Awards Made in Beautification Contest.

The people of the eastern part of Multnomah county have reason to be proud of the creditable showing which they made in the recent beautification contest, as they carried off a number of the awards made by William P. Merry in the campaign just ended. Under classification No. 1 of improvements made in farms, the Meadowhurst farm owned by W. Hornecker, Powell Valley and Barker roads, was awarded second prize. A second prize was also given the Fowellhurst service station, owned by H. Hobson at Powell Valley and Buckley avenue, and the Arboleda grocery was given honorable mention for the greatest improvement shown in places of business. In the classification of improvements to residences the Neal residence on Powell Valley road, the H. C. Bourne place on Powell Valley in Arboleda and that of C. T. Curtis on Powell Valley road in Meadowhurst were given honorable mention.

TROUTDALE

L. V. Calkins and sons have moved the meat market to their new place of business in the Frank Murphy building across the street from the C. C. Bush garage. The new place has a neat and attractive appearance and is equipped with modern machinery necessary to run an up-to-date market.

Mrs. Sarah Mason and son Walter of Portland were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Knarr on Sunday.

Fred Federspiel and family have moved to their new residence on the Columbia highway.

Mrs. Frances Fox and Mrs. Minnie Biedermann of Troutdale, Mrs. Suchel of Baker, Oregon, sister-in-law of the former and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox of Portland motored to California the first of the week, where they will visit relatives and friends for a few days.

Bert Barnes is building a new house on his lots on Troutdale Heights. It will be for rent when completed.

Mrs. George Parrish is visiting in Bend, Oregon, this week.

J. S. Hudson has moved the post-office into a room in the basement of the city hall which was temporarily fitted up for that purpose by the city council. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson have been running the postoffice in a very satisfactory way, under many difficulties since the fire, and their friends and patrons of the office will rejoice with them when they are permanently located.

Work has started on the H. C. McGinnis residence. Ralph Copeland has the contract.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spence, Mesdames Elizabeth Markell, Frances Tegart, L. A. Harlow, Thomas Low and H. E. Waite attended grand chapter O. E. S. in Portland on Tuesday.

Private Harold Hudson, son of Postmaster Hudson, in company with Sargent Cooper of Gresham, left Wednesday on Harold's new Harley Davidson motorcycle for the O. N. G. camp at Medford, Oregon, to be gone two weeks, when he will return and resume his work at Hudson's grain wholesale house in Portland.

Mabel and Ernest Boyle of Burrton, Kansas, are guests for the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Denison. They are niece and nephew of Mrs. Denison.

The annual school meeting will be held at the city hall on Monday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Myrtle Hoss of Portland has been engaged to teach the intermediate grades of the Troutdale school.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Scott on Wednesday afternoon, the president Mrs. C. I. Thomas, presiding. It was decided to take a vacation during the summer months, after which the society will be entertained by the members in alphabetical order, meeting with Mrs. Margaret Burns in September. Mrs. Mary Parsons and Mrs. Clarence Parsons assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

New Arrival at Sandy.
A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Revenue of Sandy on June 11. She has been named Arleatha Kathline.

POWELL VALLEY

"The Last Thing as Found in the Prophets", will be the basis of the Swedish Mission church Sunday sermon by the Rev. O. J. Wilner at the morning. A debate will be held by the young people in the evening beginning at 7 o'clock from the question, "Resolved that the pen has done more for Christian service than the tongue." The affirmative side of the question will be handled by Roy Johnson, Nettie Nelson and Anna Nordblom, while May Nelson, Anna Lind and Arthur Magnuson will speak on the negative side.

The picnic which was to have been held tomorrow at Mt. Tabor park has been postponed until a week from that date, June 20.

Mrs. J. A. Liedfors has been engaged for some time in the pleasant occupation of oil painting for a firm in Portland, returning to her home in Powell Valley for each week-end. Her work consists in painting parchment shades for electric lamps at which branch of oil work she is very adept.

The Luther League of the Lutheran church will give a strawberry social at the church Saturday evening, June 13, to which all are invited. The program will begin about 8 o'clock and the strawberries served immediately following.

Kelso Girl Wins Prize at U. of O.
Miss Eunice Jonsrud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jonsrud of Kelso near Sandy, was awarded the second prize, $15 in cash, in the Botsford-Constantine company's advertising contest held among the students of the University of Oregon's school of Journalism. Miss Jonsrud is a member of the graduating class, commencement exercises of which will be held at Eugene next Monday. Members of her immediate family are expected to be present at that time. She expects to teach for a year, after which she hopes to become engaged in some form of journalistic work.

COTTRELL

The Sunday school of the Cottrell community church will meet at 11 o'clock, followed by preaching at 11 by the Rev. Chester Cassel of Portland.

Word has been received by the brother of J. D. Splawn who, with his family, left for California several months ago that they have had the misfortune to lose their youngest child, a boy of four years of age who recently died at the hospital in Pomona, California, from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. The child was very sick for three weeks prior to his death.

Joe N. Jacobson, whose home was formerly in Brainerd, Minnesota, was married to Miss Mary Mickleson whose parents reside on the Tom Pitts place near the Crissey Gladiolus farm on Thursday afternoon at the parsonage of the Undenominational temple by the Rev. S. F. Pitts. A brother and sister of the bride witnessed the ceremony.

PLEASANT HOME

At the Pleasant Home Methodist church Sunday morning the Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock as usual, preceded by a choir rehearsal at 9:45. Children's Day services will begin at 11:15, with recitations, singing and an appropriate sermonette by the pastor who will speak on the subject of "The Keys of Life." The children are to be the guests of honor. The Epworth League will conduct the service at 8 p. m. which will be in the interest of young and old. The devotional meeting will be led by Harold Carlson.

A party in honor of Mrs. Ellen Chase was given at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. E. DeHaven, one day this week, when 12 guests were present to wish her happiness on the eve of her marriage to Walter Ford, of Merced, California. A beautiful oil painting of Mt Hood was presented to Mrs. Chase, who expects to leave on next Sunday for her future home. The wedding will take place in California.

Mrs. Agnes Walters, Herman and Beatrice have gone to Pilot Rock, Oregon, to visit with the former's brother, Will Rook. The Walters home is undergoing extensive remodeling.

BORING

At the Boring Methodist community church Sunday morning the worship hour is 9:45. The pastor will speak on the subject, "A Necessity None Can Escape."
