GRESHAM LOCALS

Frank Jones returned Saturday night from Dundee, where he has been doing carpenter work on the buildings of C. W. Altman, on his fine general farm, which Jones says is one of the best in the state. C. E. Jackson is going to apply two coats of paint to the house and barns and other farm buildings.

Guests at the H. W. Strong home are Mrs. H. C. Brown and daughters, the Misses Betty and Frances, and son Norton, and Miss Caroline Peirce, all of Stanford, California. Miss Frances and Norton Brown will remain during the berry harvest.

Mrs. Mary E. Welch, Claude and Grace, are spending a few days in Seattle with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair and children, Leslie Junior and Betty Ruth, drove to Seattle Saturday for a vacation trip and a visit with relatives. They expect to be away all this week.

Miss Mabel Wood, who recently graduated from O. A. C. with the highest honors earned in her department, is employed on the Home Demonstration staff of the University of California, at Berkeley. Until August her duties will consist of attending conventions at various places throughout the state.

Among Gresham people who are attending the University of Oregon summer school in Portland are Roy E. Cannon, Miss Mabel Inglis, Miss Helen Hoss and Joe Peak. Miss Burgeois of Springdale, teacher in the Fairview school, is also attending.

Mrs. H. M. Shaw is spending the week in Portland with her son, Grant Shaw and family.

A son, Richard Earl, was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Springer of Aberdeen, Washington, on June 12. Mrs. Springer will be remembered as Miss Addie Quesinberry before her marriage.

Mrs. J. R. Robinson has returned from Walla Walla, Washington, where she attended a convention and visited with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Taylor have returned to Gresham after two years' absence. They have been on the Dammier farm on 82d street. Mr. Taylor expects work at the pickle factory when the cucumbers begin coming in. In the meantime he and Mrs. Taylor will work in the Gibson berry field.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilkinson left Monday afternoon for Marmot, where Mr. Wilkinson has charge of the Little Sandy ranger station. They expect to be away about four months.

Mrs. W. C. Burch has returned from Roseburg where she spent the past week caring for her grandchildren while their parents attended the American Legion convention at Prineville.

On last Sunday afternoon a number of members and friends of the Free Methodist, under the leadership of their pastor, the Rev. W. T. Klotzbach, held a pleasant and profitable religious service in the beautiful grove adjoining the Strong berry ranch. About 150 persons were present. The interest was good and the singing fine. Mr. Strong has granted the use of the grove for further services to be held during the berry season, on Tuesday evening at 7:30 and on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. All are welcome to attend these inspirational open air services.

E. F. Hogmer of New York City, formerly of Portland, has arrived to attend the Elks national convention and was a caller at the Outlook one day this week. He drove across country in a Ford and his was the first car to register for the convention coming from a distance. Mr. Hogmer was active in organizing the Sandy Creamery company 14 years ago and is acquainted with many in this vicinity.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Gresham Free Methodist church will meet at the parsonage Wednesday, July 1, at 2 in the afternoon, when the officers for the ensuing year will be elected. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Jenner have gone to Medford to attend a convention of Smith-Hughes teachers. After the convention they will visit in Aetne, California, and will return to Gresham about July 15 to arrange for their moving to Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thompson had a Sunday dinner guests, Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hisey and daughter Helen, Mrs. Ava Edwards of Portland, and Lloyd Long, grandson of the Thompsons, who is spending the summer here.

Ten representatives of the fair board made the trip by auto to Prineville last Friday where they "took in" some of the festivities in connection with the Legion convention and helped to make the Multnomah county fair better known. They returned Saturday by way of the Mackenzie pass, stopping a few hours in Salem for the big Woodmen picnic, and arrived home late Saturday evening. They saw some new thrills they hope to book for this year's fair.

Mrs. F. E. Doscher and two children of Boise, Idaho, are visiting with her brother, W. R. Johnson and family. They drove through easily in two days and reported splendid roads and a fine trip. Other recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were the latter's uncle, Prof. Joseph Schafers and wife of Madison, Wisconsin. Professor Schafers is on the faculty of the summer school being held in Portland by the University of Oregon extension. He was for 18 years professor of history in the University of Oregon but is now at the head of the historical library in Madison.

Miss Sara Dotson and Miss Emma B. Johnson spent the week-end at Astoria and Seaside.

An unusually interesting session of Gresham lodge of Odd Fellows will be held on Thursday evening, July 2. Villa lodge of Montavilla will be present and put on the degree work. A large attendance of members of the local lodge and visiting members is expected.

B. W. Thorne's new residence on his property at the end of Wilson avenue in Wallula Heights is well under way. The house will have five rooms and bath on the first floor, and two rooms in the second story to be finished later. It has a full basement. The exterior will be finished with red cedar siding. Chas. G. Witter is the carpenter in charge of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence have returned from Manzanita where they spent a short honeymoon trip and are at their new place on Lawrence street which is nearly completed.

George Page, who has been laid up with rheumatism for the past three weeks, is able to sit up a part of the time. During his absence C. M. Quicksall is assisting at the 12-mile store.
