

GRESHAM LOCALS

Students of Gresham Union high school were treated to several numbers of music this noon by Edith Gowlan Nelson and Bessie Humphrey, violinists, accompanied on the piano by Eva Robinette, all of Portland. Mrs. Nelson gave two solos.

Miss Annette Catherine McBain of Pasadena, California, who has spent the past three months with her grandmother, Mrs. Susan McBain, was married in Portland on Wednesday to Charles Bruce Watson, also of Pasadena. A reception for the young people was held at the home of Mrs. McBain following the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Watson have gone on a trip which may take them to Yellowstone National park. They expect to live in Oregon. The father of the bride from California was here for a few days.

An all-day meeting of the Rebekah Welfare club will be held at the home of Mrs. Bessie Dixon at 1020 East Market street, Portland, on Monday, October 5. A pot luck lunch will be served at noon. Arrangements have been made with the driver of the 11:30 bus from Gresham to take any members wishing to go in that way and to leave them at Mrs. Dixon's home.

A meeting of the Musical Arts club will be held in the Gresham library on Monday evening, October 5, at 7:30. Miss Dorothy Dickey and Mrs. J. E. Gates will be prepared to give detailed reports on the national convention of Federated Music clubs which met in Portland in June. Books for the study of the masters from the state library are on hand, also a book on fundamentals of music recommended by the Federation of Music clubs.

Mrs. H. M. Shaw returned yesterday from Seaside where she has been since Sunday.

H. J. Pulfer has been ill for the past two weeks with an attack of the grip which has been attended with complications. He is now thought to be slowly on the mend.

Strawberry shortcake is being enjoyed by Gresham citizens these days, although the calendar registers October. Also there is a fine display of fresh raspberries, both fruits being local and said to be fairly plentiful.

Miss Jean Dolan of Boring has been assisting in the care of her aunt, Miss Elva Dolan, who has been ill the past week.

J. R. Horr carried off the first prize on one of his two prize milk goats entered at the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Berg of Odell, Oregon, spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss Tuesday. They have been living at Laurel the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. George Ableiter and two sons from Fennemore, Wisconsin, are visiting old friends in Gresham, including Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fieldhouse and Alex. Gullikson and his sister, Mrs. Christena Humason. They are on their way to California to spend the winter and are camping for the present on the premises of Fred Fieldhouse.

Charles Derosos and his sister, Mrs. T. C. Rank, brother and sister of Mrs. George D. Rank, who have been spending the summer here with the Rank family, have returned to their home at Dover, Minnesota.

Mrs. John Bliss has returned from a three weeks' stay at Newport where she was the guest of Mr. Bliss' sister, Mrs. Mary Robertson. Mr. Bliss went down with her shortly before Labor day, but he only remained a couple of days. They report that Newport is booming and destined to become a leading summer resort. The Roosevelt highway is nearly completed as the main thoroughfare there and miles of cement walks and macadamized streets are being constructed. Mrs. Bliss brought with her some fine specimens of agates. While at the beach Mrs. Bliss also had the pleasure of meeting Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Belt, who formerly resided at Gresham. They now live in Roseburg and were taking their vacation at the beach at Newport.

J. T. Horr is at Goldstone, Montana, where he is engaged in overseeing the threshing and other work incident to harvesting the crops on the 960-acre ranch belonging to himself and son, J. R. Horr of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth, Mrs. C. J. Lundquist and Tom Darling were among state fair visitors at Salem, Thursday.
