

ROSE FESTIVAL IS WEEK'S ATTRACTION

This is THE week. The Rose is IT. Portland is host and you are all invited. Sure, Mayor Baker, we'll all be there.

The following invitation, addressed to the Commercial club is intended for all:

"The City of Portland, the Royal Rosarians and the Portland Rose Festival extend the people of your community a most cordial invitation to attend the Portland Rose Festival, Portland's municipal celebration. We particularly desire the participation of your community in the Floral Parade on June 18 and the Merrykhana festivities and parade on June 19.

"It is our purpose to maintain the Floral parade as America's foremost display of natural blossoms, believing it to be one of Oregon's greatest attractions and worthy of the support and participation of every community in the whole state. With this idea in view, we particularly urge your community to be represented by a float and a band.

"The Merrykhana festivities will be held on Multnomah Field on June 19, followed immediately by the Merrykhana parade, which will be one of the most colorful spectacles of the week.

"The crowning feature of the 1925 Rose Festival, the wonderful pageant 'Rosaria,' symbolizing the influence of the rose in the upward progress of mankind, will be produced each night from June 15 to 19, inclusive, in the great amphitheater of Multnomah Field, with all the beautiful symbolism and grandeur of pageantry which the best artistic effort of a united community can give.

"May I again extend to you and your community our earnest wish that you join with us in this great Festival of Oregon and the Northwest?"

Signed, GEO. L. BAKER,
Chairman General Committee on Outside Participation.

SAUL, KING OF ISRAEL IS RELIGIOUS PAGEANT

The Biblical pageant, Saul, King of Israel, which will be produced on the fair grounds Sunday evening, July 5, under directorship of Adah Losh Rose, is thoroughly religious in sentiment and will appeal favorably to the most Christian person, is the statement of those who have this superb event in charge.

It has been planned with all due respect for those who would witness an appropriate spectacle which will entertain and at the same time instruct and impress the mind with conditions and facts of an important period of Biblical history.

All this was taken into consideration, says Mr. Dobell, when the arrangement was made for the four-day celebration to begin on July 4 and it was stipulated the Sunday evening pageant should be of a religious nature. Saul, King of Israel, is not only spectacular but magnificent in its presentation with gorgeous music and costumes and the director wishes everyone to realize that this production is a beautiful outdoor sermon.

Instruction Given Growers on Picking and Packing

Management of Berry Growers Gives Latest and Best Thoughts on Harvesting the Berry Crop and Preparing for Shipment.

It will be absolutely necessary for the grower to learn what No. 1 berries are and to have the pickers know also, and grade the berries in picking, or we will be swamped with low grade berries. In delivering at the cannery keep your crates of No. 1 berries separate from the No. 2s and have them weighed separately and the grade noted on the scale tickets. This applies to both logans and raspberries and logan growers must not pick the berries at the bright red or green stage. This is very important, so do the best you can to instruct your pickers and then follow up and see that they do good work, and when the berries are delivered at your berry shed you should put the different grades into separate crates, one for barreling and one for canning.

The writer thinks if we do this field sorting, and we must do it, it will pay us well. So please make the effort of your lives, as the future success of our business depends on the one thing—growing and delivering berries of good canning and shipping quality. This will require team work. Every picker a worker and every worker trained.

NEW PLAN PROPOSED FOR DANCE AND ROAD HOUSES

New Road House and Dance Hall Law Proposed.

A campaign has been inaugurated by the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon to secure sufficient signatures to an initiative petition to place upon the ballot at the next general election a new road house and dance hall law.

The leaders of the movement claim that this was made necessary by the decision of Judge Skipworth who ruled in a Multnomah county road house case that road houses, though they permit dancing, do not come under the definition of the present dance hall law and that the present dance hall law does not meet the situation.

W. J. Herwig, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, has issued the following statement:

"It is conservatively estimated that not less than 5000 young people are to be found in the dance halls and road houses in the state on any Saturday night. On account of the auto and good roads this evil is growing to an alarming extent. They are to be found mainly in country districts away from police protection. If we permit these places of iniquity to grow they will soon become an organized power in the state.

"A very large portion of these places are fostered by and are the rendezvous for bootleggers and moonshiners. The moral atmosphere and influence of these places is decidedly bad and corrupting.

"The Anti-Saloon League plans to place upon our statute books the strongest possible road house and dance hall law. This we will do by way of the initiative, placing the law on the ballot in the next general election. We believe the moral forces of the state are ready to support the strongest law that can be written. We are asking all organizations to cooperate in securing the necessary names for the petition. It is our plan to not only secure the required number but many thousand additional names. We are asking for 300 volunteers and anyone wishing to secure names may apply to the Anti-Saloon League, 1024 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Portland."

A new definition of a dance hall which will also cover road houses will be incorporated in the measure, which will also provide for license for such places and the giving of a $500 bond that they will be conducted in an orderly manner.

Application for license shall be signed by sheriff stating that the applicant is a person of good moral character and fit to conduct such a place. This makes the sheriff responsible for every license issued. License fees will be materially increased, if the measure carries as drafted.

Helpers Wanted for Pageant Performances.

Adah Losh Rose, who is training hundreds of performers for the series of pageants to be given at the Gresham fair grounds on the evenings of July 4, 5, 6 and 7, has issued a call for more helpers. She wants children up to the age of 15 and older young ladies as well. These are needed for the patriotic pageant on the Fourth, "Saul, King of Israel" on July 5, and the Mardi Gras on July 7. All who will help are asked to meet at the city hall, Gresham, on Wednesday, June 17, at 2 o'clock.

going applies with the same force to those who are picking for the shipping trade. And it is every member's duty to pick for this trade until it is supplied, when we may conclude to pick principally for the barrel trade and if we do we hope to pick the raspberries at 2 3/4c per pound, in fact more, as any soft, low grade berries will be a complete loss if shipped, with heavy expense added. So you must be very watchful and you should keep a supply of cannery crates on hand and while you may use the 5 1/2 inch hallock which fit your carriers to pick in, you will need to transfer the soft berries from these to cannery hallocks for barreling, and if the large hallocks are badly stained, do not use them again. If the shipping crates you are getting are wet and heavy please dry them out thoroughly and store where they will be kept dry until used.

In putting on the covers always put on the strips or cleats. Use only four nails in the outside corners and stamp your number on both ends.

In nailing on the crate covers put them on a level firm base and do not pound too much in driving the nails as it jars the berries and will spoil them. D. E. TOWLE.

GRESHAM CHURCH HAS CHANGE OF PASTORS

The Rev. W. T. Klotzbach of Portland was assigned to the pastorate of the Free Methodist church at Gresham for the coming year by the annual conference which convened at Woodburn, Oregon, during the past week. For the past three years Mr. Klotzbach has been the district elder for the Portland district, which included Gresham, and previous to that was a traveling evangelist. He is regarded as an interesting speaker and an able exponent of the scriptures. The Rev. E. N. Long, who has been the pastor of the church for the past year and a half, and who recently resigned the work, will probably return to his former home in Kansas to assist in the care of his parents who are in declining health. Mr. Klotzbach is expected to move his family from Portland into the parsonage here during the week. The Rev. W. N. Coffee, of Salem, was elected as district elder of the Willamette Valley district which includes the Gresham circuit. The Gresham Junior Missionary society, under the superintendency of Mrs. P. F. Black, was awarded a first prize of $2.50 for having the best notebook on China of the various junior societies throughout the conference.

ART DEPARTMENT HEAD PLANS FOR STATE FAIR

Mrs. U. G. Smith, of Linnemann, superintendent of the state fair art department, was summoned to Salem by telephone by Mrs. Ella Wilson, secretary of the state fair board, and on Monday she went up for the purpose of overseeing the arranging of the lighting equipment of the building that houses the art department which is to have a much larger room than that formerly occupied and one that is fireproof. Mrs. Smith is most enthusiastic over the prospect for this year's exhibit at the state fair and also for that of the coming Multnomah county fair to be held at Gresham. She states that many wonderful things have been promised for the county fair—a number of new things and from new artists, some of which are articles that won a first prize at last year's state fair.

Mrs. Smith says that among other changes will have taken place at the Salem state fair grounds is the installing of a new sewer system. This was a much needed improvement and will add greatly to the reputation of the premises. One large new building is being erected which will be the sleeping quarters for the boys' and girls' clubs. The old textile department will be devoted to the display of silver foxes and will be moved to the rear, while the textiles will be located in new quarters.

MT. HOOD LOOP ROAD WILL SOON BE OPEN

According to an announcement recently received from the office of C. H. Purcell, district engineer for the federal bureau of public roads, the Mt. Hood loop highway will be thrown open to travel by the last Sunday in June if conditions are as favorable as at present. The state highway commission is making tentative plans to oil the macadamized portion of the road between Hood River and Parkdale on the east slope of the mountain and between Orient and a point near Rhododendron on the west. As there is no appropriation from the government for oiling the highway, the 40-mile stretch running through the national forest will go unopened unless done so at public expense. Multnomah county will probably take care of the oiling of the road between Gresham and Orient.

The traffic over the week-end has assumed such proportions in Sandy that it has been considered necessary to station a specially-appointed officer there to take care of the traffic during the tourist season at least. The officer has announced that speeders will be summarily dealt with and violations of the law will not be tolerated. The highway between Gresham and the county line is in fine condition, having recently received a new coating of oil.

He first lived in Minnesota, moving later to Iowa, and came to Oregon in 1889, living at Pleasant Home until 1920 when he moved to the Pleasant Valley locality where he has since resided with his wife on a small ranch. Grite-Wadsworth Wedding Celebrated.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pitts, pastor of the Undenominational temple, officiating. The bride was attired in white flannel and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. She attended the grade school in Gresham, afterwards graduating from the Girls' Polytechnic in Portland. The groom is employed as a druggist for the Powers & Estes drug firm in Portland.
