

GRESHAM LOCALS

Gust Larson has moved into his cottage on Roberts avenue which was recently erected for him by D. M. Cathey.

Mr. Telford, an elderly man who formerly resided at Bull Run, was taken to the Pisgah home for the aged at Scapoose Monday morning. His wife lives in California.

W. H. Hessel and Cecil Metzger can number their friends by the score these days. As a result of a week-end fishing trip to the McKenzie river near Eugene, 25 or more fine redside trout are on display in the Metzger grocery window. While at Eugene they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, both of whom were former instructors in the high school at this place.

Mrs. Fred Mewhirter spent the week end with her family at Newberg, returning to Gresham Sunday evening to remain another week with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Gibbs.

Mrs. Vida Stubbs and son, Edward, visited on Sunday with relatives at Estacada.

William Booth, an employe of the Standard Oil company, and W. P. Tuerck, special agent for the company, are now enjoying their regular annual vacations. Mr. Booth will improve the time by an extended tour of California and Mr. Tuerck is planning various diversions with his family which resides in Portland.

The young people's Missionary society of the Free Methodist church will meet Wednesday evening at the parsonage at 7:30. All young people are cordially invited to be present.

Lester Spencer and Fred Southard returned Saturday evening from a two-weeks' auto trip to Los Angeles and other California cities. They spent a week with Mr. Southard's son, Frank Southard in Los Angeles.

W. L. Perkins, his wife and three children came to Gresham Saturday from Barron, Wisconsin, to reside. Mr. Perkins is a well driller and plumber by occupation and hopes to secure work in this locality, as he is well pleased with Gresham as a desirable residence town. His two younger children have enrolled in the sixth and eighth grades of the Gresham grade school. Mr. and Mrs. Casper Sundsmo, also from the same place in Wisconsin but who are living in Portland for the present, spent Sunday with the family. Mr. Sundsmo is a carpenter and will move to Gresham if work can be found. L. R. Perkins and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday with his brother and wife here.

Mrs. M. D. Kern carried home five blue ribbons and two red ones from the Clackamas county fair which were given her on her excellent exhibit of fruit and preserves, jellies, jam, canned vegetables, sweet pickles and dried apples. At the close of the fair at Canby Mr. Kern took the same collection up to Salem where it was entered in the state fair, and the friends of Mrs. Kern will not be surprised if she also wins honors at that place during the week.

A bake sale will be held at the Cecil Metzger grocery Saturday afternoon by the Gresham circle of the Zion Evangelical Women's Union. The ladies of the circle are requested to bring their baked goods to the store as early as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hardy made the Mt. Hood Loop highway trip on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. George Metzger and daughters, Sarah and Rosabell.

L. L. Kidder is having his house re-roofed with the Pacbo strip shingles type of roofing, L. J. Winters doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squire will attend the state fair part of the week. During Mrs. Squire's absence from the Wack Mercantile establishment, Mrs. L. A. Wack will assist about the store.

Oscar Thoren is engaged in the construction of two houses, one in Pleasant Valley which is being erected by a Mr. Erickson near the Sycamore store, and the other building is the residence of the Rev. O. F. Larson of San Jose, California. The Rev. Mr. Larson was formerly the pastor of the Mission church in Powell Valley and left to accept a pastorate in California. He had purchased some acreage in the Damascus neighborhood and is now having a house built with the expectation of returning to Oregon in the early spring and occupying it.

County Superintendent Alderson was a caller at the Outlook office yesterday. He was visiting the Rockwood school, also another school east of Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. Grimshaw, of Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. William Fluman of Vancouver, Washington, and the sister-in-law of Mrs. Smith, Mrs. A. Campbell of Mabton, Washington, recently met at Carson, Washington, and enjoyed three weeks of pleasant recreation and physical benefit at the St. Martin's hot springs.

Mrs. W. L. Kesterson of Pleasant Valley and Mrs. J. M. Hillyard of Gillis have returned from Hardman, Oregon, in the Blue mountains, where they went three weeks ago for the benefit of their health. Both were greatly benefited by the trip.

Miss Elizabeth Grant has left for Monmouth where she has enrolled as a student for the coming year in the state normal.

Miss Gladys Sharp underwent an operation Saturday for the removal of her tonsils. She is at her home and is reported to be doing well.

A business meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held at the library on Friday evening, October 3. At a meeting of the organization held last week the following officers were elected: Mrs. H. S. Clow, president; Mrs. B. W. Emery, vice president; Mrs. W. T. Klotzbach, recording secretary; Mrs. I. S. Korsund, corresponding secretary; Mrs. B. L. Walrad, treasurer.

Gresham Rebekah lodge observed the 74th anniversary of the organization of the order with a short program at the L.O.O.F. hall last night, after which a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mrs. H. J. Pulfer was taken ill on Saturday and it is said her condition has been critical part of the time since then. However, it is thought there have been some signs of improvement during the past 24 hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase E. St. Clair and the latter's sister, Mrs. J. C. Bess of Arrowsmith, Illinois, and Miss Myrtle

Schmale of Portland enjoyed a week-end trip to Manzanita beach, which they described as a most charming place. While there they called on Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kardell, formerly of Gresham. Mrs. Bess, who has been visiting relatives in Portland and vicinity and has attended the national Rebekah assembly, is spending a few days with Mrs. St. Clair.
