GRESHAM LOCALS

Girls, decked out in red, white and blue costumes, were giving Gresham citizens a chance yesterday to help Grandma's kitchen. This is an institution in Portland where destitute people are fed. Seven months' last year 24,639 meals were served absolutely free. In fact, no meals are charged for at any time. This is a charity with no strings except Grandma's. Mrs. Ida Man's, apron strings to which many hungry men and women and children have been tied in grateful appreciation.

John Crow of Hillsboro, who plays the bass drum in the old veterans' fife and drum corps at the fair, while in Gresham this week is spending the time when not engaged in playing at the home of his cousin, George Duncan. He is 78 years of age but can play like he did 60 years ago.

Mrs. L. E. Johnston, assisted by Miss Alice Johnston and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Melvin Johnston, entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of her cousins, Judge and Mrs. W. A. Ekwall, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Morton, Miss Ruth Young, her sister Mrs. Bertha Flesler and son Valentine and Mrs. Emma Koethe, all of Portland.

Philip Hepp spent a pleasant day with his mother, Mrs. Ida Hepp of Portland Thursday when she came out for a day at the fair. Mrs. Hepp is the manager of the Sellwood branch of the Hepp Racket store.

Mrs. Louise Blair and daughter "Dollie," Mrs. C. W. Dolan, of Portland, former residents of Pleasant Valley, were fair visitors today and callers at the Outlook office.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland are entertaining as their house guests this week Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Cleveland and two children, Howard and Virginia of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cleveland and daughters, Eleanor and Alice Helen of Stanfield, Oregon, and two Portland friends, Mrs. Nellie Leyman and Mrs. Horace Lilly.

Mrs. Eleanor Boughner is moving into her new home in Lawrence addition from the rooms which she has occupied over the Todd paint shop for the past year.

Horace Wilhon has gone up to Roosevelt, Washington, for a stay of several weeks at the James Berney ranch. Mr. Berney, whose home is at Springdale, has a large ranch there and spends the summer there looking after its interests.

Mrs. Fannie Wells, John Wells and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richardson left this morning for a week's recreation at Seaside.

Sylvia and Vivian Clinefelter, nieces of Mrs. A. W. Shipley, are here for the week to visit their aunt and family and attend the fair.

According to word received by Dr. and Mrs. A. Thompson their son, Fred and wife who have been in Europe for several months past, landed at New York Saturday on the return trip and within a month expect to be in Gresham for a short stay before going to their home at The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ruegg and O. I. Neal enjoyed a week's outing at the various beach resorts between Newport and Seaside. While at Manzanita they called on John Fieldhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kardell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McKinney and daughter of Milwaukie, Oregon, are visiting with the latter's sister, Mrs. Mary Holgate. They have just returned from a trip to New Mexico and California and are on their way to eastern Oregon where Mr. McKinney will engage in work in the harvest fields.

Miss Ina Smith began her duties of the nurse's training class at Good Samaritan hospital yesterday. She enters upon the beginning of her three year's work with much anticipation and states it has been her ambition for a long time to engage in this line of work.

Mrs. Mary Preston is now in a critical condition at the home of B. W. Emery where she has been cared for so long. Her symptoms indicate that her passing will not be a matter of any considerable length of time.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Crosier of Portland at the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman Saturday, but only lived two days. He was buried on Tuesday in Portland under the direction of the Metzger undertaking company. The death was entirely unexpected as the child seemed to be normal in every way. A daughter was born on Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sturdevant of Portland at Mrs. Timmerman's residence.

Florence and Helen Kern from Vancouver, Washington, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern, came over Thursday to visit and to attend the fair. Their mother, Mrs. Roy Kern, has been here since last Friday and all returned to their home today.

Just Arrived.

It was an innovation when Woodrow Wilson, so perfectly dressed, drove to the Capitol and talked direct to senators, representatives, the supreme court and others.

"Wonderful audience," the world said. But it was no audience at all compared to the vast multitude that heard President Coolidge talk direct to the people of the United States.
