POWELL VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. John Hulander entertained at dinner Tuesday evening for Mrs. J. A. Liedfors who left yesterday for New York city where she will remain indefinitely to engage in the study of art. The guests were, besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Liedfors and daughter, Dagmar, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Bertelson, of Oregon City, Miss Edith Lind, Andrew Anderson and Clarence Alm. The dinner preceded a surprise gathering of friends, about 40 in number, who had gathered in the front part of the house during the progress of dinner. On leaving the table, the guest of honor opened the door to find the house filled with friends who had gathered to wish her a safe journey and a prosperous year of study. The evening was spent with a program and a social time, after which lunch was served. Mrs. Liedfors, who is a talented artist, will continue the study of freehand drawing and painting.

At the Mission church next Sunday, both morning and evening, the pulpit will be occupied by the Rev. August Anderson, an itinerant minister, who comes here from Seattle. He will preach at 11 o'clock in Swedish and in the evening at 8 in English. The Sunday school will convene as usual at 9:50 and the young people's meeting at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Karl Hagberg entertained the Deborah Ladies Aid at the Mission church Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hammond of Vancouver, Washington, accompanied by their niece, Miss Viola Prouty, who is visiting from Lake Norden, South Dakota, were callers at the A. C. Arvidson home Wednesday. The Hammonds returned to their home that evening, but Miss Prouty is remaining for a stay with the Arvidson family.

PLEASANT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Phair have moved to Eugene to reside, arriving there a week ago. They write that they like Eugene very much and that Mr. Phair is employed with his uncle, W. K. Hamilton, as carpenter work.

Charles McKinney was one of a number to pledge to Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity the second day of pledging at Oregon Agricultural college. This is McKinney's freshman year at college. He was a graduate of Gresham Union high school with the class of '23.

Mrs. Grant Sloop has gone to Eugene to attend the Methodist conference. She will there represent the church in the laymen's gatherings of the conference during the week.

Firestone

Why Gum-Dipping is so Important to Car Owners

GUM-DIPPING—the Firestone extra process builds into tires extra quality by impregnating and insulating every fiber of every cord with rubber.

This exclusive method is carried out in special Gum-Dipping plants, after which the cords are put through the usual calendaring process.

By this method, added strength and flexibility are imparted to the cords, making Gum-Dipped Balloons most serviceable and enduring over rough roads.

Save money—buy Gum-Dipped Balloons now—while prices are low.

ARBOLEDA

Miss Florence Arnot left last Sunday for Monmouth, Oregon, where she will enter the Oregon State Normal school. Miss Arnot recently graduated from the Union high school at Gresham.

The Ladies' Joker club was entertained Friday afternoon, September 25, at the home of Mrs. D. W. Bridgefarmer. Honors at 500 were won by Mrs. Floyd Halladay and Mrs. George Fortner.

The Arboleda Improvement club held its regular meeting Thursday evening in the clubhouse. Mr. and Mrs. George Fortner were host and hostess for the evening. After the business meeting each member read a paper, prepared beforehand, on the life of their favorite present-day author or authoress. Some very interesting papers were read.

Radio KGW, the Portland Oregonian, has announced it will broadcast the world series baseball scores beginning October 7. Floyd Halladay will install his receiving set with loud speaker in the Arboleda clubhouse and any one who cares to come and hear the scores, will be welcome. The broadcasting starts about 11 a. m.

The next dance given by the Arboleda Improvement club will be on Saturday, October 3.

CORBETT

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson are being congratulated over the arrival of a 9½-pound baby boy at their home, born September 30. The mother is a daughter of Mrs. E. R. Wright, of Gresham. The newcomer has been named Arthur Ross Johnson.

DO YOU KNOW WHICH WAY You are Going?

ARE you actually farther ahead in life's game than you were a year ago? Is your work better than it was a year ago? Do you know more about your work than you knew last year? No matter what kind of work you do, are you doing it the best it can be done? Or as well as you can? Are you doing it better than you were a year ago?

A growing bank account will answer "YES" to these questions.
