

REVIVAL CAMPAIGN WAS CONSIDERED SUCCESSFUL

The revival campaign which has been in progress at the Methodist Episcopal church during the past three weeks was brought to a close on Sunday night. The attendance has been good at all times but on the last night the auditorium and Epworth League room were packed to the doors.

The meetings have been characterized by earnest, clear preaching on the part of the evangelist, D. Willia Caffray, who has insisted upon repentance, restitution, and the utmost cleanliness in life and heart. Miss Caffray's assistant, Miss Clara Christensen, won the friendship of all by her sweet singing and pleasing personality. Large numbers attending the meetings were from other churches and other places, many coming from Portland where the evangelists have held previous meetings. Scores attested to the benefit of the meetings in their own personal lives and the general effect is the quickening of all churches taking part in the campaign.

The thank offerings taken on Sunday were the only compensation the evangelists received and amounted to nearly $400, many being moved to give largely out of gratitude for benefits received.

Miss Caffray and Miss Christensen are on their way to Klamath Falls, where they will engage in a series of meetings, after which Miss Caffray will spend a few days in Spokane preparing for a trip to South America, where she will spend several months in an evangelistic tour.
