GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Alta Gentry has returned from Salem where she has been attending Kimball School of Theology and is employed at her old job in the office of the Berry Growers Packing company, trying to distribute berry pickers who apply to the various berry fields to the best advantage to all.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie have returned from Seaside where they spent the past five weeks in their beach cottage.

Mrs. R. E. Myers and son Elmer have moved to Gresham for the summer and are occupying rooms in the Hengstler house on Roberts and Fourth. Elmer is engaged at the cannery.

A note from Miss E. E. Johnson, Gresham postmaster, tells that she is having a visit with her sister and family in Denver, Colorado. The most of her vacation will be spent in an auto tour through the mountain parks and the San Luis valley. She expects to be home in about a week.

Members of the Rebekah lodge are planning for an interesting session on Monday evening, June 22, when Miss Myrta James of Newport, Ore., president of the Rebekah Assembly, will make her official visit. An after meeting and entertainment will be held and refreshments will be served. A full attendance of members is expected.

Mrs. Fannie Shipley, her son Earl and his wife of Grass Valley have been the guests for several days of her brother-in-law, A. W. Shipley and family.

Miss Winifred St. Clair went to Salem today to attend the wedding of Miss Lorleigh Blatchford, a college friend.

Mrs. C. O. Horning and daughter Elizabeth expect to start Saturday morning for California, where Miss Elizabeth expects to study music in the University of Southern California during the summer.

Mrs. Jackson F. Jones is spending the day at Oswego visiting with relatives.

Russell M. Tillman has moved his family from Powell Valley to a house on the W. H. Gibson farm where Mr. Tillman is employed to assist with the dairy work.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. E. Jackson on Wednesday, June 24. All wishing to go will meet at the church at 2:15, where transportation will be provided. Families and friends are invited. A picnic supper will be enjoyed at 6 o'clock. All ladies attending are asked to bring well-filled baskets and the necessary dishes. The Aid will furnish coffee. Anyone who can furnish transportation is asked to report to Dr. C. W. Huett at the parsonage.

Mrs. W. W. Letson and family of week of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilkinson.

H. E. Thayer has leased the old starch factory and is fitting it up for receiving shed and office for his fruit buying business. He will increase the size of the unloading platform to expedite the work of handling the berries and other fruit. Mr. Thayer reports largely increased contracts for both raspberries and logan berries over last year and expects to keep three or four trucks busy hauling at night what was brought in during the day.

Mrs. Adah Losh Rose met with the girls who are to assist in the series of parents here on July 4, 5, 6 and 7, and has appointed the following committees to assist in interesting other girls in the project: Leona Bailey, Hazel Bunting Cathryn Metzger and Doris Brown for the older girls and Elizabeth Thom for the younger girls.

The recent death of Mrs. Maria Hamilton, oldest member of the Montavilla Methodist Episcopal church, is recorded in the current number of the Pacific Christian Advocate, which says that Mrs. Hamilton was 90 years old and had been a Methodist for 70 years. She was a former resident of this vicinity, having lived with her husband in the Lusted district for a number of years. Several sons and grandsons and their families were residents of Gresham and vicinity.
