PLEASANT VALLEY

The Sunday school of the Pleasant Valley community church will meet at 10 o'clock and will join in the public worship service at 10:45. The Rev. A. S. Hisey, district superintendent, is making arrangements for the morning service. The new pastor for the Pleasant Valley church has not yet been secured, but the superintendent assures the membership that in a few weeks the new man will be on the field.

ROCKWOOD

The Sunday school of the Rockwood community church will meet at 10 a. m. Sunday. Gerald Haynes will lead the Epworth League at 6:45 and promptly at 7:30 the preaching service will begin. The Rev. J. Stanford Moore will preach from the subject, "Looking Into the Depths."

HOGAN

Harry Truitt, an employe at the Columbia brick yard, is absent from his work on account of illness. He is reported to be suffering from gallstones. W. H. Black, who underwent an operation for the removal of the tonsils in Portland Tuesday, was unable to return home that evening. His condition is considered critical on account of the severe loss of blood. Mrs. Carl Schultz spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. A. N. Patterson, of Portland.

Mrs. H. Hosely, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alex. Huber for three weeks, returned Saturday to Oregon City.

Mack Stout, who sustained an injury to his back while playing with a football at school last week, is able to resume his studies again.

Thieves were busy in this neighborhood one night last week when they helped themselves to two great reels of copper wire belonging to the P.E.P. company and which they were using in repairing the line at this place. The reels had been unloaded at some distance from the station, but the marauders rolled them down to the station, across woods belonging to the Dalley estate, where the wire was removed and the empty reels hidden in a clump of bushes. The wire is estimated to be worth about $500.

SANDY BLUFF

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Radford have moved back to this community after living several years in Canyonville. They are living on the Fred Radford place.

A few neighbors surprised A. J. Ault last Saturday, the occasion being his birthday. The evening was spent in playing cards, after which a lunch was served.

Mrs. J. Caldo and mother, Mrs. Fields, and Mrs. G. S. Wilkenson were Portland visitors on Tuesday. Mrs. Caldo and Mrs. Fields stayed over till Wednesday and visited friends. Mrs. Wilkenson returned the same day.

The Parent-Teacher association meeting was well attended on Friday, October 2, and a fine program given.

Mrs. Melvin Andrews was visiting around on friends and relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Baumbach and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Voight.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. C. E. Bunn entertained a number of the younger ladies at her home Wednesday, a luncheon and the financing of several articles of fancy work occupying this group. A number of the ladies met at Mrs. McKay's Thursday and tied a quilt and discussed further plans, also arranged for a tea to be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Stone Thursday afternoon, October 15. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to this tea.

The Woman's Society of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church, met with Mrs. C. W. McKay Thursday. At that time it was decided to hold the annual bazaar and supper on Friday, November 20. Committees working on quilts, fancy work and aprons report their work nearly completed.

The Fairview grange will give an entertainment on Monday evening, October 12, in the Fairview city hall at 8 o'clock. The entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Walter Johnson, who is a reader and impersonator, and several musical numbers will be given between the acts.

"The Open Road" will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. J. Stanford Moore Sunday evening at the Fairview Methodist church. Sunday school will convene as usual at 10 a. m.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chillcote, Mr. Read, and Miss Peechy, of St. Johns were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kesterson.

Mrs. C. A. Ekstrand was called to Albany, Oregon, last week on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Edholm, who died Friday evening and was buried Monday afternoon at Albany.

A reception for the teachers of Pleasant Valley school was held at the grange hall last Friday evening. There was a large attendance. Lunch was served and all enjoyed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hills of Portland were visiting in the Valley Sunday evening.

Mrs. C. F. Kesterson and Mrs. G. N. Sager visited Mr. and Mrs. Ellingham of Mt. Tabor Wednesday.

G. H. Richey and G. N. Sager were Portland visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCollough, son Ralph, and Miss Ollie Elexander, attended a musical recital at Gresham Friday evening.

Mrs. C. B. Simmons, Mrs. Adams, and Miss Francis Lord, and John Lord of Ariel, Washington, relatives of Mrs. Harry Sager, were recent visitors at the home of the latter.

There will be a show at Pleasant Valley grange hall Friday evening. All are invited. The play will be "Peter Pan."

Pleasant Valley grange hall has a new coat of paint and the interior is being kalsomined and cleaned. The Pleasant Valley church has also been painted and improved.

Safety and Mileage
For Rough Winter Driving

OPERATORS of large truck, bus and cab fleets must have rugged, long-mileage tires if they are to make money. That is why so many of them have standardized on Firestone. Experienced race drivers, almost to a man, equip with Firestone. Car owners can have this same extra safety and economy—by using Gum-Dipped Cords.

Gum-Dipping, the Firestone extra process, impregnates and insulates every fiber of every cord with rubber—insures greater safety and comfort over rough winter roads—builds extra strength and flexibility into the sidewalls—an exclusive feature that adds thousands of miles to the life of a tire.

Come in—let us save you money by equipping your car with a set of these wonderful tires—prices are still low.
