GRESHAM LOCALS

A Portland marriage of interest to many, Gresham people took place on Sunday, September 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lusted, when their son, Ellis E., was married to Miss Madana A. Blaine of Portland. The impressive ring ceremony was witnessed by a company of 27 friends and relatives. The groom is employed by a wholesale leather house of Portland and the couple will live in that city where they have erected a home. The young couple received many beautiful and useful gifts. Mrs. L. T. Lusted, Mrs. George Lusted and Miss Inez Lusted of Gresham attended the wedding.

Allen R. Holloway has completed the basement of his house on South Roberts avenue. When the remodeling is finished, this residence will present a very attractive appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blanchard returned Tuesday from a deer hunting trip to Glendale, Oregon.

Miss Leona Bailey has accepted a position with the Ford Motor company and is at the Raker garage where she assists in typewriting and other clerical work connected with salesmanship.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howard, Clark Howard and his sister, Miss Louise, have been guests during the week of Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning. Miss Howard has decided to take a normal course of training and will enter Monmouth normal soon.

The first 1926 Ford to arrive in Gresham was being examined and duly admired at the Raker garage a few days ago. This machine has many advantages over the old type of Ford, being much more strongly constructed along every line. It has an extra door and on all four doors the curtains are fastened to the door instead of to the body of the machine. No more will the occupants of the front seat have to move when the machine is being replenished with gas, as in the new car the gas enters through a tank receptacle in the front of the body. It is said that it is almost impossible to keep up with the demand for the new Ford.

Miss Florence Johnson, a Powell Valley girl who was a former saleslady in the L. A. Wack store, is in Emanuel hospital where she was operated on a short time ago for appendicitis. She suffered from this malady while on her recent trip east. Her condition is reported favorable and her friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. A. F. Lacy, wife of the pastor of the Pine Grove Methodist Episcopal church, Hood River, was a caller Wednesday on Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clair and Mrs. A. W. Shipley, former neighbors in Oswego.

William Antoni, distilling man with the Vegalene company, was in Gresham this week looking over the plant which is expected to be ready for operation about October 1.

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. P. Collins and her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Holloway, were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parker from Salem. Accompanied by Parker, Ross and Ruby Holloway they made a trip around the Mt. Hood Loop in Mr. Parker's twin six Packard sedan. They went half way up the mountain. Mrs. Collins is Mr. Parker's mother.

The ladies of the Rebekah lodge entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Olive Ekstrom in honor of Mrs. Maud Michel White, a recent bride. The surprise consisted of a miscellaneous shower in which Mrs. White received a number of pleasing gifts. About 20 were present and the evening was spent in games and music, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Stella Roper-Cunningham and two children, of Portland, were the guests Tuesday of Mrs. D. M. Cathey and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Gossett. Mrs. Cunningham is an instructor in one of the night schools conducted by the city.

Wait!

When tempted to buy some foolish extravagance—don't get in a hurry.

Take time to think it over. WAIT!

There are a thousand things you might buy with that dollar—but you can only spend it once.

America spends 22 billions a year on luxuries.

Perhaps that is why 82 per cent of us die penniless.

We suggest that you start buying a competence for future years out of your "extravagance fund."
