

GRESHAM LOCALS

Miss Helen Hisey, of Salem, was an attendant at the senior play Friday evening and the guest of Miss Joyce Kidder. She returned to her home Saturday with her father, the Rev. A. S. Hisey, who was in this vicinity in connection with his duty as district superintendent.

Mrs. H. M. Shaw returned Sunday from Spokane where she has spent the past month with her daughter, Mrs. H. Donley.

Mrs. William Stanley is at the Portland sanitarium where she underwent an operation Thursday morning. She is reported as doing well and it is expected she will be able to return in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning were privileged to attend the Morning Oregonian's birthday dinner in Portland Friday at the auditorium. They are pioneers and have read the Oregonian for the past 50 years or more. They report the gathering on Friday as a most enjoyable one.

The Areme club will give one of its popular dances on Friday evening, December 11, at the Masonic hall in Gresham. G'gray's 4-piece orchestra will furnish music. Arrangements are in the hands of competent committee and a good time is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cathey, daughter, Louise, and son, Burdette, came down from Seattle Saturday for a few days' visit with Mr. Cathey's brother, D. M. Cathey and family. The young man returned the following day to Seattle where he is a student in Seattle-Pacific college, but Mr. and Mrs. Cathey left yesterday morning for Kennewick, Washington, near which place they have a ranch. They expect to return to Gresham tomorrow and visit until Saturday of this week. Mrs. D. M. Cathey also had as a guest for a day or so her sister, Mrs. E. L. Tower, of Portland.

Luetta Welling is absent from school this week on account of an attack of the mumps.

Mrs. Hans Larsen went to Eugene Wednesday where she visited with a former Gresham resident, Mrs. Melville T. Wire, who is ill in a Eugene hospital. From there she went to Salem where she visited with Rev. and Mrs. Robert Miller who have returned home with her to spend a few days in Gresham and at Pleasant Home with Mrs. Larsen's brother, J. F. Wilmarth. They expect to attend the Dr. Price meetings in Portland part of this week. The party spent Friday evening in Silverton where they attended the revival meetings being held by the Rev. S. F. Pitts. They report that wonderful services are in progress at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. White, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. White, have moved from Portland to Gresham and are occupying the William L. Stockton house in Regner addition.

J. R. Griffis, father of A. W. Griffis living near the high school, suffered a stroke of paralysis Saturday about noon and is lying at his son's home entirely speechless. The stroke affected his right side to some extent, but the vocal organs seem to be entirely paralyzed. Mr. Griffis will be 93 years old if he lives until the 23d of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bushong and son, James, visited friends and relatives at Warren and St. Helens over the week-end.

SANTA'S Headquarters

Anticipating the wishes of every child, the Christmas season finds Hepp's Racket Store toy department crowded to overflowing with fascinating innovations. Bring the youngsters in.

Santa Claus has certainly made this store his headquarters judging from the hundreds of toys he has left with us.

For the little girl there are adorable babies—so natural that even bigger sister—who thinks she has outgrown dolls, will want to cuddle them. Some go to sleep—some cry—and, wonders of wonders—some can even walk! And the price—
