GRESHAM LOCALS

Word received from Mrs. H. L. St. Clair, who has been on a short vacation visit to San Francisco, states that she is on her way home and is expected to arrive on Thursday of this week. She writes that at Denair, where she visited last week it was 107 in the shade and at 5 o'clock in the morning it was 105 degrees. That isn't much like this part of Oregon and one might well wish for the cool nights and refreshing breezes of this section.

Miss Florence Tain of Duluth, Minnesota, who has been a visitor in San Diego and also in Portland during a tour of the west, called for a friendly chat with Miss Martha Hagberg at the Bank of Gresham Monday evening. They had been childhood friends in Duluth when the Hagberg family resided there.

A. G. Cushman and wife, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Marion Johnson, with their three children, Laura, Arthur and Elizabeth, have been guests at the Johnson home for the past ten days. Mr. Cushman and daughter, Laura, left Monday morning by auto for Oakland, California, but Mrs. Cushman and the other two children will remain for a few weeks longer with their relatives. Other guests over the week-end with Mrs. Johnson and Miss Elizabeth Johnson were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kearns and children Billie, Bettie, Mary Kathryn, Pauline and John of Corvallis. Mr. Kearns is director of physical education at the Oregon Agricultural College.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Gresham American Legion will hold a bake sale at A. W. Metzger's store on Saturday, July 25, at 1 o'clock.

The ladies of the local W. C. T. U. organization are planning for a novel way of raising funds for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, the orphanage which is under the supervision of the Oregon unit. At the coming Multnomah county fair they expect to have present in their booth "The Woman with a Hundred Pockets" who will have concealed in those pockets parcels of varying shapes and sizes which will be sold to the public. Contributions of articles from 10c to 25c in value will be gratefully received from members and their friends for use in this enterprise. The ladies are hoping for a generous response to this appeal. The donations can be left at the Walrad Mercantile store.

A number of Gresham citizens have been driving new machines during the past week or so, among them being M. M. Squire with a brand new Willys-Knight touring, L. B. Baketel and the proprietor of the Suhr Flower farm, who each have purchased an Overland Six, also Elton Eastman, Dawson Smith and Harold Oberg are the proud possessors of new Chryslers, all purchased through the Hessel Implement company.

Jesse Thomas is here from his home at Hood River as a new assistant at the Twentieth Century grocery. His brother, L. M. Thomas, was formerly employed in the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Slumbers of Portland were the guests Monday of Miss Mary Canny.

Emma B. Johnson was in Portland Sunday to meet Mrs. John Barker, formerly Miss Esther Eiford of Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. Barker and two children, with Mrs. Barker's father and mother, came by auto from their home in Long Beach, California, for a visit with relatives in Portland. Miss Johnson was a guest at a picnic dinner at Laurelhurst park on Sunday, given in honor of the California visitors.

The luncheon to be given by the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church tomorrow evening on the parsonage lawn will not be postponed in the event of rain, but the affair will take place in the basement of the church if the weather is not favorable.

OH BABY!

Jolly Trixie holds down the "Fat" portion of the attraction with the Levitt-Brown-Huggins shows, entitled "Tall, Small and Fat." Miss Trixie is perfectly competent to hold it down as she tips the scales at exactly 412 pounds, standard avoirdupois measure. She will be seen at the Multnomah county fair during the week of July 28.

C. E. Rusher is having the upper part of his house remodeled, additional room being provided and the roof changed so as to conform to the lines of a bungalow. Mrs. Rusher, who has been ill, is in Oregon City with her two small daughters, Irene and Florence, visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Lansdowne, during the progress of the alterations.

W. A. Hessel, Dr. H. H. Ott and Traffic Officer Rexford are enjoying a few days' fishing trip up beyond Albany, Oregon.

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. T. McKinney were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Westergren and John Peterson and son, Ernest, of Helena, Montana. The Westergrens, who are retired merchants, are returning to their home from an extended trip down the coast as far south as Mexico. They were friends of the McKinneys in Montana before the latter came to Oregon.

Harvey Bennison is visiting at the home of his father, S. J. Bennison, this week. He has been working with a crew of timber estimators near Ashland, Oregon, for some time past.

The recent concerts, which have been given on the streets of Gresham by the local band, are to continue on each Wednesday evening for probably the next two months.

Mr. and Mrs. George Healey and baby and Mr. and Mrs. J. Laird were here from Rolla, North Dakota, from Monday until Friday as the guests of Mrs. Anna Full at the residence of C. H. Lane. The ladies were girlhood friends of Mrs. Full. The members of the Healey family were on their way to Long Beach to reside, but the Laird's were on a vacation trip and began the return trip to North Dakota Friday.

Frank Metzger and daughter, Miss Mildred Metzger, her two cousins, Lola and Clara Lingle of Damascus, and Charles A. Coe enjoyed a trip over the Mount Hood loop highway on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wertz and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wertz were Sunday callers from Portland at the home of Mrs. C. Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning left Sunday to accompany their son Lafe and wife who will attend the Spanish-American war veterans' state convention to convene at Port Orford, Oregon, July 23-25. Lafe Manning being a state officer of the veterans' organization. The Mannings will tour around a bit, visiting Marshfield, Bandon and other coast points. Mrs. Manning's brother, L. C. Sherwood, wife and daughter Eva of Los Angeles, will occupy the Manning home in Gresham during their absence on ten days.

The Rev. and Mrs. John Parsons, their two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Parsons and Mrs. John Parsons of Seattle, also their daughter, Mrs. Nellie Lounsberry from Iowa, who is spending the summer with her parents, enjoyed a dinner party Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts, the latter being a sister of Mrs. John Parsons, Sr. Miss Alice Roberts will accompany the Parsons families to Salem tomorrow where they will spend the day, the Rev. Mr. Parsons being a former pastor in that city and Mrs. Lounsberry having many acquaintances there.

Mrs. John Ferguson of New York, president of the Council of Women for home missions, is to speak Wednesday evening, July 22, in the central library of Portland and extends a cordial invitation to all church women and their friends of Gresham to attend.

Joe Pateneau left this morning on a vacation trip including travel over the Roosevelt highway, possibly as far as northern California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. King and two children, Anita and Donald, of Bellingham, Washington, have been guests at the home of Paul Stone for several days. The two families are distantly related. They will also visit while here with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McMurry. Mr. King is a customs inspector in the Washington city and he and family who have been spending their vacation at Crater Lake and exploring the Oregon caves are now on the return trip to Bellingham. They report some wonderful scenery in southern Oregon.

Francis Drickes and Glen Dann of Long Prairie, Minnesota, are making an auto tour of the northwest and incidentally working their way as they go. They brought letters of introduction to the Outlook from the Hart Printing company at Long Prairie, where the son-in-law of H. L. St. Clair, Benjamin Davies, is employed and will probably help out in the Outlook office as pressman and printer as the occasion requires.

Miss Frieda Ramser, lately employed by the Oregon Pickle & Canning company as stenographer and office assistant, has gone to Tacoma and her place in the office is being filled by Miss Grace Stigler.
