

COWBOY EVANGELIST HOLDS MEETINGS

The Rev. H. J. Ranton of Des Moines, Iowa, known as the "Cowboy Evangelist", is conducting meetings every evening this week at Sandy. He will preach at 10 o'clock next Sunday at Boring and at Pleasant Home at 11:15.

POWELL VALLEY

Mrs. Hallie Christensen left Monday morning by train for her home in San Diego after an extended visit with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson and four small children are spending a week at Seaside.

Mrs. Henry Sell was happily surprised by two celebrations in honor of her 62d birthday which occurred on the 12th of this month. One event was the gathering of a large number of her friends and relatives at Columbia beach where they enjoyed refreshments together on Sunday preceding her birthday, then on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. L. Rhoades, her niece, entertained for her. Both were enjoyable occasions, made more so by the presence of her daughter, Mrs. Hallie Christensen who was here from California.

Mrs. Bert Olson feels somewhat repaid for the efforts she has put forth in behalf of her homemaking class of girls as she has been awarded an $8 merchandise order on the Kidder Hardware company for the best display at the county fair. Mrs. Olson has 18 girls in her class and they not only had the best exhibit, but the largest. She is an untiring club leader and is constantly working for the good of her girls.

The Lutheran Sunday school picnic was held at Dodge park Sunday. Services were held at the church in the morning after which they drove to the park for dinner.

Several of the ladies of the neighborhood surprised Mrs. Charles Lundquist at her home this afternoon, the occasion being her birthday.

The Misses Emma Johnson, Ellen Unis and Esther Truedson, also Richard and Tanny Staffenson are the delegates to the Luther League annual convention which meets at Astoria Saturday and Sunday of this week. A number of others are planning to attend the convention and many of them will go to Seaside several days in advance of the business gathering, coming back to Astoria for the meeting and then returning to Seaside for a continued outing.

PLEASANT HOME

Mrs. Agnes Walters and family were given a pleasant surprise Saturday when the Rev. Earl B. Cotton of Amity came from there with friends on their way around Mt. Hood over the Loop road and spread their lunch under an apple tree on the Walters place.

Cream Prices
The Sandy creamery is paying 49 cents at the creamery and 47 cents on the route for butterfat.—Adv.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey and children have returned from a week's vacation spent at Agate Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Richey returned Tuesday from a trip to Taft where they spent a few days camping.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olson and little daughters, Virginia and Doris, left last Saturday morning for Salt Lake City where they will spend a couple of weeks visiting and sight seeing.

Mrs. C. T. Kesterson and son Kenneth have gone to Douglas county where they will spend several days visiting at the home of Mrs. Kesterson's son, Keith Kesterson.

Henning Paulsen, who was seriously injured by a cow three weeks ago, has so far recovered that he has returned to his home.

Mrs. G. A. Bowen had the misfortune to meet with an accident last Wednesday in which she suffered severe burns to one side of her face and neck from scalding water.

Mrs. Julia Sloop has her new home almost finished and expects to move into it in the near future.

J. A. Paul has acquired title to the old Dahlquist home together with 15 acres highly improved land. The place was owned by Mrs. A. C. Ball, who took in exchange the A. J. Paul place as part of the consideration. Mr. and Mrs. Paul are making some alterations in their new home before moving in.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ball have purchased the J. H. Nolte place on Sycamore road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Connell of Portland are spending a couple of weeks here. They are caring for the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olson while they are on their trip to Salt Lake.

Mrs. May Cheldelin has returned from a few days' stay in the vicinity of Dallas.

The Ladies' Aid of the Pleasant Valley church will meet with Mrs. Cleveland Bliss on Thursday afternoon, August 20.

CORBETT

Fred C. Reed and Miss Glenna Hasset were married in Portland Thursday afternoon, August 13, in the court chambers of Judge Martin Hawkins. The ceremony was witnessed by Archie Kincaid and a foster sister of the bride, Miss Doris Graham. The couple will reside at Corbett where the groom is engaged in the salmon fishing business.

The Sunday school and preaching services were suspended Sunday at the Corbett church, the congregation attending the Adventist camp meeting at Troutdale.

Those who received prizes for clean-up week held earlier in the summer were Harold Moffett for most improvement to building, George Chamberlain for pretty garden and Mrs. Susan Harding for the finest new residence.

VICTORY

The Victory circle of the Evangelical Women's union will meet at the home of Mrs. H. Mullenhoff on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The circle will hold an ice cream social on the Victory school grounds on Friday evening, August 21. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to attend.

Piano Tuning.

Piano tuning $3.50. Piano and organ repairing. Fred B. Jones 2625 East 49th street, Portland, phone Tabor 8952, or Gresham 1561.—Adv.

The UNIVERSITY of OREGON contains:

The College of Literature, Science and the Arts with 22 departments.

The professional schools of Architecture and Allied Arts—Business Administration—Education—Graduate Study—Journalism—Law—Medicine—Music—Physical Education—Sociology—Extension.

For a catalogue or any information write The Registrar, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon.

The 50th Year Opens September 24, 1925

Our job office equipment is thoroughly modern and we are prepared to handle any job from a business card to a large catalog. We hold an exclusive franchise in this territory for Autocaster cuts and illustrations and furnish this service free of charge to our customers.

In this line are thousands of pictures, only a few of which are shown in this ad. There is a picture for every purpose and season of the year.

Your printed matter will be more attractive and will draw attention more quickly if illustrated with one of these pictures.

We are enabled to do your work better by reason of this service which is constantly increasing and building up our printing facilities. Think! This service is furnished absolutely free to you as one of our customers! When you need stationery, posters or circulars remember we are here to serve you and will serve you well.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Threshing machines are now busy east of the Sandy river and the grain is very good everywhere and not damaged by the recent rain, which was welcomed by all of the ranchers here, and which will mean a bigger crop of potatoes and cabbages. The cauliflower is doing nicely and there is the prospect of a good crop.

George Perry, superintendent of the Julius Meier place, has returned from a vacation trip to the Puget Sound country.

Mrs. Cowing, owner of the new log cabin at Corbett known as the Wayfarers' Inn, lost her barn and all its contents by fire a few days ago. The loss was covered by insurance.

Mrs. Marie Morgan is at Eugene making arrangements for the entrance of her son, William Morgan, at the University of Oregon this fall. Young Morgan will take up forestry.

Members here of Troutdale Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, attended an enjoyable meeting of the chapter on Saturday night and report a good attendance considering the session. A dainty luncheon was served after the meeting. The question of omitting further meetings during July and August was brought up but was tabled.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hansen of the Ehrman place have installed a fine radio receiving set in their home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stuart of Latourell Falls have purchased a fine home at Oswego and will take possession by the first of September. Mr. and Mrs. G. Willson will take charge of the Talbott home, now occupied by the Stuarts.

Miss Mildred Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, formerly of Corbett but now living in Tacoma, was a guest at the Stuart home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salzman of Springdale, who returned recently from their honeymoon trip, which was spent on a tour from California to British Columbia, are now building a new bungalow.

C. Bramhall is remodeling his home, which will be modern when finished. Mrs. Lottie Benfield is visiting with friends in Portland.

Mrs. Alice Rasmussen of The Dalles, who has finished summer school in Portland, is now spending

Sand Road Material Gravel Crushed Rock

Gresham Transfer & Service Station

Light and Heavy Hauling

GAS AND OIL

WALRAD

Phone 1631

WRIGHT

GATES' FUNERAL HOME

SERVICE

Nothing can equal the effectiveness of a home-like service, reasonably priced, backed up by methods that are fair and square.

DAY OR NIGHT

Phone 2471

Gresham, Oregon

MRS. J. E. GATES
Lady Assistant

J. E. GATES
Mortician

her vacation at her father's ranch at the Sandy river.

The P. T. A. of Corbett will hold a moonlight picnic at Wahkeena Falls on Tuesday night, to which all interested are invited.

FAIRVIEW

The Rev. Charles Robinson of McMinnville will preach at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Robinson was a former pastor of the church and has a host of friends in the vicinity who will be glad to meet him and hear him again. The Sunday school hour is at 10 o'clock.

The Sunday school of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church plans to hold a picnic at the Peninsula park in Portland on Saturday, August 29.

The Fairview Fun Makers held their monthly social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Lumsden Friday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent in games and singing, followed by refreshments. About 35 were present, but the organization is not as yet entirely completed. At the next meeting its affairs will be more definitely shaped.

FISK TIRES and TUBES

Vulcanizing and Retreading

All Work Guaranteed

Gresham Tire Shop

GEO. A. BRANDT, Phone 1471

SAND GRAVEL

CEMENT BRICK

J. R. KNARR

Phone Gresham 489

TROUTDALE, OREGON

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh.

Sold by druggists for over 40 years F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

BIG DANCE

TROUTDALE CITY HALL

SATURDAY EVENING, AUG. 22

"LET'S" PRIZE DANCE "GO"

GIGRAY'S ORCHESTRA

Hall under New Management

Gentlemen $1.00

Ladies Free

Now Is the Time to Electrify Your Home.

You already know that Electric Service is the most useful and economical servant in the home.

Why not start now and let Electricity do all your household drudgery for you?

MODERN APPLIANCES AT MODERATE PRICES

We have an excellent stock to select from.

Electric Store
Electric Building

PORTLAND ELECTRIC POWER CO.

Faith Strong in

PE-RU-NA

Mrs. Albert Huet, 109 Prospect St., South Manchester, Conn., convinced that it saved her life, writes:

"I had catarrh of the stomach, bowels and liver. Was confined to my bed. I have taken Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin and to-day thank God for a good stomach and appetite. My faith is strong that Pe-ru-na is a life saver. I advise my friends daily to use Pe-ru-na and many have been helped."

Pe-ru-na is backed by the verdict of two generations, more than fifty years of success.

SOLD EVERYWHERE

TABLETS or LIQUID

FOLKS IN OUR TOWN

Pop Spoke Too Quick

By

Edward McCullough

AUTOCASTER

