GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Effie Beegle is with her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Cox, for a few days. She also spent part of the time with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beegle. Mr. Beegle came home from Keasey, Oregon, over Sunday where he is employed by the Inman-Poulson logging company as a saw filer.

Miss Clara Simpson was the guest of Miss Mary Miller over the weekend.

Mrs. J. A. Bushong is in Seattle, where she is spending the time with her children, a sister and other relatives and friends.

Gresham has been selected as the meeting place for the next state convention of the W. C. T. U. which will be held a year from this time. The 42d gathering of the organization closed at Hood River Friday and was attended by about 200 delegates in all, a number from Gresham being present.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Dewey visited with relatives and friends over Sunday. He is on his way to hold meetings in California. He preached at the Free Methodist church Sunday evening.

Miss Alice Roberts is driving a new Dodge coupe which she purchased last week.

Miss Georgie Stapleton, who was home from Oregon Agricultural college over the week-end, celebrated her birthday Saturday by a dinner at her home at which she entertained Miss Mildred Metzger and Miss Mabel Jackson.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion will conduct a bake sale on Saturday, October 31, at the A. W. Metzger store.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Johnson and two children, of Portland, visited with the Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Klotzbach over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase St. Clair have moved from the Eleanor Boughner house on Ridge avenue to apartments in the Howitt building.

A Gresham student, Sherman N. Kilgore, has completed a correspondence study course in the extension division of the University of Oregon. His work has consisted of the study of educational psychology. That the people of Oregon are making increasingly good use of the correspondence courses is indicated by the fact that completions of courses thus far in 1925 show a gain of approximately 40 per cent over last year.

The Outlook is in receipt of a card from Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison, former residents of Gresham. They have now located in Santa Ana, California, and are much pleased with their new surroundings. Their trip south was a leisurely one with much opportunity to enjoy their surroundings.

George Macho of Sandy was brought into a local physician's office yesterday about noon to receive aid for a fractured leg. The man, a rancher, was engaged in clearing land on his farm when in some manner a small stump flew up and struck him on the leg just above the ankle, with the result both bones were broken. It is said to be an ugly fracture and it will be considerable time before he will be able to resume work.

Two former Gresham Union high school boys are making good at the Oregon Agricultural college this year. Glen Mercer has been elected to the office of athletic manager of the senior class and Grant McMillan, who was on the Rook debating team last year, has been chosen on the varsity debating squad for the ensuing year.

Two Gresham youths, evidently "itchin'" for a fight, decided it was time to settle it Saturday and accordingly, without any preliminaries, they proceeded to pick out the best man, the fistic encounter taking place on the streets of Gresham. They were arrested and brought before Judge Brown for a hearing, but he decided the evidence and the case itself to be so trivial as to warrant dismissal.

C. M. Johnson has disposed of his Wallula Heights home on Second street to Mrs. Caroline Drube. Mrs. Bertha Pincus, a niece of Mr. Johnson who has been here for the past two or three months caring for her uncle, left with him this morning for her home in Santa Monica, California, where it is hoped that his health may be benefited. B. W. Thorne handled the real estate transaction in disposing of the Gresham property.

The senior and junior leagues of the Zion Evangelical church will give a Halloween party Friday night at the home of Mrs. Clementina Metzger. All members and friends of the leagues are requested to meet at the Gresham grade schoolhouse at 7:45 o'clock sharp.

Miss Lelia Kinder of Prescott, Washington, a sister of W. D. Kinder, is here for an indefinite visit.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Becker, who reside on Buckley avenue, on Saturday last, a son.

Mrs. C. C. Anderson has recovered from a severe attack of the flu. She returned about the middle of September from Pendleton where she had spent five months, and has been ill the most of the time since then.

The Portland Electric Power company has detailed a new 1926 Ford roadster for its use in Gresham and surrounding territory, which is being driven by Ivan Swift, an employe of the company.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern visited on Sunday with their son, W. R. Kern and family at Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bartholomew have moved to Gresham from White Salmon, Washington, and are occupying the C. M. Johnson house on Wallula Heights which was recently sold to Mrs. Caroline Drube. Mr. Bartholomew is employed as area salesman for the Standard Oil company.

Otto Magnuson, of Powell Valley, is erecting a new house on his five-acre tract on Pioneer avenue north of the cannery. It is understood that he will occupy it upon completion.

John Palmquist, of Vancouver, visited with his son, S. E. Palmquist and family last week.

Miss Florence Hill, who is to be married next Monday evening to Walter Decker, of Portland, was given a pleasant surprise shower last evening in Portland at the home of one of her associates, Miss Olga Arndt. About 20 were present and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Larsen, of Gresham, attended. She received many beautiful gifts and a delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning returned Monday evening from a trip, the first long one to be made in their new Star sedan which they recently purchased. They visited with their granddaughter, Miss Louise Howard, who is a student at Monmouth normal and also spent some time with relatives at Woodburn. While at Monmouth they entertained a number of the Gresham girls with a ride in the new machine.

C. M. Quicksall has received word of the death of an uncle in Illinois, Minor Quicksall, for whom the Gresham man was named. He was 84 years of age and had been a pioneer of that section of the country, having lived in the same place since before the beginning of the Civil War. Mr. and Mrs. Quicksall visited with him when they were east a year ago the past summer.

Mrs. Anna Full went to Vancouver on business yesterday to complete arrangements for the sale of 10 acres in the Fargher Lake district to W. L. Seely, of Salem.

Mrs. D. H. Nash has had a guest for the past week her sister, Mrs. Ruby Standish of Halsey, Oregon.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson and her mother, Mrs. Marion Johnson, have returned from Seaside where they spent several days. They report a very enjoyable stay at the popular beach resort.

CIRCULATOR

Broadcasts Healthful Circulating "Warmth and Comfort"

HOW IT OPERATES

THE AUTONA CIRCULATOR is built according to the most improved principles of the warm air furnace construction, and may be placed in any room in the home. Warm air is broadcasted through every room in the house and to all corners, thus causing a constant circulation of all the air in the space to be heated.

A WORK OF BEAUTY

THE AUTONA CIRCULATOR is very compact, being no larger than an ordinary heating stove, yet has a circulating capacity four times greater than the largest size base burner made, and has ample capacity to keep any ordinary three-or-four-room house comfortably warm.

Better Breeding Promotes Prosperity No. 6

Combining Business with Pleasure

ATTEND the 15th annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, October 31st, to November 7th. It is a trip that will pay big dividends both in education and enjoyment.

Here, mingling with the most noted and successful breeders of the country and seeing the largest combined exhibit of livestock ever assembled under one roof in America, you can gain new ideas which can profitably be put into operation. There's also the Land and Industrial Exhibits and the spectacular Horse Show, so thrilling you'll want to attend every performance.

The First State Bank urges every farmer to go. Attending will bring better breeding methods and hence more prosperity to this section, which is the goal all of us are striving to reach. You may be sure that we will cooperate with you in building more profitable herds.
