Mrs. Russell Akin complimented Miss Willa Bushong Tuesday afternoon at a Japanese tea party given at her home on Second street and Wallula avenue to a group of friends of the bride elect. The color scheme of the rooms was in orange and black and greenery with orange and yellow flowers formed the main decorations with the addition of Japanese lanterns and parasols. The guests were attired in kimonos and slippers and wore an ornamental head dress of immense pompons of paper chrysanthemums and also paper fans. They sat on cushions in true Japanese fashion as their hostess served them tea and Japanese cookies and cakes. The guest of honor was presented with a Westinghouse automatic electric iron, the gift of her friends.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hisey and daughter, Helen, in company with two other ministers and their families, left Wednesday to be gone until Saturday in a summer camp near Moro, Oregon.

The Rev. E. N. Long and wife left on Wednesday for Woodburn, where they will attend the conference of the Free Methodist church which convenes there the remainder of the week. Others are planning to attend the services on Saturday and Sunday. There will be Sunday school as usual at 10 o'clock the coming Sabbath under the direction of Miss Minnie Robertson, the superintendent.

Mrs. J. J. Wilson, lately employed as telephone operator at the local exchange, is ill at her home and unable to resume her work for the present.

Among the guests at the Hayes-Bushong wedding Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cathey, of Seattle, who are touring Oregon points on their honeymoon, being newlyweds themselves of but one day. They are visiting with their uncle, the Rev. D. M. Cathey and family and other relatives in Gresham and Portland. The bride is a daughter of Prof. Orin Tiffany, president of Seattle-Pacific College.

Miss Pearl Ruegg has returned home from California where she has been since last November. On her way from Los Angeles she stopped off at Fresno, Bakersfield and other points for short visits with relatives and friends.

Three Gresham students have been appointed to the Greater O. A. C. council as a special committee to look after Oregon Agricultural College interests in Gresham during the coming year. They are Melvin Brugger, chairman, George Lane and Glenn Mercer. The Greater O. A. C. council is composed of a chairman and two other representatives from every town of importance in the state. It is organized to carry out the work of the Greater O. A. C. committee in the various parts of the state, and to promote interest in the college among students and alumni.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shepherd of West Linn, Oregon, spent the day Thursday with Mrs. Mary McAllister and family. William McAllister returned on Sunday evening from Salem where he has been attending Willamette University. He will be employed during the summer at the cannery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nash and daughter, Mary Lois, have returned from a trip to Corvallis where they visited the mother of Mr. Nash. The elderly lady, who is past 83, made the 111-mile trip to Gresham by automobile with her son in one day and made no complaint of being fatigued. Previous to the trip to Corvallis Mr. and Mrs. Nash visited with the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Hayes, at Halsey, Oregon, who was ill. She is now on the way to recovery.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak and Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Brooks and daughter enjoyed a trip to Vernonia and Hillsboro Sunday. The doctor and Mrs. Peak expect to have the pleasure in the near future of entertaining the former's nephew, Commander R. B. Coffey of the battleship "Savannah", which is returning from a cruise of the Philippines. Commander Coffey will visit the rose festival while off duty. It will be remembered he spent several days here in August at which time he was the commanding officer on the "Arizona."

A. F. Johnson, who lives just outside the city limits on south Roberts avenue, was taken to Emanuel hospital Wednesday morning where he will remain for some time for X-ray examination and possible treatment.

The southeast circle of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church will have a picnic next Thursday, June 18, on the grounds at C. E. Jackson's. They will meet at noon there and other circles of the Aid are invited to participate. Ladies are requested to bring lunch, plate, cup, etc.

Gresham Chapter Order of Eastern Star was honored during the session of the grand chapter which closed on Thursday evening in Portland. C. G. Schneider, worthy patron of the chapter, gave an address on the flag at the opening session on Tuesday, and Mrs. U. G. Smith, past worthy matron, was appointed grand Electa for the ensuing year. Mrs. Smith was installed at the closing session. She was presented with many beautiful flowers by her friends of the Gresham chapter on that occasion. Memorial services were held for the late Judge George W. Stapleton, past grand patron, who was also a past worthy patron of the Gresham chapter.

Mrs. R. C. Lessard and little daughter, Lila May, of Portland visited yesterday with Mrs. Lessard's father, Van Benthusen.

E. W. Aylsworth, Walter Metzger and W. J. Todd were delegates from the Masonic lodge in Gresham to the grand lodge of Oregon which concludes a three-day convention in Portland today.

FLAG DAY

The American Flag represents our nation and all that lies within its borders. It represents the American people. What we are—it is.

There are 110,000,000 threads in that flag. One of them represents you. Is it a strong and firm thread or is it weak and unable to stand a real strain—depending for strength on those about it.

An account at the First State Bank will help make the thread in the American Flag that represents you one of strength and security.

Emblematic of financial freedom and able to stand the storms of life without breaking, fading or growing tattered.

FIRST STATE BANK

A STRONG BANK

An unusually fine program of music was given at the Methodist Episcopal church last Friday evening, when Miss Frieda Bratzel presented her piano pupils in recital. The program was well arranged and the pupils played in a manner which was a credit to themselves and their teacher. W. D. Kinder assisted on the program, giving two fine violin numbers.

Ed. Smith, the veterinarian whose home is on Main street, is critically ill at the home of acquaintances on Yamhill street in Portland where he has been for nearly two weeks. He was taken to the hospital when first stricken with an attack of heart failure caused by intestinal hemorrhages, but was soon removed from that place to be cared for at a private home. Friends of Mrs. Smith, who is blind, took her to his bedside on Thursday.

Mrs. Anna Jenner of Corvallis is visiting at the home of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Jenner. Recent guests at the Jenner home were also the mother of Mrs. Jenner, Mrs. Frank Lines of Albany and the latter's sister, Mrs. W. C. Hawley, of Washington, D. C., wife of United States Representative Hawley, who with his wife is spending the summer in Salem.
