GRESHAM LOCALS

The Catholic parish house has been undergoing a number of important repairs during the past few weeks in charge of Earl Boice, assisted by A. E. Maio. The back part of the roof has been raised and a new gable constructed across, the outside and roof re-shingled, a new porch constructed on the front and screened in, ceilings raised on the interior and a side entrance made on the west. The house has been newly painted a steel gray with white trimmings. New steps have also been constructed at the church with a concrete foundation under them and platform and railing added to the west side of the building.

The music recital given at the newly-enlarged jewelry store of Guy Jones on Friday evening was well attended and many words of praise were heard for the fine new Ampico which was so ably demonstrated by professional artists from Portland. A violinist, pianist and soloist were out from the city and gave a number of pleasing numbers. Dr. H. H. Ott played the euphonium to the accompaniment of the Ampico.

Miss Winnifred Osburn was the hostess Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Floyd Mack to about a dozen of the officers of the Rebekah lodge. As this was Hoot Owl night over the popular broadcasting station of KGW, the party did not lack for mirthful entertainment. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Laura Mell has opened the Radio lunch stand on the Ivy corner next to the Radio Electric company. She has drinks and various articles of lunch for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Munson of Long Beach, California, were in Gresham several days last week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squire, who are related to them by marriage. They were on their way home from Alaska where they have spent a short time. They describe the interior of Alaska as very uninteresting, with the possible exception of Fairbanks, and their wonderful mountain scenery is nowhere surpassed by the scenery of the Mt. Hood loop. There is an abundance of mosquitos and the drinking water is very poor. They describe the climate of Alaska as very similar to that of Oregon.

Fred Fieldhouse is at Manzanita beach where he is enjoying the sea air and incidentally transacting a little business. Emil Kardell, well known to many in Gresham, is planning on enlarging his store building at the beach and Mr. Fieldhouse is engaged in drawing up the plans for the addition. John Fieldhouse, father of Fred, recently celebrated his 84th birthday at Manzanita.

Mrs. Ida Hinshaw, after visiting for several weeks with her brother, J. A. Bushong and her sister, Mrs. M. V. Whetzell of Gresham and other relatives in Portland, Vancouver and other places nearby, has left for her home in Caldwell, Idaho.

The Rev. and Mrs. David Cathey entertained the former's cousin, Orris Kramer, wife and daughter, Miss Margaret Kramer recently. They were here from Los Angeles in attendance at the big international Christian Endeavor convention. Miss Kramer is the president of a Congregational church in Los Angeles.

Virgil Howell left early Friday morning for Siletz, Oregon, where he will attend the Lincoln County Sunday school association, of which he is the president. From Siletz he is planning to go to Yachats for a rest of two weeks. Mr. Howell is still in a weakened condition from the effects of his recent severe illness.

Mrs. Mary Salki is having a three-room semi-modern cottage erected near the Salki home in east Gresham on their 7-acre tract. L. N. Waldron is in charge of the construction work of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Boswell and the latter's parents, A. H. Fair and wife of Portland made a trip of 223 miles Tuesday over the Mt. Hood loop highway driving four miles beyond The Dalles. They ate their lunch at the municipal camp grounds at The Dalles and had supper at Bonneville.

N. L. Horr is assisting at the Ivy Service station for a short time. The station remains open now until midnight and opens again for business at 4 a. m.

J. F. Whetstone, well known realtor of this place, has had the honor conferred upon him of being elected a delegate to the Elks national grand lodge meeting which is convening in Portland this week from Mr. Whetstone's home lodge at Dickenson, North Dakota. Another delegate, a Mr. Peterson, is here from Dickenson and is being entertained at the Whetstone home during his attendance at the convention. Mr. Whetstone has been away from his home town for several years, but has retained his membership in the lodge at that place. This is the second time he has represented his organization, having been a delegate to the convention which met in Portland in 1912.

What might have been an accident occurred Saturday evening about 5 o'clock when a Ford became stalled on the Main street crossing just as the 4:50 train of the Mt. Hood line was approaching from Portland. Two ladies were the sole occupants of the machine and it did not take them long to decide what to do. Hastily jumping out of the car they each lent a hand and pushed the obdurate Lizzie out of the way as the streetcar whizzed past. It is hardly known whether or not the electric car had time to stop, but the fact that it did not stop seemed to be proof that there was not sufficient length for it to come to a standstill.

Ben Mathews has disposed of his merchandise stock in what was formerly the Cady store at Fairview and has returned with his family to Gresham. Mrs. Elsie Langley and son of Portland have purchased his holdings from him.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rose of Chicago, the latter a sister of Mrs. Alfred Blom, spent a few days the first of the week at the Blom home. They were here to attend the Baptist church convention at Seattle and have also been visiting a son in Montana. They left yesterday for their home in Chicago.

Miss Gladys Bunting visited this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Harry Bunting at Forest Grove.

Mrs. J. H. Metzger very hospitably entertained the members of the Gresham band Tuesday evening at the conclusion of their regular practice in Metzger hall. Tables were arranged on the lawn which was prettily lighted and ice cream and cake were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Cecil Metzger and daughter and Mrs. Nellie Gullickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Natha Gruge and son Norman from Big Sandy dam, spent Sunday with Mrs. Gruge's sister, Mrs. F. J. Bechill. Fred Bechill, who has not been very well for several weeks past, is spending his vacation at the home of his uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gibbs and daughter Phyllis left for Ione, Oregon, Saturday where Mr. Gibbs expects to be employed in the harvest fields until fall.
