RAISING TROUT AS A BUSINESS

The Outlook acknowledges the recent call at the office of I. M. Higley, proprietor of the Hyde-a-Wyle Fruit and Trout farm of Salt Lake City. Mr. Higley was a returning Shriner and in Portland was the guest of an old friend, Marcus Holling. When the two called the other day they were on their way to Wasco, to attend the wedding of Mr. Holling's son Claudius and Miss Hazel C. Watkins which took place last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Kaseberg.

Mr. Higley carries on quite a peculiar business, that of raising trout. He has 50 cement ponds, constructed on a hillside and supplied with running water, where he is developing a million and a quarter trout. Among his three or four customers is the Union Pacific System which is supplied daily with thousands of trout for its dining car and hotel service.

Loop Road Is Open.

The Mt. Hood Loop road is now open to travel around the mountain so that it is possible to go through from Government Camp to Hood River. The snow has been unusually heavy in the mountains and the opening of the new road has been delayed on that account. This will be a very popular drive.

Welches District for Union.

At the school election the Welches district voted unanimously to join the Sandy Union high school district, which will increase the valuation of the union district $179,319. Brightwood voted down the proposition. A. C. Baumbach was re-elected director for the Sandy Union high school, receiving the unanimous vote of the 10 districts. E. F. Bruns is the incoming director for the Sandy grade school, and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, Clerk.

Crystal Wedding Celebrated.

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Miller gave them a pleasant surprise on Tuesday evening, June 16, when they came laden with mysterious packages prepared to spend the evening. The occasion was the 15th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. A pleasant evening was spent and delicious refreshments were served. When the party broke up the guests left a beautiful glass water set and wishes for many more happy years of wedded life.

Here is the answer to the puzzle in the last issue of the Outlook. How many got it right?

Cross Word Puzzle Answers. Six answers to last Tuesday's cross word puzzle were submitted to the Outlook up to Friday noon. It was expected that at least 50 answers would be sent in, but perhaps the busy season has prevented others from solving the puzzle.

Principal and Interest--Lost

"$500,000,000 is lost annually in the United States through speculation," says Mr. Mellon, secretary of the treasury.

In an effort to win wealth quickly these investors took chances and lost--both principal and interest.

They know the bitter meaning of misfortune
