GRESHAM WOMEN HEAD COUNTY ORGANIZATION

Two Gresham women were honored at the annual convention of the Multnomah county W. C. T. U. held in Portland yesterday, when Mrs. C. O. Horning was elected president and Mrs. W. F. Honey vice president for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Horning, though a Gresham woman, has retained her membership in Central Union of Portland since moving here a few years ago. Mrs. Honey has served several terms as president of the Gresham Union.

The pastor, Dr. C. W. Huet, will speak both morning and evening. The subject for the morning sermon will be "The Spirit of Methodism" and at night the pastor will continue the series of lecture sermons taking as a subject "The Mediterranean and Naples." There will be special music at the morning service and at night the service will be preceded by a brief song service of popular religious songs.

The morning service begins promptly at 11 o'clock and the evening service at 8. The Epworth League will meet at 7 o'clock and all young people are invited and those who are older are welcomed.

The Ladies Aid society will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the church. A full attendance is urged as business of importance will come up for discussion.

An executive meeting of the Multnomah County Council of Parent-Teacher associations was held at the Gresham library yesterday for the purpose of laying plans for aggressive work during the school year.

Those present were Mrs. E. S. Hoek, president; Mrs. H. P. Stevenson, secretary; Mrs. L. S. Hobson, treasurer; Mrs. E. F. Monical, president of Gilbert P.-T. A.; Mrs. H. E. Holmes, chairman P.-T. A. service shop, on Second street between Taylor and Salmon, Portland, and Mrs. J. P. Lynch, chairman boys' and girls' work.

Plans were made for the state convention in Portland on October 27 to 30 and for the entertainment of the delegates at Chanticleer Inn at a noon luncheon on October 30.

HILLSVIEW

E. P. Schede and daughters, Evelyn and Ruth, and Mrs. Nels Rodlund returned Thursday evening from a five weeks' trip east as far as Minneapolis. They visit with relatives in Willmar, Minnesota. The trip was made over the Yellowstone trail and a complete tour was made of Yellowstone park.

They regard the Oregon scenery and roads as unsurpassed by anything they saw on the entire journey.

Edwin Yunker, who has been spending the summer on the farm with his parents, has returned to his work in Corvallis where he is instructor of physics at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Ed Tillstrom has his new 7-room house nearly completed and will be ready to occupy it soon.

School opened Monday in the Hillsview district with an enrollment of 30 pupils. George Metzger is the teacher at this place.

Considerable improvement has been taking place on the Hillsview road recently, rough places being graded and otherwise straightened out. Al Peier, the district road supervisor in charge of the work.

Mrs. Amanda Johnson, who recently sold her farm to the Bedener family from Union district, has moved to Portland. The new owners have moved to the farm.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. S. N. Bostwick of San Francisco has been visiting with her sisters, Mrs. E. R. Johnson and Mrs. Wm. Dahlquist of this place during the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Richey have returned from a trip to Corvallis.

Professor McKay of Oregon Agricultural college, was in this vicinity last Monday, making his final field inspection of seed potato fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey and children have returned from a trip to Ellensburg, Washington.

The many friends of Mrs. Anna Lehman will be pleased to learn that she has so far recovered from her injuries suffered in an automobile accident some time ago, as to be able to leave the hospital. At present Mrs. Lehman is staying at the home of her sister, Mrs. Elspas of Portland.

Pleasant Valley school opened Monday with an enrollment of 91 pupils. E. E. Jackson is principal, Mrs. Gladys Morrell is the teacher for the intermediate room and Mrs. Anna Barzee in charge of the primary grades.

A combined Sunday school and public worship service will be held at the Pleasant Valley church on Sunday, from 10 to 11:30, then the pastor, the Rev. J. Stanford Moore, will preach. An interesting feature of the service will be vocal solos by Charles Wilson of Portland.

ROCKWOOD

The ladies of the Rockwood church will give a silver tea Wednesday, September 23. This is the last to be given by the ladies during the conference year and a large attendance is expected.

On Sunday evening at 6:45 at the community church the Epworth League will meet with Orrie Eckert as leader. The subject will be "Abiding Inspiration." The Rev. J. Stanford Moore will preach at 7:30, taking as his subject "Over the Top Against Temptation."

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Next Sunday will be promotion day in the Bible school, which has been thoroughly reorganized for the year's work. All members of the school and prospective members are urged to be present and help to start the work with enthusiasm.

The pastor, Dr. C. W. Huet, will speak both morning and evening. The subject for the morning sermon will be "The Spirit of Methodism" and at night the pastor will continue the series of lecture sermons taking as a subject "The Mediterranean and Naples." There will be special music at the morning service and at night the service will be preceded by a brief song service of popular religious songs.

The morning service begins promptly at 11 o'clock and the evening service at 8. The Epworth League will meet at 7 o'clock and all young people are invited and those who are older are welcomed.

The Ladies Aid society will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the church. A full attendance is urged as business of importance will come up for discussion.

Zion Evangelical Church.

At the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday the pastor, the Rev. E. Horstmann, will preach at 11 o'clock in English on the topic "The Richest People on Earth." He will preach in the German language at 11:50. Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock as usual.

Old Age Postponed

The appearance of old age can be postponed by having your teeth properly looked after. Registered Dentists using the E. R. Parker System are especially capable of doing this by making fine crowns, bridges and artificial teeth.

Some men and women look ten years younger after these dentists have done the necessary work. So much depends upon making artificial teeth look natural that you should be glad to know where to go for the right kind of work.

Another thing about E. R. Parker System Dentists: They make a specialty of saving time for out-of-town patients, so these patients won't have to come in so often. You will be surprised to learn how reasonable the prices are, too, and also to find out that you need have no fear of pain. Examinations and advice free.

There are thirty-one offices where the E. R. Parker System is used.
