special attention will be given to the subject of saving gas in cooking, which means greater economy in home management. In next week's issue of the Outlook will appear a full announcement of the class program and plans.

At the opening class, H. L. St. Clair, editor of the Gresham Outlook and president of the Commercial club, will welcome the ladies to the cooking class and Chas. Cleveland, mayor of Gresham will be asked to make a short address in the interest of the "Better Homes" movement.

COUNTY COUNCIL P-T. A. HOLDS FINAL MEETING

The final meeting of the year of the Multnomah County Council of Parent-Teacher associations was held last Saturday at the Riverdale, one of the most ideal schools of the county. Mrs. Elmer Cook, retiring president, was in the chair. Mrs. J. D. Shelby was secretary pro tem. Mrs. Roy Holeson, the treasurer, gave her report for the year, which showed a gain of $39.47 over last year. Three state officers were present, Mrs. George J. Perkins, who gave an interesting report of the national convention in Texas; Mrs. B. I. Elliott, state treasurer; and Mrs. F. B. Merry, corresponding secretary.

The ninth grade of the Riverdale school presented scenes from "The Merchant of Venice." Those taking the principal parts were Margaret Sherrard, Frank Spencer and James Laing. The screens, wall hangings and the costume worn by "Portia" were made by members of the junior high department.

True to Riverdale spirit, a most clever idea was carried out for the lunch, 24 hostesses each having her table for four and carrying out her own ideas.

Officers were elected, and those of the County Council and circle were installed by Mrs. George J. Perkins. Those elected were Mrs. E. S. Hoek, Gilbert, president; Mrs. Ann Christensen, Riverdale, first vice president; Mrs. H. Home, Maplewood, second vice president; Mrs. A. D. Kendall, Troutdale, third vice president; Mrs. H. F. Stevenson, Powellhurst, secretary; Mrs. Roy Holeson, Powellhurst, treasurer, re-elected.

Reports of chairmen of departments were given by Mrs. R. C. Thayer.

er, on legislation; Mrs. J. H. Lynch on boys' and girls' clubs. The following school activities were reported: Troutdale gave a picnic to the children and a party to the teachers. Mrs. Haley was elected president.

Pleasant Valley has the motion picture machine practically paid for. One club member will be sent to the summer school at Corvallis.

Thirty members of the Maplewood school are taking the child welfare magazine. The circle gave the teacher a reception and bought dishes for the school kitchen. Mrs. C. Home is president. A banquet was given to the new officers. Mrs. Day is the newly elected president.

Riverdale, which entertained the council, has joined the state federation. Mrs. F. A. Spencer is the new president.

Russellville circle re-elected the president, Mrs. Mark Frankley; and the secretary, Mrs. Mills, for another year. The play "Peter Rabbit" was given by the school, the teachers were entertained and $350 in advertising on the curtain of the school auditorium were renewed.

Gilbert circle re-elected last year's officers. Mrs. Ed. Monical is president. There are eight standard pictures in the school. The 7th and 8th grades entertained the P-T.A. Fifteen dollars have been raised by a program. The school has been standardized and has received a 100 per cent banner.

Powellhurst has been active in money making ventures and has raised considerable money. The children were given a picnic and the graduates each a present. Officers elected were Mrs. A. H. Moll, president; Mrs. G. F. Kirkham, vice president; Mrs. H. F. Stevenson, secretary; Mrs. C. Hessemer, treasurer.

Lynch elected W. O. Shaver, president; Mrs. B. H. Bunn, vice president; Mrs. H. C. McKee, secretary. They had $15 given them by Camp Hill club, and gave $5 toward the luncheon to be given by the Council at Chanticleer next fall. Each graduate was given a present.

Dust Cabbage Plants.
Cabbage plants recently transplanted are likely to be injured by the attacks of green worms and aphids. A lead arsenate nicotine dust applied soon after transplanting is regarded by the experiment station as the best preparation for the control of these insects in Oregon.

COOLIDGE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN OF FUND

PRESIDENT CALVIN COOLIDGE

Chairman of the National Honorary Committee of the $5,000,000 American Legion Endowment Fund for disabled men and the orphans of war veterans. Associated with President Coolidge as sponsors of the Endowment Fund are the highest leaders of the nation in industry, labor, the professions, arts and sciences, including Hon. John W. Davis, candidate for president on the Democratic ticket last year; the cabinet members, senators, heads of the army, navy and marine corps, Cardinal O'Connell, Bishop Charles H. Brent, Julius H. Barnes, John Barton Payne, chairman of the Red Cross, and fifty others.

POPULAR HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER IS MARRIED

A wedding which will prove particularly interesting to students and faculty of Gresham Union high school took place in Portland last Saturday when Miss Vie Elizabeth Rice, commercial teacher of the high school for the past two years, became the bride of Bryant B. DeBar of Eugene, Dr. Edward H. Pence, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church officiating. The wedding had been scheduled for an event of June, but on account of a sudden change in the business plans of Mr. DeBar, an earlier date was decided upon. The ceremony was witnessed by a few immediate friends of the two families. The bride, whose home is near Roseburg, is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College and has been very popular among her pupils who all regret the fact that she is not to return to the high school here. The groom is a University of Oregon man and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He has been engaged in work at Roseburg for the Standard Oil company in the capacity of agent. The couple left Gresham this morning for Cannon Beach, where they will spend at least two weeks before beginning housekeeping.

BERRY GROWERS WILL HOLD SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of all of the members of the Cooperative Berry Growers association will be held at the cannery on Thursday, May 28, at 7 p. m. to consider the details of the red raspberry marketing problem in carload lots. F. H. Krug of Sumner, Washington, who has charge of the shipping, will be present to give detailed information on the question of proper methods of harvesting and handling the berries for this trade.

The question of picking prices and what premium will be allowed on the berries picked for this carload plan of marketing will be also considered. All members are urged to attend this meeting as it will be the last chance for a full membership meeting before the harvest.

Nutrition Classes Announce Dates.

Remaining nutrition classes for the month of May are as follows: Fairview, Wednesday, May 27; Lents, Thursday, May 28; Victory, Friday, May 29.

The program for the classes on these dates are:

Morning demonstration on milk and trays for the sink; afternoon talks on home special diets; how to eat and grow fat, how to eat and grow thin, diets for colds, etc. In addition to this program at Lents and Victory, County Agent S. B. Hall will talk on garden problems.

Classes are to be conducted by Miss Lucy A. Case, nutrition specialist.

Gresham Temple Services.

The services of the Undenominational temple will begin with Sunday school at 10 o'clock, preaching to begin at 2 in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening. Prayer service is held each Tuesday evening and the weekly Bible study class on Friday evening at 7:30.

Class Night Exercises Please Large Audience

A large and appreciative audience was present Wednesday evening to listen to the senior class night program at the high school. Each number was enthusiastically received and nothing but praise was heard in connection with the program. The first number was a one-act play, "Thursday Evening," the cast being made up of Orville Davidson, the economical husband who never complained or found fault with his wife; Vada Anderson, the young wife who never lost her temper, and Hazel Pruitt and Wilhelene Botkin, the mothers of the two young married people who both visited the home at the same time and helped to complicate things in general.

Miss Gertrude Sharkey, dressed in a beautiful Indian costume and using the poetical imagery of the Redman, gave the class history of the past four years. This recital closed with a most effective tableau.

Eugene Welling, president of the 1925 class, looked his part of the venerable old attorney at law, dressed in flowing gown and with white wig and beard. In a fine clear voice he read the class will which disposed of the holdings of the senior class.

One of the best numbers on the program and the one which called for the greatest encore of the evening was the medley of popular songs which was improvised by a number of the class and was accompanied by ukeleles. The group of young girls made a pleasing picture as the soft colored lights were thrown on them. William Sandstrom as a first-class clown made a hit with the audience. An encore the singers rendered the chorus of "How do you do everybody, how do you do?"

The 1925 class as a whole at the beginning of the year adopted the type of the Indian as the class mascot and this idea has been carried out in connection with different class functions and also in various ways in connection with the commencement exercises. The "Munhinotq" has on its cover the figurative "Saeajawea" with her papoose and this has also been reproduced on the cover page of the junior-senior banquet program. The climax of this idealization of the Redman was reached Wednesday evening when the curtain rose on a typical Indian scene with a real 1925 wigwam in evidence. Mabel Winters as the soothsayer had been driven from her tribe and for the kindness of the members of the tribe of '25 she consented to foretell their future. It is safe to say that if no more evil befalls the members of the 1925 graduating class than was foretold by the kind Indian maiden, the future lives of the 48 boys and girls will be comparatively happy. This number on the program showed much careful work in the costuming and the rendition of each part. At the conclusion of the prophecy several of the "braves" executed a modern war dance.

Mention must be made of the class song which was written by one of the class, Miss Gertrude Sharkey, who is of a literary turn of mind and the author of several essays and poems that are well worth reading. During her high school career, Miss Sharkey wrote an essay which won for her a cash prize of $25 in a contest put on by a patriotic organization. The music to the class song was composed by Miss Elizabeth Horning, a rising young musician and who has been prominent musically in many affairs of the school during the past few years. Miss Horning played the accompaniment to the song which was sung by the class Wednesday evening. As an encore they rendered "I Want to Be Happy."

This account of the class night exercises would be incomplete without reference being made to the unusually fine numbers which were so freely dispensed by the orchestra. Since coming to Gresham Miss Dorothy Dickey has accomplished a great deal along the line of organization and has fully demonstrated her ability as a leader.

Bible Standard Services.

Regular services will be held at the Gresham Community church, Bible Standard, with Sunday school at 10 o'clock, followed by preaching at 11 and again at 8 in the evening. Bible study and prayer service are held each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Anna Wright has leased her farm near the Powell Valley station to Harry Denges of Lexington, Oregon, who with his wife and two children will take immediate possession. Mrs. Wright and family are moving today into the Cotton house on the corner of Hood and Fifth street. Ted Wright is trying to escape the horrors of moving by staying in bed with a severe attack of the grip.

A Garage

is not a luxury—it is an asset to your home.

And it is well when building a garage to realize that it is likely to outlive several cars you may own.

How is your garage equipped? Has it sliding or swinging doors?

It matters not what kind of door equipment you may desire—we can supply your needs.

We recommend the McKinney Garage Door Equipment and would like to explain its advantages. See it at our store.
