

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cleveland and daughters, Eleanor and Alice, of Stanfield, Oregon, have returned to their home after a visit with the former's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland.

S. E. Palmquist and family spent Sunday with the family of Mrs. Palmquist's sister, Mrs. Conrad Peterson, at Canby.

The Women's Missionary society of the Free Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon, June 3, at the parsonage.

Mrs. L. R. Horning returned to her home in Seattle Saturday after a visit of several weeks with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Horning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie have been at Seaside for a few days looking after their beach property and getting everything in readiness for the coming season in connection with their summer home.

The appearance of the Osburn building is being improved by stucco trimmings across the front and around windows at the side.

Denton, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bacon who lives near the Big Sandy dam, was brought to a physician's office in Gresham yesterday where seven stitches were taken in the boy's lips where he had been cut by glass from a broken windshield in his father's machine when it struck a tree. The cuts in the boy's face are not regarded as serious.

Mrs. Neva Studt of Portland was in Gresham yesterday attending to matters pertaining to the work of the county health nurse in this vicinity.

Mrs. Studt is relieving Miss Mary P. Billmeyer, who is in the east enjoying a vacation with relatives near Chicago. Before her return she will attend a convention in Minneapolis.

The musical comedy, "The Minister's Wife's New Bonnet," will be presented by the Ladies Aid society of the Gresham grade school church at the Gresham grade school auditorium on the evening of Wednesday, June 10, under the auspices of the Gresham Methodist Ladies Aid.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher were the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansdowne and baby of Oregon City, Miss Margaret Blake, Frank DeWitt and Fred Duncan of Salem. The three young people were from the store where Miss Myrtle Rusher was employed until recently.

Fred Hibbard was a week-end visitor from Corvallis at the home of his uncle, J. H. Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Baker and two children are here from Dufur, Oregon, for a week visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. I. A. Baker and his sister, Mrs. S. F. Pitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Kitzmiller are in attendance at the state grange convention at Dallas, Oregon, as delegates from the Gresham grange. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodge were the regularly elected delegates to the convention, but as they were unable to attend, Mr. Kitzmiller and wife were appointed alternates to take their place. Mrs. L. P. Manning is attending the lecturers' conference at the same convention in place of the regular local lecturer, Mrs. H. A. Curry.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak have each been suffering with an aggravated attack of tonsillitis but at present seem to be recovering slowly.

Mrs. H. W. Cooley was taken by surprise Monday evening, the occasion being her 52d birthday, when a number of friends and relatives took possession of her home for the evening. Delicious refreshments were served before the departure of the guests. Those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley and daughter, Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gaskill, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stockton and son, Clair, Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Roles, Mrs. L. Wilhelm and daughter, Mrs. Dan Murphy and son, Mrs. Cora Brooks and her mother, Mrs. Sarah Strucken, Mrs. Quim McClure and daughter, Miss Marian McClure and Ted Wright.

Kenneth Roberts and his sister, Miss Alice Roberts, were dinner guests Saturday evening at the B. F. Aldrich summer home at Welches.

Harold Richmond is absent from his duties at the Kidder Hardware store with a light case of the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Robertson are at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. W. H. Gibson, having made the trip from Detroit, Michigan, by automobile. Mr. Robertson is a commercial traveler and they have decided to make the west their home, locating probably in Portland.

The Rev. E. G. Judd and wife and three sons, Miss Elsa Sharp and a cousin, Fred Hibbard of Corvallis, Doris Brown, Marie Blom, and Harry Smiley composed a party which made a trip up Larch mountain Saturday. On their return to the highway they met four Gresham boys, James McAllister, Guy Rusher, James Bushong and Harold Richmond who ascended the mountain Saturday night, returning to Gresham Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Harrison arrived last night from Martinsville, Illinois, where they have been for nearly a year past. They came by automobile, leaving there five weeks ago. About two weeks of the time were spent in visiting. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Phillippe of the same place in Illinois, who are planning a tour of the coast and will remain in Gresham during the summer. The two couples will occupy the Peck house on First street when Mr. Peck and his sisters leave for an eastern trip.

Miss Emma B. Johnson, Miss Sarah Dotson, Arnold Rodgers and H. L. St. Clair of Gresham, and "Bud" Clark of Portland, formed a hiking party that covered the Eagle Creek trail to Wah-wah lake last Saturday, returning Sunday. The distance from the beautiful lake up in the mountains is thirteen and a half miles. Many hikers, including a score or more of Boy Scouts, were at the lake. The trail is very good but still wet in places from the late heavy snows. Those who make the hike say it is well worth the effort.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Todd of Gresham and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Randell of Portland enjoyed a week-end fishing excursion to Trout lake, which is situated at the foot of Mount Adams, nearly 90 miles from here. They report the scenery as beautiful and the fishing excellent.

Mrs. Fietta Hibbert has been ill for the past ten days with an attack of the grip but is well on the way to recovery at this time.

Let your eye run down this column.

Prof. Max Rubner, of Berlin, says Americans eat more on the average—3,308 calories daily—than any other nation. England comes next, with 2,997 calories.

It is certain that this country eats too much, and wastes about as much as it eats. Half we eat keeps us alive; one-quarter keeps the doctors alive, and the other quarter supports the un-half, leave the table for ten minutes, detarkers and cemetery owners. Eat and once digestion starts you'll know you've eaten enough.
