

GRESHAM LOCALS

Dewey Gaskill, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gaskill, has been ill for the past ten days with a form of intestinal flu. His temperature on Sunday ran up to 106 degrees.

Mrs. Laura Smith of Portland spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Klotzbach. She was a friend of long standing with Mrs. Klotzbach's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Meyers, residing east of Gresham, are planning on spending the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. N. W. Montgomery, in Portland. They expect to go in tomorrow and remain until after New Year's.

Paul and Irene Risher are recovering from an attack of grip or something akin to the flu which threatened them for a while with pneumonia.

George Preston of Kelso, Washington, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Emery.

NOTICE.

On account of next Friday being Christmas Day the Outlook office will be closed all day. Friday's Outlook will be issued on Thursday. Correspondents and advertisers are asked to furnish their copy a day early. This will help us all to have a

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Ezra Thomas returned Sunday night from Richland Center, Wisconsin, where he had gone to accompany the remains of the late Audley Davis. While in Wisconsin Mr. Thomas visited his boyhood home at Montfort.

A new feature of the Christmas tree decoration is the five-pointed star 30 inches in diameter, set with brilliant white lights, which graces the topmost peak of the 48-foot tree. This beautiful and appropriate ornament is the workmanship of Frank Jones and was the only thing lacking to make a perfect tree.

The Gresham Post American Legion will play the Western Electric quintet at the high school gymnasium on Wednesday evening, December 23. The Legion boys are just now hitting their stride and showed it in the game with Corbett last Friday evening, when they trimmed 61 to 5. The Western Electric team has won 10 straight games this season, and boasts of three players of last year's Orange-B team. The local boys who will take the floor are Jackson, Booth, Bailey, Lundy, Glen Winters and Kruger. French will referee.

Miss Vida Cemer of Spokane is visiting with Miss Myrtle Risher and other friends this week.

Miss Edna Angell left last Monday for Claremont, California, where she will spend the holidays with relatives. Her mother, who is on a visit to this country from England, will be there.

There will be a Christmas story hour for primary children at the Gresham branch library on Thursday afternoon, December 24, from 3 to 4.

Mrs. Edna Bunting and children have moved to a cottage on Roberts avenue between Second and Third streets.

Miss Agnes Gorzelanczyk, teacher of the Palmer school near Bridal Veil, stopped in Gresham on her way to her home at Chehalis, Washington, for the holidays.

Christmas exercises at the Methodist Episcopal church will be held on Wednesday evening, beginning promptly at 7:30. A fine program has been arranged including scripture reading and songs by the entire school, a number of exercises and group songs. Recitations will be given by Bobby Jones, Bonnie Bell Smith, Jim Metzger and Elizabeth Thom. Robert Goudy will play two selections on the clarinet. In one he will be accompanied on the piano by his sister, Marian, and in the other by Margaret St. Clair. The young people's choir will sing a Christmas carol and will lead in all congregational singing. All are cordially invited.

Someone most obligingly saved B. O. Boswell the trouble of trimming his handsome Japanese camelia which graces the Boswell lawn on south Roberts avenue. A day or so ago he and his wife discovered that someone had stripped 12 or 15 of the choicest shoots from the plant. From all indications it will be an unlucky day for the miscreant if he happens to be found.

J. H. Hoss is confined to his bed all the time at present, and his condition is not regarded as favorable.
