

HILL-CLOW NUPTIALS SURPRISE FRIENDS

The families of Hans Larsen and H. S. Clow were agreeably surprised Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Hill, the latter known as Miss Josephine Clow, came from Longview, Washington, and broke the news of their marriage, which was an affair of the Friday previous at Kelso. The ceremony took place at the Presbyterian parsonage and was witnessed by two friends of the couple. Immediately following the wedding, the couple left for Tacoma for a visit of two days, returning to Gresham Sunday evening. They were accompanied to this place by an aunt of the groom, Mrs. John Houser and a friend, Mrs. Arla Holland. A luncheon was given in honor of the newlyweds at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larsen, after which they returned to Longview where the groom is employed as a lumber grader for the Long-Bell Lumber company. He is the son of Clarence Hill, who is now in California. The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clow. Both were former students of Gresham Union high school and have lived in Gresham a number of years. The sister of the groom, Miss Florence Hill, and her fiancé, Walter Decker, of Portland, were also present at the luncheon Sunday evening. Their wedding will be an event of Monday evening, November 2, at the Un-denominational temple, at which time their friends are invited to be present to witness the ceremony.

GRADE SCHOOL TO SHOW "STEPHEN STEPS OUT"

The first movie show of the year at the Gresham grade school will be given on the coming Friday evening, beginning at 7:30. The title of the 7-reel film is, "Stephen Steps Out." Stephen is a young, unsophisticated freshman and the complications he gets himself into form an exceedingly good plot, full of interest and mirth. The proceeds of this entertainment will be used to complete the payment on the moving picture machine purchased a year ago. It is hoped a good sized audience will greet the rendition of this popular film.

Pleasant Memories of Gresham Remain.

In a personal letter addressed to Philip Hopp, the genial proprietor of the racket store, T. Lewis Green, who visited in Gresham about six months ago, writes from his home in Poughkeepsie, New York, and expresses his appreciation of Gresham and surroundings as follows:

"My memories of my short visit in your town will linger long with me and my dear wife. We found the people most loyal and congenial and when we look on the paper with the personal signatures of which yours is one, I can in my mind's eye see all you folks and the lay of the town."

On their return east they stopped in Salt Lake City a day and night, visiting the great Mormon tabernacle and enjoying a concert on the big organ. They also took a trip through the Royal Gorge. Mr. Green is a brother of Miss Cora Green and Mrs. George Metzger of Gresham.

Although it is a common practice in some of the rainy winter districts of Oregon to leave dairy cows out in the rain, they are better off under shelter. It takes good feed that might better be used for production to keep them warm when exposed to the weather. The shelter is better and less expensive than the extra feed.

20 Years of Thorpe

What's a football season without Thorpe? "Never complete," say oldtime gridiron fans. The famous full-blooded Oklahoma Indian of Carlisle school fame is this year dashing about in the backfield for the N. Y. Giants, a professional team. Thorpe, All-around Olympic Champion of 1910, is to football what Walter Johnson and Ty Cobb are to baseball, "the grand old man of the game."

LITTLE GIRL DIES FROM EFFECTS OF DIPHTHERIA

A peculiarly sad commitment service was held at the Gresham cemetery Sunday afternoon when Dortha Raney, aged 5 years and 10 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Raney, was laid to rest without the formality of a church funeral service. This was impossible considering the nature of the disease from which the little one died on Saturday morning, October 24, at the isolation hospital between Gresham and Portland on the Powell Valley road.

Mrs. Raney and the little girl had been taken to the hospital from their home at Cherryville on October 2, the latter afflicted with an attack of diphtheria and the mother a carrier of the disease. The child had recovered from the disease but paralysis followed after the little girl seemed to be recovering, and death resulted. Interment took place Sunday afternoon, Dr. A. Thompson officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Raney have returned to their home at Cherryville, where the former is employed by the Sandy Lumber company. The little girl is survived by a brother, aged two. The Gates Funeral Home had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Aged Pleasant Home Man Dies.

Henry Shaw, aged 75 years, passed away at Pleasant Home this morning after a lingering illness. He had been afflicted with Bright's disease, followed by a paralytic stroke, but had been bedfast for only about the past ten days. He had lived at Pleasant Home for the greater part of the past 24 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Martha Shaw and five children, Mrs. Lura Rich, of Pleasant Home, Mrs. Minnie Sanders, of Dallas, Oregon, Mrs. Olive Childs, of Portland, D. P. Shaw of Forest Grove, and W. A. Shaw, of Klamath Falls, Oregon. The remains are at the undertaking parlors of J. E. Metzger, but funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Chrysanthemums for Sale.

My chrysanthemums are now ready for sale, more beautiful than ever. Call and see them. Mrs. M. E. Williams, phone 584.—Adv.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and particularly the quartet which sang at the grave for their kindness in the death and burial of our little girl. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Raney.

GRESHAM WILL MEET ESTACADA ON LOCAL GRID NEXT FRIDAY

Game to Be Called at 3:10; Hard Tussle Sure

Gresham Business Houses and Offices Generally Will Be Closed for Big Event From 3 to 4:45; Stunts Planned.

What promises to be Gresham High's biggest football game of the year is to take place Friday afternoon, October 30, on Stapleton field in Gresham when Estacada high school will tussle for the supremacy of the gridiron. The game will be called at 3:10. Last year this team defeated Gresham 27 to 0 and now it is sure of victory. The Gresham team this year is one of the best and strongest for several years and the 11 boys are planning to give Estacada something to think about. Principal Cannon talked with two of the Estacada football boys recently and they seemed to think history would repeat itself as far as their victory is concerned.

The advertising committee has several good stunts worked up for Friday and it is hoped a record crowd will be on hand. Practically every business house in Gresham will close from 3 to 4:45 p. m. to witness the fun. There will be a serpentine parade through the streets Friday noon, the students wearing their new rooters' caps. There will be yells a plenty, speeches and various other exhibitions. It is expected that the Estacada football captain will speak to the students on the streets during the progress of the serpentine parade.

The members of the team realize that they are against foes worthy of their steel, and they will put forth their best line-up, which Principal Cannon describes as follows:

Full back: Floyd McKinney, third year on team, hits the line hard, is strong on defense and is prepared to play the best game of his life, weight 160 pounds.

Half backs: Clinton Chalker, three years of experience, is fast, a punter of strength, a side stepper, a stiff-arm expert and the fastest man on the team. He weighs 147 pounds and is built compactly. He can buck a line, run off tackle plays or run the ends with equal ability.

Horace Wihlon, built next to the ground, an excellent receiver of forward passes, first year on the team, never says quit, always a ground gainer, and is depended upon much by the other players. Has kicked 12 out of 14 attempts after a touchdown thus far this year, weight 145 pounds.

Quarter back: Frank Smith, weight 130 pounds, an excellent open field man and runner-back of punts. Smith will direct the attack against Estacada and much depends upon his brains, can pass well, is good in defense and fast.

Powerful wing men—ends: Richey, two year's experience, used as end because of his speed and power to break up plays, weight 137 pounds, tackles savagely, can play anywhere on the line.

Harvey Brown, weighs 140 pounds, three year's experience, aggressive, popular forward pass receiver, is fast, hard tackler, stiff-arm expert and dependable in any defensive play, few plays go around either end.

Tackles: Harvey Anderson, weight 165 pounds; third year of experience, strong man of the team, knows how to use his hands and head, off the field a quiet and unassuming nature, the whistle changes him into an aggressive player and woe to the man who gets within reach of those paws. Ralph Ellsworth, weight 195 pounds, strong, very quiet but a fighter, holds like a stone wall.

Guards: Loyd Salisbury, weight 152, two year's experience, very quiet but plays football all the time, has faculty of breaking through the opponent's line and smearing plays, we depend on Loyd.

Dale Altman, weight 151 pounds, first year experience, plays a good game, knows how to care for himself against his opponent, breaks the line often, tackles low and hard, is a better player each succeeding game.

Center: Eldore Johnson, weight 139 pounds, very quiet sort of lad, first year on team, is dependable, likes the game, plays every minute.

With good material on the squad Gresham is well fortified. Additional players include: John Fleming, Harry Bjur, Orville Johnson, Earl Whetzell, Arnold Rogers, Arden Squire, John Hillyard, Charles Morey, Edward Mink, Linden Lunday and Ted Karlen.

Nearly every substitution is as good as the first player. Excitement is running high in the high school and Principal Cannon is responsible for the statement that the school feels very grateful to the business men who agree to close their places of business during the game.

The following firms have agreed to close their places of business on Friday afternoon to witness the game: A. W. Metzger & Co., Gresham Drug Co., Withrow's Confectionery, Welling's Restaurant, Cecil Metzger Grocery, Walrad Mercantile Co., Kidder Hardware Co., Roberts' Confectionery, Wack & Co., Gresham Outlook, G. M. Davidson, Aylsworth & Martin, The Oscarette, Raker & Son, Botkin & Johnston, Hessel Implement Co., 20th Century Grocery, Taber Pharmacy, Guy D. Jones, J. E. Metzger, S. E. Palmquist, W. J. Bible Standard Services.

The Four Square gospel meetings which are being held at the Gresham community church on east Powell Valley road by Evangelists C. R. and Helen Dillon, are creating interest in the community. The leaders report that souls are being saved and the sick healed. Meetings are held each evening with the exception of Monday and Saturday evenings. A special meeting will be held Wednesday evening with special music and a divine healing sermon and prayers for the sick.

STOLEN CAR RETURNED ONE STILL MISSING

County Club Agent W. D. Kinder has reported the return of his machine, a 1924 Ford touring, which was stolen from his garage on Tuesday night of last week. It was located by the chief of police near Hillsboro in an isolated spot, but was in good condition with nothing molested with the exception of the keys to the car and some identification cards in the pockets of the auto. There is nothing which will give any clue to the identity of the thief or thieves and no motive has been discovered for the theft.

Mrs. M. G. Fritz, residing in the Cedar district, has not been so fortunate in securing her machine which was stolen in a similar manner to the Kinder car. On the night of July 25 her garage was broken into and her new 1924 Ford stolen. She was lucky in that the machine was well insured, but the authorities were unable to obtain any trace of it.

Rockwood Woman Injured by Fall.

Mrs. Peter Welland, whose home is about two miles west of Gresham between the Section Line and the Base Line roads, was severely hurt Thursday when she fell several steps down the basement stairs and struck on the cement floor at the bottom. She cut a gash in her forehead over the temple, besides hurting her back, arms and side. She was descending the steps to show a friend the new furnace which they had recently installed in their home, when in some manner she caught her heel and lost her balance. A physician was hastily summoned from Gresham to her relief. She is reported to be resting easier and her recovery is looked for.

CLUB BOYS, GIRLS, PLAN FOR SHOW

Enthusiasm over the great Pacific International Livestock exposition, which will open to the public on October 31 and last for an entire week, is steadily growing among the boys and girls of the cattle and poultry clubs, and many are planning to enter their stock in the big show. It is expected that at least 64 head of stock will be exhibited, and calves are being clipped and blanketed and hogs washed and brushed.

Several of the boys have pens of four hogs which will be sold at auction under the Portland Union Stock yards special. Those with pens of four have always made money by disposing them at the International, as the stock yard people appreciate the quality of the stuff raised by club members.

The judging teams of livestock and poultry, and the canning and prune bread teams have been working hard to win the championship of the Pacific Northwest and to put over a real demonstration before the people. The canning team is composed of Lois Cree and Edith Swanson of Gilbert, Thelma Salisbury and Pearl Yandell of the Gresham cooking club will demonstrate prune bread. There are two poultry judging teams, Carl Bowman, Edwin Maxwell and Raymond Beigh of Gilbert, Roland Sheller, Alvin Sheller and Charles Edwards of Lynch. The stock judging team consists of John Fleming, Robert Kerslake and Percy Carlson of the Victory Holstein Calf club.

Age Does Not Deter Pastor Barry.

The Rev. D. Q. Barry of Gladstone, former pastor of the Baptist church in Gresham, although his age is three score years and ten, is able to accomplish work which would stall most men younger in years. His strength and endurance are remarkable and he says that he is seldom weary. Mrs. Barry is an able coadjutor of her husband and accompanies him on most of his trips.

On last Sunday, which was Mr. Barry's 70th birthday, the two traveled 90 miles and Mr. Barry conducted six services, Sunday school and preaching at Barton at 10:30, Sunday school and preaching at Evergreen school at 2:30, illustrated talk to the juniors and preaching at Mulino 7:30 in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Barry drove into Portland every day last week and attended the Billy Sunday meetings every afternoon and evening, besides attending to many other duties. The two were in Gresham today calling on old friends.

Valuable "Don'ts" for Users of Electricity.

That users of electricity can help hold the number of avoidable accidents to the minimum is suggested by the Oregon Public Utility Information Bureau, which lists the following "Don'ts" as worth putting into practice:

- Don't fool with bare wires, even at home. Results are likely to be shocking, if not fatal.
- Don't leave the cord attached to the electric iron when not in use. If you want to see a house burn, go to the movies.
- Don't use the electric vibrator in the bath tub, even though it probably would make future bathing unnecessary.
- Don't hang lamp cords on nails. The nail will get the "juice" and your insurance may have lapsed.
- Don't turn on an electric light when standing in a bath tub, if you wish to turn on another anywhere.
- Don't hang lamp bulbs against wood or cover them with paper or other inflammables. Confining them produces heat and heat produces fire.

THE AGGIE TEAM THAT WILL MEET MONTANA ON OCTOBER 31

POWERFUL AGGIE LINE CHARGING

Montana faces a fast and powerful bunch of veteran players when they meet the Oregon Aggies for the Homecoming game October 31 at Corvallis.

The strongest part of this team is the blunting line that opens holes for the backs to charge through, the line that scatters and has the ends clear when forward passes are snapped, that drives down the field for touchdowns, gets down under punts, outcharges on defense and fights like grim death
