

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Mary Hoigate and her daughter, Mrs. MacCauley Dale and son have moved from their rooms in the Ed. Smith residence next to the Pearl Atterbury house which they have rented furnished for the winter.

Mrs. George Leslie is having a retaining wall and a cement sidewalk built in front of her property in Whitehead addition, recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Taylor from one of the Frank Heiney houses.

L. A. Wack and family have returned from a trip to the Puyallup country where they spent a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Kruger of Corvallis have rented the C. M. Harrison house on Florence avenue and will move in as soon as the place is vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Miller, who have purchased the Osborn house on south Roberts avenue. Mr. Kruger is one of the instructors in Gresham Union high school for the coming year and in addition to teaching various subjects will be employed as athletic coach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grafin entertained guests from Portland Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lonegren, the former the editor and publisher of the "Oregon Posten," a weekly Swedish publication of Portland. They remained over night and on Friday the four enjoyed a trip around the Mt. Hood loop highway, going by way of the Columbia river highway and returning over the Mt. Hood road. Returning they invaded a huckleberry patch on the east slope of the mountain.

Miss Elizabeth Hales, librarian of the local branch of the public library, has returned from her six-weeks' vacation to eastern and southern Oregon and will resume her duties at the library at once. Most of her vacation was spent with her parents who live at Eugene, with a number of interesting trips to their summer home near Big creek, 40 miles from Eugene. During the absence of Miss Hales the work of the library has been very ably taken care of by the substitute, Miss Elva Dolan. The regular hours will be observed from this time on, every afternoon during the week days from 2:30 to 5:30 and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, from 7 to 9.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie, Mrs. Annie Hevel and Miss Mildred Zeek enjoyed a fine visit with Mrs. Mable Zeek at Lebanon Thursday and the following day. Mrs. Leslie remarked especially about the beautiful drive and the number of fine flowers they saw on the trip.

Considerable hardship has been worked on E. Hara, the Japanese tenant on the C. Powell place, when sometime during the past month his home was entered and a tin box about 5x12 inches in size was stolen in a probable quest for money. This box did not contain any cash but was the receptacle for a number of private papers of the Japanese such as his immigration entry papers, his lease for the farm, a driver's license, tax receipts and deeds for some property he owns and other papers of a like character. He will be glad to have this box of papers returned to him and no questions will be asked.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Comstock are being congratulated over the arrival of a fine six-pound boy born to them at the residence of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman yesterday. The baby has been named Robert Ross.

Mr. McAlpine and son Lawrie, formerly of Orient and a former correspondent of the Outlook, called at the office Saturday. He is now with the United States veterans' bureau, Seattle, where he has been for a number of years.

Mrs. Charles Cleveland, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wendall Cleveland, from Heppner with her two children, Virginia and Howard and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cleveland and two children, Eleanor and Alice from Stanfield, Oregon, returned from Seaside Monday after enjoying the salt air for a couple of weeks. Mayor Cleveland visited their summer home at different intervals during the time. C. E. Cleveland and family left today for their home, but Mrs. Wendall Cleveland will remain until the latter part of the week.

Frank Wostell of Eugene visited with his mother, Mrs. Mary Leslie on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pullen, Mrs. G. C. Fancher and Mrs. W. E. Beegle motored to Hoodsport, Washington, Saturday, 40 miles the other side of Olympia where they visited until Monday with Mrs. R. A. Starbald. Sunday afternoon they explored the Hood canal for a distance of 40 or 50 miles.

Mrs. Elsie Bennett and daughter Velma from Los Angeles, cousins of Mrs. Mary Welch, visited with the Welch family Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied by Mrs. Welch's sister, Mrs. C. L. Pio of Vancouver, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Todd returned Friday from a two-weeks' trip to New Westminster, B. C., where they visited relatives.

In a recent communication received from Miss Edna Angell from Dundee, Illinois, she stated that she and her mother would soon be leaving for St. James, Minnesota. She mentioned that her mother, who came from England to be with her, was greatly enjoying the wonderful sights of America and that England would seem small to her when she arrived there after her visit in the United States. It is expected that Mrs. Angell will return to Oregon with her daughter before leaving for her home in England.

Jackson Jones left last Tuesday for Camp Perry, Ohio, where he is on his third trip as a member of the Oregon rifle team to compete in the national rifle tournament. He attended the same event less than a year ago and carried off signal honors. He expects to be gone until the latter part of September. His travel east took him over the Union Pacific and coming back he is planning on taking the longest way home, the northern Canadian route by way of Prince Rupert island, requiring two days on the boat and six by rail.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Walters entertained on Sunday at their home on Gresham Heights farm Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dougall and daughter Dorothy, the former remembered as Rex Organon during Rose Festival days, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Evans, all of Portland. Other recent guests at the Walters home were Mrs. Esther Allen Jones and her granddaughter of the same name, also of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Welling, daughter Luetta and Gertrude Lee made a trip around the Mt. Hood loop highway on Sunday.

Miss Helen Buddenhagen, who formerly resided with her parents in the Powell Valley district, is here from Walla Walla, Washington, visiting with her many friends in Gresham and vicinity.

Guy Rusher underwent an operation at Good Samaritan hospital Saturday afternoon for the removal of the appendix. Dr. Short performing the operation. The boy was seized very suddenly with an acute attack of appendicitis and it was decided that an immediate operation was the only resource. He is now considered out of danger and doing well.

P. F. Black is moving his family to Portland today where they will reside at 1516 East Pine street in the Central addition district. Mr. Black says he prefers Gresham to the city as a residence location, but that in his work as salesman for the clothing firm he has been representing for a year or more he finds it more convenient to reside in Portland.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Dewey of Lents attended services at the Free Methodist church Sunday morning and visited with Mrs. G. A. Cox and family later. They are planning on leaving soon for Mt. Vernon, Washington, where they will spend the winter near their son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Dawson.

John Brown and son Ross returned Saturday night from a week's trip including stops at Tacoma and Aberdeen, a visit with Frank Brown at Seattle, also a tour of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C. The veteran dispenser of the law states that in his travels he has not found a place anywhere that suits him better than Gresham.

The Rev. E. G. Judd is spending a three-weeks' vacation near Grants Pass with friends. He has made several side trips to the nearby mountain ranges and is otherwise thoroughly enjoying his leave of absence.

Gust Larson, who formerly owned a harness shop in Gresham but who has been engaged in the same business in Lents for some time past, is making plans to return to this place to reside. He is having a neat cottage 12 x 20 in size, erected on one of his two lots north of the K. A. Miller residence on Roberts avenue. D. M. Cathey is building the house for Mr. Larson.

Frank Buck and two children came from Spokane Tuesday and spent the week with Mrs. Hans Larsen. They were accompanied by Mrs. Anna Henry and daughter Annabelle, also of Spokane who visited relatives in Portland during the week. They left for their home Monday and will visit at several places on the way. Mrs. Larsen went with the party as far as Longview, Washington, where she visited over night with friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Mark W. Emery and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buckle of Portland spent the afternoon Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Emery. Jean Emery, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Emery, who has been spending the past week with her grandparents, returned to her home with her parents Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Boswell entertained at Sunday dinner the brother and wife of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fair of Portland, recently married, also her father, A. H. Fair and Mrs. Jane Taylor. Mrs. Boswell's mother, Mrs. A. H. Fair, recently left for an extended trip through the New England states in company with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Meffert of Kansas City, who has visited with Mrs. Boswell during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shaw of Pratt, Kansas, visited with Dr. and Mrs.
