DODGE PARK

Miss Priscilla Baumgarten, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. L. Crissey, was the guest of honor at a 500 party given by Mrs. Alice White in Vancouver, Washington, Wednesday. Among the guests were Mrs. Crissey and Mrs.
J. C. Cameron.

The construction shed has been built and considerable lumber is on the ground for the new bridge over the Sandy at Dodge park.

W. L. Crissey entertained as guests Wednesday Professor and Mrs. McKay of Corvallis, the former the chief plant pathologist at O. A. C. Mrs. Mc-Kay is also a botanist and both were immensely pleased with the botanical gardens at the Crissey ranch.

A rarity in the vegetable kingdom may be seen in the Outlook window, through the courtesy of W. L. Crissey of Dodge Park. This is called a Tasmanian bean, but in reality is not a bean at all, but is more like the squash family. It is 40 inches long and semi-circular in shape and is said to be edible, being cooked in a similar manner to the egg plant.

POWELL VALLEY

Mrs. Augusta Palmblad will spend the next two months with her daughter, Mrs. Swan Magnuson. She visit-

Gum-Dipped Cords.

Cords the most economical tires ever offered motorists.

The cord from the fabric mills is first delivered to a separate plant where it is treated in a solution of gum, which insulates every fiber of every cord. This protects against internal friction and heat, giving the sidewalls greater flexibility and addi-
