

Court Decision Pleases Prohibition Leader.

W. J. Herwig, superintendent of the Anti-saloon league, of Oregon, is much gratified over the recent victory of the prohibition forces in the case of Fred T. Merrill, former proprietor of the Twelve-Mile house, when the United States circuit court of appeals upheld the decision of the district court in its conviction of Merrill, which carried with it a jail sentence of six months and a fine of $250 on the charge of violating the prohibition law and maintaining a nuisance. Mr. Herwig was so well pleased with the decision of the court that he wrote a commendatory letter to George Neuner, United States attorney for Oregon, who argued the appeal before the appeals court, congratulating him upon the victory won in this case.

CORBETT

The high school students and teachers enjoyed an automobile trip over the Columbia river highway to the Mt. Hood country Saturday going up the mountain as far as the snow line. A picnic lunch was served.

Miss Pauline Rickli returned to her home in Salem Sunday. Miss Rickli has made many friends in this vicinity during her two years period as instructor in the high school.

The Rev. Mr. Maxey, a former pastor at the Corbett community church but now a resident of Portland, preached at the church Sunday.

The graduates from the eighth grade in Dist. 39, Corbett, were Eugene Chamberlain, Gilbert Hodgson, Harry Palmer, Julia Kercher, Grace Surber, Arthur Grimm, Carl Etling, Mahlon Evans and Lynne Woodward. Those on the honor roll were Carl Etling, Arthur Grimm, Harry Palmer, Lynne Woodward, Carl Etling received "A Real Man", which was worthy of special mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Oleman left Tuesday by auto for a trip to the Sound cities and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. Ethel Smith Stewart was in Portland Wednesday.

Clifford Reed came down from Corvallis Thursday to attend the high school graduating exercises.

Mrs. Palmer has her huge, palatial inn above Crown Point nearly completed and will be open for business June 4. A landscape gardener has had charge of the making of the lawn and planting flowers and shrubbery and has installed fountain and pond.

A large stone arch, which will be electrically lighted at the intersection of the Columbia river highway and mountain road leading to the inn will add greatly to the attraction of the beautiful resort.

George Kniერიem Sr., is in Portland this week visiting his daughters.

Bella Reed entertained her school-mates at a lawn party Tuesday evening.

TROUTDALE

Miss Mary Andrews of Portland and the Rev. R. D. Everett, who has been conducting the daily vacation Bible school at Troutdale, will be present at the Sunday school of the Troutdale community church Sunday morning, at which time an exhibit will be given of the work which was done by the vacation school. The pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, will preach at 8 o'clock in the evening on the subject, "Why Worship God?"

THANKS.

The people of Troutdale desire to thank all those who came to our assistance during our recent fire, especially the Portland fire department, and the folks at Gresham, Springdale and Bridal Veil, who so thoughtfully and generously sent equipment as well as men.

LAURA D. HARLOW, Mayor.

TROUTDALE LADIES' AID ENTERTAIN WITH PARTY

Mrs. Wm. Markell was a most delightful hostess Wednesday at a party given at her home on the Cornelius place by the Troutdale Ladies Aid. The rooms were gay with spring flowers, among them being some vases of very fine roses. The members of the Smith Memorial Women's Society of Fairview were the guests of the occasion. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent in listening to a short program and strolling about the beautiful grounds.

The numbers on the program were a song and music by Mrs. L. A. Harlow, reading by Mrs. S. L. Lockwood of Fairview, vocal duets by Mrs. C. E. Scott and Faye Parsons; and Miss Case, a nutrition specialist, gave a short talk on food value. After the program a game in the nature of a word contest was played, in which Mrs. Eunice Robinson carried off the prize, a bouquet given by the hostess.

An interesting incident of the party was the presenting of a gift, a vase of Mexican glass, to Mrs. B. Morehead, a former member of the Aid, who now lives in Portland.

Dainty refreshments of cake and punch were served. About 50, including the children, enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the hostess and her assistants among the Aid members.

FAIRVIEW

R. R. Morrill, an attorney with an office in Portland, who for the past six years has resided with his family in Fairview, has traded his residence property here, consisting of two acres and an 8-room house, for a house and lot in Rose City Park. Mr. Mills and wife, also their son and his wife and four children, will be the new occupants of the former Morrill home. Malcolm Morrill is a student in the Benson Polytechnic school in Portland.

A union service will be held Sunday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. R. D. Everett of Portland conducting the service. There will be an exhibit of the work done by the children of the daily vacation Bible school, also a brief program given by them.

Miss Josephine Townsend, who has been teaching school at Vernonia, is home for the summer vacation. She has secured a school at Gilbert station, between Gresham and Portland, for the coming year.

Mr. Batilega and family, of Troutdale, who purchased ten acres from S. A. Arata some time ago, will move onto their new property soon. It is located on the Columbia river highway between Fairview and the Arata road.

POWELL VALLEY

Mrs. J. E. Lorimer, who is the president of the Lutheran Home and Foreign Missionary society for the Portland district, will be present Friday evening at the festival to be held at the Lutheran church in Powell Valley. There will be interesting musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental, and coffee and cake will be served.

School closed last Friday with a grand picnic and track meet on the school grounds. Prizes contributed by the business men of the neighborhood were given to the pupils starring in the athletic events. An interesting ball game was played between the grade school boys and their fathers, assisted by a number of high school boys, in which the smaller boys lost out. A delicious lunch was served at noon. Two prizes of $1 each had been offered to the pupil in each room producing the neatest notebook at the close of the school year. Ruby Arvidson, a student in the fifth grade, won the prize in the upper grades and Stanley Lyons, a fourth grader, that in the primary room. It was a very close contest, as many neat books were turned in by the students. Miss Marian Robertson treated her eighth grade pupils to a trip up the highway as far as Cascade Locks on Tuesday of this week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Helen Camp.

The Misses Nettie and May Nelson left on Thursday morning for Seattle where they will attend the young peoples' and Sunday school conference of the Mission church as delegates from Powell Valley.

"What Does It Mean to Be Baptized With the Holy Spirit?" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday morning at the Mission church by the pastor, the Rev. O. J. Wilner. He will speak in the evening on "The Enlightenment of the Holy Spirit."

Advertising bridges the stream of competition.

We Understand.

When a plumber makes a mistake he charges twice for it. When a lawyer makes a mistake it's just what he wanted so he can appeal to your pocketbook. When a carpenter makes a mistake he boards it up and nails you with the bill. When an electrician makes a mistake he blames it on the conductor. When a doctor makes a mistake he buries it. When an undertaker makes a mistake he just digs it up. When a judge makes a mistake it may become the law of the land. When a preacher makes a mistake no one knows the difference. When a salesman makes a mistake he charges it on his expense account. But when a printer makes a mistake everybody hears about it and jumps on him.—Selected.
