Miss Alice Roberts will be employed at the veterans' hospital in Portland for the next three months in clerical work. The work, which is checking up on invoices received at the hospital, comes under the rulings of the civil service commission of the government.

William H. Stanley and A. W. Griffis have returned to their homes from forest ranger work in the Bull Run division after the season's work.

Mrs. Edna Bunting is moving from her location on Third street to the Duane Ely house on Second street directly east of Walrad's store.

Miss Mildred McGregor, Miss Wilene Botkin and Stafford Dowsett visited at their respective homes over the week-end from Oregon Agricultural college.

Miss Marie Blom has been absent from her duties at the Hepp Racket store since last Friday with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thom arrived from Victoria, B. C., Sunday last at the residence of the former's brother, William Thom. The following day they took possession of a grocery store which they have purchased in the Mt. Scott district. They have two children, Neal, a son who is remaining for a short time at Davenport, Washington, and Ruth, a daughter at Toledo, Oregon, who expect to join their parents later.

Arthur Wall, small son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wall, is obliged to be absent from his first grade work at school on account of an attack of the mumps.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Green, of Portland, were callers in Gresham Thursday at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Klotzbach. The Rev. Mr. Green was pastor of the Free Methodist church in Gresham some years ago. He came out at this time to have some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern, Mrs. Emma Gilmore and Mrs. William Thom and son were dinner guests Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ella Oliphant who lives in the Mt. Scott district.

Edward Schenk, who has been employed in the forestry service during the past summer, left Portland yesterday on a freighter for New York city by way of the Panama canal. He expects to return in three months on the same ship. He will be employed in the engine room of the big boat.

There will be a meeting of the new fair board with the grange committee on fairs held Monday night in the city hall. As the granges are considered the backbone of the county fair it is hoped their cooperation will be heartily given.

Henry Latourell and wife will start in a few days for National City, California. They will make the trip in their new Chrysler-4 coach recently purchased of Hessel Implement company.

Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mrs. C. J. Lundquist and Mrs. B. L. Walrad attended the county convention of the Royal Neighbors which convened at Lents this week.

YOUR PORTRAIT
 What do you say when someone asks you for your portrait?
 "Sorry, but I haven't a recent one."
 Or—
 "Haven't had one made in ten years and I would not want to give you one of those."
 Possibly you dig up an old portrait and stand a lot of joshing like—
 "I remember when they did their hair that way."
 OR—
 "I used to have a tie like that; weren't they funny?"
 Fashions change, you change

EXTRAVAGANCE
EXTRAVAGANCE
EXTRAVAGANCE

Much of the poverty in America is due to our wasteful habits. We spend annually:

510 millions for cigars
 750 millions for perfume and cosmetics
 800 millions for cigarettes
 800 millions for tobacco and snuff
 Etc., Etc., Etc.

The mighty Rome fell through extravagance and other nations should profit from its example.

Don't spend it all. Set aside a definite amount of every pay check for your savings account in the First State Bank.
