

TROUTDALE

There will be services at the Troutdale community church Sunday evening at eight o'clock. The Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted is the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Harlow and sons Sam and Robert are spending their vacation at Government mineral springs near Carson, Wash.

Mrs. Jas. Ashworth arrived here one day last week to join her husband and son who drove from Kansas two months ago. Mr. Ashworth is a brother of Mrs. J. R. Knarr. They expect to stay in Oregon for a year or two.

A few Troutdale people had a picnic on the Knarr place, which is known as Sandy Dell, last Sunday.

C. C. Bush is building an office in the west end of the sales room in his garage which is improving the appearance of the building very much.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spence have returned from their trip to British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Williams and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Rosen-ditter and son, all of Portland, were guests at the A. D. Kendall home one day last week.

H. Blaser has returned from his trip to Idaho.

The Rev. and Mrs. Hollensted are home again after enjoying a trip at Rhododendron.

Cream Prices

The Sandy creamery is paying 49 cents at the creamery and 47 cents on the route for butterfat.—Adv.

Money to loan on real estate. Farm loans at 6 per cent. B. W. Thorne.

Balto is Here

Gunnar Kasson, and his famous dogs which helped him carry the precious antitoxin to Nome last winter are in the states appearing in vaudeville. Pictured is Kasson and Balto—the great lead dog which found the way through the Arctic blizzard.

Gillis Vs. Woodstock Sunday

The Gillis baseball team is scheduled to play the Woodstock firemen at Woodstock Park next Sunday, August 16. The game will be called at 2:30. It is hoped the local fans will give the Gillis team good support.

ROCKWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weideman and daughter Helen of Kelso, Wash., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cook and family.

The Rev. A. S. Hisey of Salem was in Rockwood Thursday in the interests of the Board of Home Missions, also inspecting the new Methodist church which is well on the way to completion. The Rev. Mr. Hisey has charge of the workings of the board in this territory.

Mrs. A. L. Horton, who has been very ill for some time, is still confined to her bed. Mrs. Elsie Pasmore and son Howard have been on the sick list for several days with pneumonia.

A trio of young ladies, Miss Iola Kelley, Alice Boe and Helen Lamb, will be in charge of the Epworth League service Sunday evening at the Rockwood community church and will give echoes from the Falls City institute. At 8 o'clock the pastor, the Rev. J. Stanford Moore, will speak from the subject, "God's Voice."

HALEY

The revival services at the Haley Baptist church opened with the Rev. D. E. Anderson in charge Tuesday night. The attendance has been good from the start and the interest has mounted each evening. Rev. Mr. Anderson is a man of pleasing and engaging personality, a preacher of power and insight, with nothing sensational about his work and no artificial attractions. He is reported by those attending to preach the gospel straight from the shoulder, baring sin in all its hideousness and holding up Christ as the world's only hope. A rare opportunity is offered the entire community to attend and profit by the remarkable meetings. Services are in English and will be held every evening except Saturday.

Piano Tuning.

Piano tuning $3.50. Piano and organ repairing. Fred B. Jones 2625 East 49th street, Portland, phone Tabor 8952, or Gresham 1561.—Adv.

Vacation Hours in Gresham Library.

During July and August the Gresham library will be open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 2:30 to 5:30 and from 7 to 9. On Saturday it will be open from 2:30 to 5:30.

Achievement!

Mabel Clare Orr of Blackwell, Okla., is the only woman oil well drilling contractor in the world. In eight years she has built up a big business—spending most of her time in the oil fields with her staunch army of workers.

CORBETT

On Tuesday afternoon the barn, hen house and fencing belonging to Mrs. F. G. Cowing were burned to the ground. The loss was partly covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Karl Hannemann, Corbett's foremost Jersey breeder, brought home from the Multnomah county fair numerous prizes for his fine herd of Jerseys.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Latourelle of Heppner returned home Monday after having spent several days in this vicinity and at Latourelle Falls, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bell, formerly of this place but now of National City, Calif., started Tuesday on their return trip to California after spending the last three weeks here visiting relatives and old friends and looking after their real estate in this vicinity.

The Lewis Reed and Lorn Goodwin families enjoyed an all-day picnic at Eagle Creek on Saturday.

Harry Rickert made a trip to southern Oregon the first of the week.

POWELL VALLEY

The Rev. O. J. Wilner will speak Sunday morning at the Swedish Mission church on the subject, "The Things That Belong to Our Peace." The Sunday school will convene at the usual hour of 9:50. The young people's meeting will begin at 7 followed by the sermon at 8 from the words, "What It Means to Lay Hold on Eternal Life."

FAIRVIEW

Sunday school will meet at 10 a. m. Sunday at the Fairview Methodist church and in the evening at 8 o'clock the Rev. C. B. May will bring the preaching message.

Sunday school will be held at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church beginning at 10 o'clock. At 11 there will be morning worship with sermon by the pastor, Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted.

PLEASANT VALLEY

The Sunday school and preaching service will be combined at the Pleasant Valley community church next Sunday morning. The topic for the service will be, "Men of Light in the Dark Ages."
